Archæology, Education, Medical, & Charitable Institutions of Glasgow (Classic Reprint) Magnus MacLean, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from Archaeology Education Medical and between the death of Malcolm III and the accession of Edgar it seemed as if the Forth was again to be the southern boundary Throughout Edgar's comparatively peaceful reign of nine ears some difficulties were experienced in ruling the combined territory on account of diversity of race and complications of a political nature and historians are of opinion that it was for this reason that on Edgar's death Scotland proper was assigned to Alexander with the title of king while David the younger brother ruled the southern districts as earl This latter territory Cumbria Teviotdale and part of Lothian the scene of many old rivalries between aboriginal Britons Saxon and Norse invaders and nearer neighbours the Picts and Scots comprehended the area now included in the counties of Lanark Renfrew Ayr Dumfries Peebles Selkirk and Roxburgh with adjoining districts not precisely defined Many places throughout these bounds soon rose into prominence when placed under the able administration of Earl David who had exceptional advantages for ruling the Border country On account of his sister being the wife of King Henry and his own marriage bringing with it substantial interests in England he was in his younger days in close relationship with the English court This intimacy with the southern country accelerated the Anglo Saxon and Norman immigration which had been going on since the arrival of Queen Margaret and it was not long till most of the land other than the portions retained as royal domain or gifted to the church was in the possession of the new settlers as overlords It is thought however that the native population would continue to occupy their previous holdings as cultivators of the soil and if this view be correct the introduction of the new feudal overlords probably caused little or no disturbance The protection which a powerful chief could extend to his vassals and tenants would counterbalance other disadvantages and reconcile the old possessors to the change To this period is likewise ascribed the origin of royal burghs with their communities enjoying the exclusive privilege of trade and the right of self government Possessing some features of the municipal organisation which characterised the cities of the Roman empire

these burghs were mainly formed on the model of those which in the tenth and eleventh centuries had come into existence on the continent of Europe and had been introduced into England after the Norman Conquest About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www forgottenbooks com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
