June 2015 For Gce Cameroon:

Bali Nyonga Today K. Titanji, 2016-11-30 This newly edited volume Bali Nyonga Today covers about thirty years of 1985-2015 developments in Bali Nyonga Cameroon. Already well established as a city state prior to German colonization in the 19th century, Bali Nyonga continues to adapt to national and global changes since its incorporation into the modern state of Cameroon. With fresh contributions from 12 leading scholars, this volume covers a wide variety of themes and issues including geographical and historical updates on Chamba migration and settlement in its present homeland in Northwestern Cameroon, an in-depth description of Bali Nyonga cultural associations within the country and the Bali diaspora in the United States, the coexistence of traditional and modern religious worldviews, traditional medicinal practices and life cycle rituals of significance. Of noteworthy are two chapters devoted to Mungaka, the language of the Balis, and its revival in the context of new language policies and developments in African linguistics. Spiced with numerous photos, many of which have never been published, the book is a welcome addition to studies in contemporary African history, culture, and society. Vakunta: Dissent: The Highest Stage of Patriotism, 2023-06-27 Dissent: The Highest Stage of Patriotism is a treatise on dissent as the acme of love for one's fatherland. Arguing against the grain, the author avoids smug patriotism that which manages to make everything about the homeland flawless and beautiful. It is the author's conviction that the greatness of a nation resides not in citizens' blind sycophancy but rather in their willingness to call into question dereliction of duty by political leadership. The goal of this book is to educate global citizens on the quintessence of political vigilance. Education in West Africa Emefa Takyi-Amoako, 2015-05-21 Education in West Africa is a comprehensive critical reference guide to education in the region. Written by regional experts, the book explores the education systems of Benin, Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Cape Verde, Chad, The Gambia, Ghana, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Ivory Coast, Liberia, Mali, Mauritania, Niger, Nigeria, Senegal, Sierra Leone, and Togo. It critically examines the development of education provision in each country whilst exploring both local and global contexts. Including a comparative introduction to the issues facing education in the region as a whole, this handbook is an essential reference for researchers, scholars, international agencies, and policy makers at all levels. Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world, comprising their aims, activities, and events. The End of Sunless Cities Martha F. Neba-Mbandi, PhD, 2015-12-03 Today's technologically empowered youths, even those stuck in poverty, are the most informed and potentially the most powerful youths in human history. This current power revolution presents an enormous and unprecedented opportunity for us to end global poverty sustainably by the middle of this century. The financially handicapped youths of today are not looking for handouts; they are looking for opportunities to pull themselves out of poverty. But they need a broader educational foundation because the rapid growth in technology has reoriented the trajectory of economic growth from agro-based to production-based development, which requires skills that cannot be acquired in elementary school Consequently in the current technologically driven global economy no nation has pulled itself out of poverty sustainably without acquiring a critical mass of at least 80% secondary school enrollment rate Yet the average secondary school enrollment rate for low income countries is 55 16% and in sub Saharan Africa the rate is 49 55% some countries have rates as low as 17 41% UNESCO Institute for Statistics 2014 In 2011 UNESCO announced that the inadequate funding of secondary school education in many low income nations constitutes the greatest obstacle to progress in global education Teach For Hope TFH is an education system designed by this author to dislodge the above obstacle universalize secondary to community college education for all empower youths with the skills that they need to enhance their entrepreneurship and employability promote access to institutional financing and facilitate youth s inclusion in the global market TFH is financed by SEPSE a self financing system that does not require perpetual financial aid or parental financing or government funding

The Cameroon GCE Crisis Francis B. Nyamnjoh, Richard Fonteh Akum, 2008 This book documents the battles fought by the Anglophone community in Cameroon to safeguard the General Certificate of Education GCE a symbol of their cherished colonial heritage from Britain from attempts by agents of the Ministry of National Education to subvert it These battles opposed a mobilised and determined Anglophone civil society against numerous machinations by successive Francophone dominated governments to destroy their much prided educational system in the name of national integration When Southern Cameroonians re united with La Republique du Cameroun in 1961 they claimed that they were bringing into the union a fine education system from which their Francophone compatriots could borrow Instead they found themselves battling for decades to save their way of life Central to their concerns and survival as a community is an urgent need for cultural recognition and representation of which an educational system free of corruption and trivialisation through politicisation is a key component
