Linguistic Variety of Judaeo-Arabic in Letters from the Cairo Genizah Esther-Miriam Wagner,2010-08-23 The Cairo Genizah has preserved a vast number of medieval and post medieval letters written in the Jewish variety of Arabic The linguistic peculiarities of these letters provide an invaluable source for the understanding of the history of the Arabic language and the development of Arabic dialects This work compares and contrasts various linguistic features of Judaeo Arabic letters from different periods and is one of the first studies to present a comprehensive linguistic investigation into non literary Judaeo Arabic Its main focus is to provide an extensive diachronic linguistic description while distinguishing between features of epistolary Arabic and vernacular phenomena This study should be of interest to anyone working on the Arabic language sociolinguistics general historical linguistics and language typology in the extant volume she Wagner has clearly demonstrated that Judeo Arabic letters are to be viewed as primary source material capturing important aspects of language understanding of Jews and Judaism in the medieval and early modern Islamic world and therefore providing essential insights into the linguistic function of a substandard language or ethnolect like Judeo Arabic Wout van Bekkum BiOr no LXX 3 4 Documentary Arabic Private and Business Letters on Papyrus Eva Mira Grob, 2010 Arabic letters on papyrus challenge the modern reader There are few to no diacritical dots to distinguish homographs no systematic spacing between single words and in the majority of cases a low degree of graphical structuring However contemporary readers usually read and understood these documents easily probably because the recipient of a letter knew what to expect The letters are formulaic and their information packaging follows an algorithm typical for their time and content Here formulaic letter writing means not only the reuse of the same formulae or topoi but expressing thoughts in a predictable linguistic way and order both as a matter of readability and as one of adequacy and politeness The main concern of this work is to discover these unwritten rules and norms behind Arabic letter writing on papyrus
