to better achieve equity for all with many bringing to light the bias racism and discrimination that many factions face on a daily basis Naturally integrating diversity and social inclusion thoughts into the classroom is one of the best ways to start changing the mindset of society and promoting more inclusive practices in the next generations Therefore diversity and social inclusion have become common approaches in the planning and management of primary secondary and higher education schools in many international contexts However there are certainly challenges that must be overcome in developing these new practices and their implementation within teacher curriculum Instilling Diversity and Social Inclusion Practices in Teacher Education and Curriculum Development provides an analysis of educational inclusion practices and identifies university students voices on diversity and social inclusion It further assesses teacher performance in an international online training context and promotes a model of curriculum development on diversity and social inclusion Covering topics such as culturally competent teachers student academic achievement and attitudes towards diversity this premier reference source is an excellent resource for teacher educators pre service teachers administrators and educators of both K 12 and higher education social workers researchers and academicians

How Social Movements Can Save Democracy Donatella della Porta, 2020-04-09 The birth of democracies owes much to the interventions and mobilizations of ordinary people Yet many feel as though they have inherited democratic institutions which do not deliver for the people that a rigid democratic process has been imposed from above with increasing numbers of people feeling left out or left behind In this well researched volume leading political sociologist Donatella della Porta rehabilitates the role social movements have long played in fostering and deepening democracy particularly focusing on progressive movements of the Left which have sought to broaden the plurality of voices and knowledge in democratic debate Bridging social movement studies and democratic theory della Porta investigates contemporary innovations in times of crisis particularly those in the direction of participatory and deliberative practices crowd sourced constitutions referendums from below and movement parties and reflects on the potential and limits of such alternative politics In a moment in which concerns increase for the potential disruption of a Great Regression led by xenophobic movements and parties the cases and analyses of resistance in this volume offer important material for students and scholars of political sociology political science and social movement studies

Advances in Marine and Freshwater Monitoring to support Aquatic Ecosystem Conservation and Restoration Elisabetta Manea, Caterina Bergami, Robert Ptacnik, 2023-11-13 Conserving and restoring freshwater and marine ecosystems are priorities addressed by several European and global conservation initiatives Many management and conservation initiatives have been put in place to support the achievement of declared national and global conservation and sustainability goals Nonetheless the extent to which all these initiatives can provide lasting positive effects on conservation and restoration targets is often impaired limited by the lack of robust baseline data and systematic monitoring which in turn are constrained by the limited number of long term monitoring programs and limited dedicated funding This collection underlines the importance of monitoring in times of global change and shifting baselines and the urgency of boosting conservation strategies to ensure progression towards meeting global conservation objectives Emphasis is given also to the socio ecological contexts and dimensions of conservation efforts and the potential of societal engagement in monitoring practices a key enabling factor to turn conservation initiatives into practical actions and ecosystem protection Essentials of
