

ARCHITECTURAL BODY

"AFTER ALL THIS BACK-AND-FORTH ABOUT THE TITLE FOR THIS BOOK, HAVE WE ENDED UP WITH THE RIGHT ONE?"

"IF ONLY READERS COULD COME TO IT HAVING SOME SENSE OF WHAT AN ARCHITECTURAL BODY IS."

"WHAT WAS OUR LAST OTHER CHOICE FOR A TITLE?"

"CONSTRUCTING LIFE."

"WE COULDN'T TAKE IT AS THE TITLE BECAUSE OUR WORK HAS MORE TO DO WITH RECASTING OR RECONFIGURING LIFE THAN WITH AN OUT-AND-OUT CONSTRUCTING OF IT."

"WE WANTED IT BECAUSE IT SIGNALLED THE CONNECTION BETWEEN WHAT WE DO AND WORK BEING DONE IN THE FIELDS OF SELF-ORGANIZATION, AUTOPOIESIS, ARTIFICIAL LIFE, AND CONSCIOUSNESS STUDIES."

"THE DIRECTION IS THE SAME. WE'RE ON THE SAME AVENUE. EVEN SO, WE'RE DOING SOMETHING QUITE DIFFERENT."

"SHOULD WE SPELL OUT THE DIFFERENCES?"

"NOT THIS TIME AROUND."

Modern American Poetry and the Architectural

Imagination Jo Gill,2023-02-28 Modern American Poetry and the Architectural Imagination The Harmony of Forms assesses the relationship between architectural and poetic innovation in the United States across the twentieth century Taking the work of five key poets as case studies and drawing on the work of a rich range of other writers architects artists and commentators this study proposes that by examining the sustained and productive if hitherto overlooked engagement between the two disciplines we enrich our understanding of the complexity and interrelationship of both The book begins by tracing the rise of what was conceived of as modern and often international style architecture and by showing how poetry and architecture in the early decades of the century developed in dialogue and within a shared and often transnational context It then moves on to examine the material aesthetic and social conditions that helped shape both disciplines offering new readings of familiar poems and bringing other pertinent resources to light It considers the uses to which poets of the period put the insights of architecture and vice versa In closing Gill turns to modern and contemporary architects written accounts of their own practice in memoirs and other commentaries and examines how they have assimilated or resisted the practice and vision of poetry The Oxford Handbook of Modern and Contemporary American Poetry Cary

, 2021-09-06 Architectures of Poetry is the first comprehensive accounting of the currently intense dialogue between the sister arts of poetry and architecture Refusing to take either term in a metaphoric sense the eleven essays collected in this volume exemplify an exciting methodological direction for work in the humanities a literal wager that is willing to take the unintended suggestions of language as reality At the same time they also provide close readings of the work of a number of important writers In addition to a suite of essays devoted to the team of Arakawa and Madeline Gins chapters focus on figures as diverse as Francesco Borromini Rainer Maria Rilke Stéphane Mallarmé Friedrich Schlegel John Cage and Lyn Hejinian Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 Women Editing Modernism Jayne Marek, 2014-07-11 For many years young writers experimenting with forms and aesthetics in the early decades of this century small journals known collectively as little magazines were the key to recognition Joyce Stein Eliot Pound Hemingway and scores of other iconoclastic writers now considered central to modernism received little encouragement from the established publishers. It was the avant garde magazines, many of them headed by women, that fostered new talent and found a readership for it. Jayne Marek examines the work of seven women editors: Harriet Monroe, Alice Corbin Henderson, Margaret Anderson, Jane Heap, H. D. Bryher, Winifred Ellerman, and Marianne Moore, whose varied activities often behind the scenes and in collaboration with other women contributed substantially to the development of modernist literature. Through such publications as Poetry, The Little Review, The Dial, and Close Up, these women had a profound influence that has been largely overlooked by literary historians. Marek devotes a chapter as well to the interactions of these editors with Ezra Pound, who depended upon but also derided their literary tastes and accomplishments. Pound's opinions have had lasting influence in shaping critical responses to women editors of the early twentieth century. In the current reevaluation of modernism, this important book long overdue offers an indispensable introduction to the formative influence of women editors both individually and in their collaborative efforts.

Contemporary Architecture and Urbanism in Iran M. Reza Shirazi, 2018-01-02 This book presents an in-depth critical analysis of the internationally recognized place-specific works of three Iranian architects: Nader Ardalan, Kamran Diba, and Hossein Amanat, during the 60s and 70s, and their significant contribution to the emerging anti-modernist discourse. It argues that from the mid-19th century onwards, architecture and urban design in Iran has been oscillated between two extremes of modernity and tradition. Drawing on the theory of critical regionalism, Kenneth Frampton, the book critically analyses writings and works of the above-mentioned architects and contends that they created a space in between which unified two extremes of tradition and modernity in a creative way.

Khalq i Jadid: New Creation The book also contains three in-depth interviews with architects to discuss their singular narrative of the creation of 'in-between'. A concluding chapter addresses the promises of critical regionalist architecture and urban design in post-Revolutionary Iran, as well as the Middle East, where the dichotomy of tradition and modernity is yet a valid account.

Mapping Paradigms in Modern and Contemporary Art Simonetta Moro, 2021-07-29 Mapping Paradigms in Modern and Contemporary Art defines a new cartographic aesthetic or what Simonetta Moro calls carto aesthetics as a key to interpreting specific phenomena in modern and contemporary art through the concept of poetic cartography The problem of mapping although indebted to the spatial turn of poststructuralist philosophy is reconstructed as hermeneutics while exposing the nexus between topology space time and memory The book posits that the emergence of mapping as a ubiquitous theme in contemporary art can be attributed to the power of the cartographic model to constitute multiple worldviews that can be seen as paradigmatic of the post modern and contemporary condition This book will be of particular interest to scholars in art history art theory aesthetics and cartography
