Higher Education Marketing in Africa Emmanuel Mogaji, Felix Maringe, Robert Ebo Hinson, 2020-05-20
This book explores the key players challenges and policies affecting higher education in Africa. It also explores the marketing strategies and the students selection process providing theoretical and practical insights into education marketing in Africa. In particular it focuses on the competition for students. The growing number of student enrolments the public sector's inability to meet the ever increasing demands and new private universities springing up mean that it is essential for universities to identify their market and effectively communicate their messages. Although there has been substantial theoretical research to help shed light on students choices and universities marketing strategies little work has been undertaken on higher education in the African context. Filling that gap in the research while at the same time acknowledging the regional differences in Africa this book offers empirical insights into the higher education market across the continent.

Online Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Mariam Akinlolu, Manyane Makua, Nomalungelo Ngubane, 2024-06-03
This edited volume explores current practices in African higher education during and post the global pandemic. It fills a gap in the existing literature by focusing on student engagement and online learning in South Africa and examines how pandemic restrictions amplified pre existing inequalities within the higher education sector. The book is divided into 3 sections. The first section discusses various methods of instruction and the use of online tools for facilitating learning succeeded by a section focusing on the resource implications of moving to online learning platforms from a social justice perspective and finally the last section considers issues and concerns about online assessments and quality assurance. Drawing on lessons from the experiences of South African educators and students during the pandemic this book provides a knowledge base essential for the effective management of online teaching and learning in Africa. It is intended for academic stakeholders to develop and engender an improved higher education climate. OECD Economic Surveys: South Africa 2017 OECD, 2017-07-24
