The Faithful Librarian Garrett B. Trott, 2019-09-06 What do Christianity and librarianship have in common Netherlands Prime Minister and theologian Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 was among the first in the modern era to attempt to rejoin the dichotomy of sacred vs secular study when he said no single piece of our mental world is to be hermetically sealed off from the rest Over the years a number of publications have followed Kuyper's lead yet little has been written on the subject since Greg A Smith's notable Christian Librarianship 2002 Building on Smith's work this volume seeks to bridge the sacred secular divide with an exploration of how Christianity and the gospel are manifested through the profession of librarianship

Sancken,2016-04-21 It has never been easy to preach about the cross and resurrection of Jesus but difficulties today are particularly challenging Hearers ask tough questions of the church and the Christian faith and they are not satisfied by formulaic answers People are often suspicious of doctrine and are attracted to a broad but vague or pluralistic spirituality rather than the classical claims of Christianity In this climate preachers often see preaching on the central events of the Christian story the crucifixion and resurrection as more of a problem than a possibility more of a burden than a joy They wonder not only how to preach the old old story of cross and resurrection but whether they should preach these themes at all

This book addresses these concerns and shows preachers how to preach the cross and resurrection in fresh culturally relevant ways that deepen Christian discipleship Each chapter shows the relevance of preaching the cross for addressing a particular congregational concern What has ironically become a stumbling block in the pulpit the stone that preachers often reject preaching on the cross and resurrection of Jesus can serve as the cornerstone for building up the congregation for discipleship in our world

Why Can't We Talk? John Backman,2012-10 God s imperatives for us to practice peacemaking love others and build community all begin with authentic dialogue Think of an issue that makes your blood boil Now imagine lunch with a friend who is just as passionate about it on the other side How can the two of you even broach the issue let alone hear each other with curiosity and compassion The answer begins long before the lunch does by learning to engage dialogue as a habit of the heart an inner transformation that the ancient practices of Christian spirituality can address This highly readable and timely guide to restoring dialogue shows Christians of many stripes how to cultivate this transformation while preparing them to approach their adversaries with curiosity civility and compassion This book Examines the obstacles that keep us from dialogue black and white thinking our distraction lifestyle the fear of change and others Explores the strengths of character from which healthy dialogue springs and the work of the soul that cultivates them Shows how to enhance the work of the soul by engaging the world around us Lays out practical guidelines for dialogue and how they work in an imperfect world Includes extended anecdotes of dialogue in action from resolutions of interpersonal conflict to difficult dialogues on some of the most divisive issues of our age Uses provocative questions at the end of each chapter to stimulate group discussion and individual reflection
