

Assignment 1

Total marks: 20

Read carefully Passage A, A change of direction, given below and then answer Question 1.

Question 1

You are the journalist, Kaarlo Vatanen. When you reach the village, you write an entry in your journal.

Write your journal entry.

In your journal entry you should explain:

- your feelings about the photographer's behaviour that day
- the encounter with the hare and why this has affected you so much
- why you cannot face going home and back to work.

Base your journal entry on what you have read in Passage A, but be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points.

Begin your journal entry, 'What happened to me today has changed my life forever'.

Write about 250 to 350 words.

Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.

Passage A: A change of direction

Two men who work for a magazine are returning to the busy capital, Helsinki. They are on their way back from an interview in a rural area of Finland.

Two harassed men were driving down a lane. The late setting sun pained their eyes through the dusty windscreen. It was midsummer, but the landscape along this sandy by-road was slipping past their weary eyes unnoticed; the beauty of the Finnish evening was lost on them both. They were a journalist and a photographer, out on an assignment: two dissatisfied, cynical, middle-aged men. The hopes of their youth had not been realised – far from it. They were husbands, stomach ulcers were on the way, and many other worldly worries filled their days.

They'd just been arguing. Should they drive on to Helsinki or spend the night in the quiet village through which they'd just come? Now they weren't even speaking. Sulking like schoolboys, they motored on mindlessly through the lovely summer evening. Hunched and withdrawn, as self-absorbed as two cantankerous crustaceans, they sat in the stagnant silence of the car. The air between them hung heavily, thick with unspoken resentment as their stubborn journey dragged on.
