Approaches to Teaching Cervantes's Don Quixote highlights dramatic changes in pedagogy and scholarship in the last thirty years; today critics and teachers acknowledge that subject position, cultural identity, and political motivations afford multiple perspectives on the novel, and they examine both literary and sociohistorical contextualization with fresh eyes. Part 1, Materials, contains information about editions of Don Quixote, a history and review of the English translations, and a survey of critical studies and Internet resources. In part 2, Approaches, essays cover such topics as the Moors of Spain in Cervantes's time, using film and fine art to teach his novel, and how to incorporate psychoanalytic theory, satire, science, and technology, gender, role playing, and other topics and techniques in a range of twenty-first-century classroom settings.

The Emblematics of the Self Elizabeth B. Bearden, 2012-01-21 The ancient Greek romances of Achilles Tatius and Heliodorus were widely imitated by early modern writers such as Miguel de Cervantes, Philip Sidney, and Mary Wroth. Like their Greek models, Renaissance romances used ekphrasis or verbal descriptions of visual representation as a tool for characterization. The Emblematics of the Self shows how the women, foreigners, and non-Christians of these tales reveal their identities and desires in their responses to the verbal pictures of romance. Elizabeth B. Bearden illuminates how verbal pictures enliven characterization in English, Spanish, and Neolatin romances from 1552 to 1621. She notes the capacity for change among characters such as cross-dressed Amazons, shepherdish princesses, and white Mauritians who traverse transnational cultural and aesthetic environments. Engaging and rigorous, The Emblematics of the Self breaks new ground in understanding hegemonic and cosmopolitan European conceptions of the other, as well as new possibilities for early modern identities in an increasingly global Renaissance.
