Fees Structure For First Year Students Moi University 2015:

Animal Narratology Joela Jacobs, 2020-12-15 Animal Narratology interrogates what it means to narrate to speak for on behalf of and to voice or represent life beyond the human which is in itself as different as insects bears and dogs are from each other and yet more as individual as a single mouse horse or puma The varied contributions to this interdisciplinary Special Issue highlight assumptions about the human perception of attitude toward and responsibility for the animals that are read and written about thus demonstrating that just as the animal does not exist neither does the human In their zoopoetic focus the analyses are aware that animal narratology ultimately always contains an approximation of an animal perspective in human terms and terminology yet they make clear that what matters is how the animal is approximated and that there is an effort to approach and encounter the non human in the first place Many of the analyses come to the conclusion that literary animals give readers the opportunity to expand their own points of view both on themselves and others by adopting another s perspective to the degree that such an endeavor is possible Ultimately the contributions call for a recognition of the many spaces moments and modes in which human lives are entangled with those of animals one of which is located within the creative bounds of storytelling

Inside Afghanistan Timor Sharan, 2022-09-28 This book maps out how political networks and centres of power engaged in patronage corruption and illegality effectively constituted the Afghan state often with the complicity of the U S led military intervention and the internationally directed statebuilding project It argues that politics and statehood in Afghanistan in particular in the last two decades including the ultimate collapse of the government in August 2021 are best understood in terms of the dynamics of internal political networks through which warlords and patronage networks came to capture and control key sectors within the state and economy including mining banking and illicit drugs as well as elections and political processes Networked politics emerged as the dominant mode of governance that further transformed and consolidated Afghanistan into a networked state with the state institutions and structures functioning as the principal marketplace for political networks bargains and rent seeking The fade of state survival and fragmented political order was a performative act and the book contends sustained through massive international military spending and development aid obscuring the reality of resource redistribution among key networked elites and their supporters Overall the book offers a way to explain what it was that the international community and the Afghan elites in power got so wrong that brought Afghanistan full circle and the Taliban back to power

Social Transformation in Post-conflict Nepal Punam Yadav, 2016-04-28 The concept of social transformation has been increasingly used to study significant political socio economic and cultural changes affected by individuals and groups This book uses a novel approach from the gender perspective and from bottom up to analyse social transformation in Nepal a country with a complex traditional structure of caste class ethnicity religion and regional locality and the experience of the ten year of People s War 1996 2006 Through extensive interviews with women in post conflict Nepal this book analyses the intended and unintended impacts of conflict and traces the transformations in women s understandings of themselves and their positions in public life It raises important questions for the international community about the inevitable victimization of women during mass violence but it also identifies positive impacts of armed conflict The book also discusses how the Maoist insurgency had empowering effects on women The first study to provide empirical evidence on the relationship between armed conflict and social transformation from gender s perspectives this book is a major contribution to the field of transitional justice and peacebuilding in post armed conflict Nepal It is of interest to academics researching South Asia Gender Peace and Conflict Studies and Development Studies

Africa's Economic Partnership with China Mussie Delelegn Arega, 2022-11-30 This book examines how increasing Africa China relations in the fields of trade development finance and investment have impacted productive capacities and structural economic transformation in sub Saharan Africa SSA The book argues that statistical and empirical evidence shows that China s influence has not substantially altered the fundamentals in Africa and instead outlines a framework of policy conclusions and recommendations to help achieve transformational growth and development Despite increased Chinese investments in transport energy communications and manufacturing sub Saharan Africa is yet to see tangible economic and development benefits according to the multidimensional Productive Capacities Index PCI External trade is dogged by the same problems as during the colonial era with primary commodities dominating exports to China and industrial or manufacturing products dominating imports thereby leaving the region exposed to external economic shocks The book considers whether there are lessons to be learned from the experience of Asian countries such as Vietnam proposing pragmatic coordinated non ideological and non confrontational policy approaches to development This book will be of interest to researchers policymakers advisors academics and practitioners with an interest in development in Africa and China s increasing role in the continent
