

Subject

This unit is best explored in a high school level English class, specifically geared towards the study of literature and composition. It may also be adapted for a high school level history course, as the subject matter focuses on the Vietnam War.

Topic

The topic of the unit will be the novel, Native Agents, by Walter Dean Myers. The unit will focus not only on the plot, characters, and setting of the novel, but also on the historical fiction genre and the history of the Vietnam War.

Rationale for a Description of Unit of Study

As the Vietnam War is an important facet of military history, this unit will satisfy not only the students' need to understand this particular period in history, but also how this experience can inspire great writing. Literature need not be restricted to the fantasy world, it may also come from history itself, combining creativity and fact. In studying the historical novel as an important literary
