A Guy Walks Into A Bar A Descent To Depravity:

MY PEOPLE and other crime stories Liza Cody, 2021-10-21 MY PEOPLE and other crime stories is Liza Cody's collection of innovative and cutting edge short stories written between 2003 and 2021. Two have never been previously published in English. This prize winning author is known for her outspoken yet subtle invocations of all aspects and consequences of violence and betrayal. Cody was one of the first writers to put women at the centre of private detective novels and short stories. Book Review 1 Cody is a storyteller. Reading her is refreshing after the bravado of the American style. Cody's dialogue is always funny and full of purpose and here she's found her perfect protagonist: a creative mangler of platitudes and uncontrollable shredder of pomp and hypocrisy and Great dialogue as ever and some gorgeous imagery. It all added up to a book I'm sorry to close. About LADY BAG Newgate Callendar New York Times Book Review Mat Coward The Morning Star Peter Lovesey MWA Grandmaster Book Review 2 Eva is a wondrous creation: an incorrigible innocent in a story that crackles with energy. Super Cody! It's like a rock and roll version of Pilgrim's Progress. Eva is rude, crude, funny, touching and perhaps the boldest creation to land in recent crime fiction. About BUCKET NUT Kirkus Reviews The Philadelphia Inquirer Book Review 3 Give me more books like Gimme More. Probably the greatest rock n roll novel ever. About GIMME MORE Laura Lippman Nick Johnstone uncut Redeemed Penny Lane, 2025-07-30 Penny is just four years old when she is snatched away from her all American home by the Hungarian father who abandoned her when she was a baby. After facing isolation and neglect in a strange dysfunctional household where heartache, rejection and physical abuse rule her life, she escapes only to find herself in a relationship with a man who's just converted to fundamentalist Christianity. Penny's road is long, winding and often painful, but gradually she begins to listen to her inner voice, stand up for herself and refuse to bow to the pressures of either her family or society, freeing herself to build a life on her own terms and find her way to happiness. A rise from the ashes: hero's story of overcoming abuse, trauma and unbearable odds of being waylaid by both family and religion's promise of love and harnessing the resilience to find the way home. Redeemed offers a rare window into Eastern European immigrant culture and reads like a page turning thriller. Especially relevant today, a time when marginalized people are increasingly finding a voice, this memoir will serve as an inspiration to women everywhere, encouraging them to overcome their obstacles and go after their dreams.

Children of Marx and Coca-Cola Xiaoping Lin, 2009-11-02 Children of Marx and Coca Cola affords a deep study of Chinese avant garde art and independent cinema from the mid 1990s to the beginning of the twenty first century. Informed by the author's experience in Beijing and New York, global cities with extensive access to an emergent transnational Chinese visual culture, this work situates selected artworks and films in the context of Chinese nationalism and post socialism and against the background of the capitalist globalization that has so radically affected contemporary China. It juxtaposes and compares artists and independent filmmakers from a number of intertwined perspectives, particularly in their shared avant garde postures and perceptions. Xiaoping Lin provides illuminating close readings of a variety of visual texts and artistic practices including installation performance painting photography video and film Throughout he sustains a theoretical discussion of representative artworks and films and succeeds in delineating a variegated postsocialist cultural landscape saturated by market forces confused values and lost faith This refreshing approach is due to Lin s ability to tackle both Chinese art and cinema rigorously within a shared discursive space He for example aptly conceptualizes a central thematic concern in both genres as postsocialist trauma aggravated by capitalist globalization By thus focusing exclusively on the two parallel and often intersecting movements or phenomena in the visual arts his work brings about a fruitful dialogue between the narrow field of traditional art history and visual studies more generally Children of Marx and Coca Cola will be a major contribution to China studies art history film studies and cultural studies Multiple audiences specialists teachers and students in these disciplines as well as general readers with an interest in contemporary Chinese society and culture will find that this work fulfills an urgent need for sophisticated analysis of China s cultural production as it assumes a key role in capitalist globalization
