

The background of the book cover is a complex architectural drawing. It features a top-down view of a city block with various building footprints, some shaded in light brown and green. Below this, there are several vertical lines of varying heights, resembling a section or elevation. The bottom half of the cover shows a perspective view of a building's structural frame, with numerous vertical columns and horizontal beams. The overall style is technical and artistic, typical of architectural publications.

Debates in Translation Studies Susan Bassnett, David Johnston, 2024-12-23 Translation Studies has been an extraordinary success story which grew out of the work of a small group of international scholars in the 1970s and has become a global phenomenon As the field has rapidly expanded it has also diversified This collection of essays by world leading translation specialists sheds light on some of the major shifts in thinking about translation that are taking place today The authors here engage with the most contentious issues within translation studies and cover topics ranging from examining the scope for machine and human translation to develop together to addressing the role of translation in the age of the Anthropocene and considering how we prepare translators for the complexities of contemporary communication Written in an accessible and engaging style and with an emphasis on challenging orthodoxies and encouraging critical thinking this is essential reading for all advanced students of translation studies and literature in translation

Computer-Aided Architectural Design. Future Trajectories Gülen Çağdaş, Mine Özkar, Leman Figen Gül, Ethem Gürer, 2017-06-20 This book constitutes selected papers of the 17th International Conference on Computer Aided Architectural Design Futures CAAD Futures 2017 held in Istanbul Turkey in July 2017 The 22 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from numerous submissions The papers are organized in topical sections on modeling urban design support systems for design decisions studying design behavior in digital environments materials fabrication computation shape studies

Art Maps and Cities Gloria Lanci, 2022-11-25 This book presents an original study on how contemporary artists are exploring urban spaces through mapping Despite a long history of representations of cities in maps and the relationships that can be envisaged between art maps and cities in the contemporary world little research is dedicated to investigating how artists intervene in the realm of urban cartography The research examines a century old history of art maps and draws on academic debates challenging traditional notions of maps as scientific artefacts produced through accurate measurement and surveying The potential of art maps to construct personal narratives through contestation embodiment and play is analysed in the city context where spaces are shaped by urban planning and design political ideologies and socio economic forces Adopting an exploratory and interpretative research approach that investigates the confluence of theories originated in different domains this book conducts the reader to discover what artistic practices can bring into a more creative while inquisitive understanding of cities A series of semi structured interviews with visual artists enquiring how they apprehend process and re create urban spaces in artworks explores cartographic process and methods in visual art practices in the twenty first century which incorporates digital technologies and critical thinking

The Venice Variations Sophia Psarra, 2018-04-30 From the myth of Arcadia through to the twenty first century ideas about sustainability how we imagine better urban environments remain persistently relevant and raise recurring questions How do cities evolve as complex spaces nurturing both urban creativity and the fortuitous art of discovery and by which mechanisms do they foster imagination and innovation While past utopias were conceived in terms of an ideal geometry contemporary exemplary models of urban design seek technological solutions of optimal organisation The Venice Variations explores Venice as a prototypical city that may hold unique answers to the ancient narrative of utopia Venice was not the result of a preconceived ideal but the pragmatic outcome of social and economic networks of communication Its urban creativity though came to represent the quintessential combination of place and institutions of its time Through a discussion of Venice and two other works owing their inspiration to this city Italo Calvino's Invisible Cities and Le Corbusier's Venice Hospital Sophia Psarra describes Venice as a system that starts to resemble a highly probabilistic algorithm that is a structure with a small number of rules capable of producing a large number of variations The rapidly escalating processes of urban development around our big cities share many of the motivations for survival shelter and trade that brought Venice into existence Rather than seeing these places as problems to be solved we need to understand how urban complexity can evolve as happened from its unprepossessing origins in the marshes of the Venetian lagoon to the model city that endured a thousand years This book frees Venice from stereotypical representations revealing its generative capacity to inform potential other Venices for the future

Sayable Space. Narrative Practices in Architecture Giovanni Corbellini, 2021-11-18 When a work reaches its maximum intensity wrote Le Corbusier a phenomenon of ineffable space occurs The ultimate quality of architecture would reside therefore in the resistance to its description However to tell us this and much more the Swiss master has published more than seventy books and his so compelling formula in supporting the ineffable also shows how words are able to grasp it This brief essay investigates the multiple intersections between discourse and design the way buildings try to talk with their own specific means how architects are trying to remain relevant without building the paradoxes of architecture description after its completion the modes of communication during the project processes the capacity of narrative to act before the project operations start and infiltrate the collective perception making possible innovative approaches

The Production Sites of Architecture Sophia Psarra, 2019-01-14 The Production Sites of Architecture examines the intimate link between material sites and meaning It explores questions such as how do spatial configurations produce meaning What are alternative modes of knowledge production How do these change our understanding of architectural knowledge Featuring essays from an international range of scholars the book accepts that everything about the production of architecture has social significance It focuses on two areas firstly relationships of spatial configuration form order and classification secondly the interaction of architecture and these notions with other areas of knowledge such as literature inscriptions interpretations and theories of classification ordering and invention Moving beyond perspectives which divide architecture into either an aesthetic or practical art the authors show how buildings are informed by intersections between site and content space and idea thought and materiality architecture and imagination Presenting illustrated case studies of works by architects and artists including Amale Andraos Dan Wood OMA Koen Deprez and John Soane The Production Sites of Architecture makes a major contribution to our understanding of architectural theory      The Interior Urbanism Theory Reader Gregory Marinic, 2024-03-12 The Interior Urbanism Theory Reader expands our understanding of urbanism interiority and publicness from a global perspective across time and cultures From ancient origins to speculative futures this book explores the rich complexities of interior urbanism as an interstitial socio spatial condition Employing an interdisciplinary lens it examines the intersectional characteristics that define interior urbanism Fifty chapters investigate the topic in relation to architecture planning urban design interior architecture interior design archaeology engineering sociology psychology and geography Individual essays reveal the historical typological and morphological origins of interior urbanism as well as its diverse scales occupancies and atmospheres The Interior Urbanism Theory Reader will appeal to scholars practitioners students and enthusiasts of urbanism architecture planning interiors and the social sciences      The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Culture Sue-Ann Harding, Ovidi Carbonell Cortés, 2018-04-09 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Culture collects into a single volume thirty two state of the art chapters written by international specialists overviewing the ways in which translation studies has both informed and been informed by interdisciplinary approaches to culture The book s five sections provide a wealth of resources covering both core issues and topics in the first part The second part considers the relationship between translation and cultural narratives drawing on both historical and religious case studies The third part covers translation and social contexts including the issues of cultural resistance indigenous cultures and cultural representation The fourth part addresses translation and cultural creativity citing both popular fiction and graphic novels as examples The final part covers translation and culture in professional settings including cultures of science legal settings and intercultural businesses This handbook offers a wealth of information for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers working in translation and interpreting studies      About Streets Gregory Marinic, Pablo Meninato, 2025-08-24 Focusing on the street as a socio spatial catalyst this book fosters a comprehensive conversation on the past present and future of streets and public space While the street is commonly associated with urban form or the metropolitan context of social dynamics and design practices this interdisciplinary anthology highlights that urban design challenges are global multidimensional and transcalar This critical survey of the city collects a broad scope of practices and phenomena in urbanism architecture activism and participatory design Individual chapters examine the histories theories geographies architecture and design of streets offering essential reading for scholars professionals students and enthusiasts of urbanism urban design architecture landscape architecture planning geography sociology anthropology cultural studies economics and the arts Over 50 chapters authored by an international and diverse group of leading academics theorists historians and practitioners expand the discourse on streets and public space      Romeo and Juliet, Adaptation and the Arts Julia Reinhard Lupton, Ariane Helou, Mark Thornton Burnett, 2022-09-22 Romeo and Juliet is the most produced translated and re mixed of all of Shakespeare s plays This volume takes up the iconographic linguistic and performance layers already at work within it and tracks the play's dispersal into neighbouring art forms including ballet opera television and architecture and geographical locations including Italy Ireland France India and Korea Chapters trace Shakespeare's own acts of adaptation and appropriation of sources and the play's subsequent migrations into other media Part One considers reworkings of Romeo and Juliet in Hector Berlioz's 1839 choral symphony and ballets choreographed by Sir Kenneth MacMillan and John Neumeier Part Two explores the afterlives of Shakespeare's lovers in the narrative forms of fiction film and serial television including works by James Joyce Samuel Beckett and HBO's series Westworld Part Three examines dramatic adaptations of the play into other languages dialects and cultural contexts Authors consider Hindi translations and the complex and changing status of Shakespeare's work in India as well as productions of the play in Korea set against its evolving history The volume ends with a first person account of staging Romeo and Juliet at an HBCU historically Black college university documenting the tensions between the notion of Shakespeare as a universal author and the lived experiences of marginalized communities as they engage with his plays

Progressive Studio Pedagogy Charlie Smith, 2020-11-30 Progressive Studio Pedagogy provides guidance to educators in all design fields by questioning processes and assumptions about teaching and learning utilising examples from architecture landscape architecture and interior design Through a series of case studies this book presents innovative approaches to learning and teaching in design studio Traditionally design education is perceived to be a process for acquiring skills and a site for developing creative potential However contemporary higher education is embracing issues that include widening participation managing transition and fostering independent learning and graduate employability This book situates design learning within this varied context and offers insights into how to confront the challenge of facilitating learning through divergent contexts by presenting projects and courses that use a range of approaches that require students to think and act critically and evaluatively Progressive Studio Pedagogy presents new practices that readers can adapt into their own creative education making it an ideal read for those interested in teaching design

Architecture and the Social Sciences Maria Manuela Mendes, Teresa Sá, João Cabral, 2017-04-05 This book contributes to current debates on the relationship between architecture and the social sciences highlighting current interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary teaching as well as research and practice in architecture and urbanism It also raises awareness about the complementarities and tensions between the spaces of the project including the construction spaces and living space It gives voice to recent projects and socio territorial interventions focusing on interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approaches between society and space Divided into two parts the first part discusses the possible dialogue between social sciences and architecture while the second part explores architecture politics and social change in urban territories from a European perspective

German as Contact Zone Russell West-Pavlov, 2019-09-09 This book suggests that linguistic translation is one minute province of an immense process of creative activity that constitutes the world as an ongoing dynamism of unceasing transformation Building upon the speculative quantum gravity theory which provides a narrative of the push pull dynamics of transformative translation from the very smallest scales of reality to the very greatest this book argues that the so called translative turn of the 1990s was correct in positing translation as a paradigmatic concept of transformation More radically the book stages a provocative provincialization of linguistic translation so that literary translation in particular is shown to display a remarkable awareness of its own participation in a larger creative contact zone As a result the German language literary translations in and out of German and the German language classroom can be understood respectively as quantum contact zones Russell West Pavlov is Professor of Anglophone Literatures at the University of Tbingen and Research Associate at the University of Pretoria

Spatial Transparency in Architecture

Camilo Rosales,2022-08-12 This volume explores the concept of spatial transparency a form of spatial continuity that articulates depth through permeable layered or porous three dimensional organizations where interstitial light is present Although transparency is a concept largely associated with the modern movement the use of glazed components and twentieth century architectural discourse spatial transparency is a form of depth awareness through intermediate domains takes place through the interstitial fabric of a structure and occurs when several consecutive domains are spatially and visually connected These immersive environments invite active participation not as one way communication but as a series of visual and experiential exchanges interdependencies and relationships Divided into four parts the book examines spatial transparency in massive opaque constructions light constructions glass assemblies and hybrid systems It analyzes both the phenomenon of visual connectivity and continuity through intermediate spaces and spatial transparency s capacity for promoting and enabling graded interflowing environmental transactions Using historical and contemporary examples it catalogs some of the most common and recurring configurations that manifest these characteristics Over 20 international case studies from the Americas to Japan are presented to argue that environments exist in porous mediums and that by studying the openings voids light and materials of layered and or permeable organizations important insights about space making can be revealed Written for students and academics this book explores various expressions of spatial transparency in architecture and helps connect their abstract ideas with significant built works analytical drawings and comparison charts
