The Arcana of Reproduction Leopoldina Fortunati,2025-02-25 The definitive feminist analysis of reproductive and caring labor to emerge from Italian feminism of the 1970s Emerging from the great social upheavals that contested the sexual and racial divisions of labor globally in the 1970s Leopoldina Fortunati s classic work expands and transforms how we analyze the sphere of reproduction redefining the value of the individual s life and the labor performed in the home Released here for the first time in its unabridged form with historical notation and contemporary commentary The Arcana of Reproduction is a foundational text and essential contribution to today s discussions of social reproduction and the history of Italian feminism Fortunati s work provides some of the earliest theorizations of immaterial affective and caring labor and of the role of technology in reproduction articulated decades before their popular reception in English academic literature Reading this work some 50 years after its original publication gives us the tools to analyze the contemporary state of capitalist development and of women s lives today The text remains prefigurative and essential in our era of digital labor

They Call It Love Alva Gotby,2023-01-31 Comforting a family member or friend soothing children providing company for the elderly ensuring that people feel well enough to work this is all essential labour Without it capitalism would cease to function They Call It Love investigates the work that makes a haven in a heartless world examining who performs this labour how it is organised and how it might change In this groundbreaking book Alva Gotby calls this work emotional reproduction unveiling its inherently political nature It not only ensures people s well being but creates sentimental attachments to social hierarchy and the status quo Drawing on the thought of the feminist movement Wages for Housework Gotby demonstrates that emotion is a key element of capitalist reproduction To improve the way we relate to one another will require a radical restructuring of society

The Communism of Love Richard Gilman-Opalsky,2020-12-01 Exploring the meanings and powers of love from ancient Greece to the present day Richard Gilman Opalsky argues that what is called love by the best thinkers who have approached the subject is in fact the beating heart of communism understood as a way of living not as a form of government Along the way he reveals with clarity that the capitalist way of assigning value to things is incapable of appreciating what humans value most Capitalism cannot value the experiences and relationships that make our lives worth living and can only destroy love by turning it into a commodity The Communism of Love follows the struggles of love in different contexts of race class gender and sexuality and shows how the aspiration for love is as close as we may get to a universal communist aspiration

Re-enchanting the World Silvia Federici, 2018-11-01 Silvia Federici is one of the most important contemporary theorists of capitalism and feminist movements In this collection of her work spanning over twenty years she provides a detailed history and critique of the politics of the commons from a feminist perspective In her clear and combative voice Federici provides readers with an analysis of some of the key issues and debates in contemporary thinking on this subject Drawing on rich historical research she maps the connections between the previous forms of enclosure that occurred with the birth of capitalism and the destruction of the commons and the new enclosures at the heart of the present phase of global capitalist accumulation Considering the commons from a feminist perspective this collection centers on women and reproductive work as crucial to both our economic survival and the construction of a world free from the hierarchies and divisions capital has planted in the body of the world proletariat Federici is clear that the commons should not be understood as happy islands in a sea of exploitative relations but rather autonomous spaces from which to challenge the existing capitalist organization of life and labor
