Subcommittee on the Departments of Transportation, Treasury, HUD, the Judiciary, District of Columbia, and Independent Agencies Appropriations,2005 Policing European Metropolises Elke Devroe,Adam Edwards,Paul Ponsaers,2017-02-03 Understanding the politics of security in city regions is increasingly important for the study of contemporary policing This book argues that national and international governing arrangements are being outflanked by various transnational threats including the cross border terrorism of the attacks on Paris in 2015 and Brussels in 2016 trafficking in people narcotics and armaments cybercrime the deregulation of global financial services and environmental crime Metropolises are the focal points of the transnational networks through which policing problems are exported and imported across national borders as they provide much of the demand for illicit markets and are the principal engines generating other policing challenges including political protest and civil unrest This edited collection examines whether and how governing arrangements rooted in older systems of national sovereignty are adapting to these transnational challenges and considers problems of and for policing in city regions in the European Union and its single market Bringing together experts from across the continent Policing European Metropolises develops a sociology of urban policing in Europe and a unique methodology for comparing the experiences of different metropolises in the same country This book will be of value to police researchers in Europe and abroad as well as postgraduate students with an interest in policing and urban policy Policing Cybercrime David S. Wall,Matthew Williams,2017-12-22 Cybercrime has recently experienced an ascending position in national security agendas world wide It has become part of the National Security Strategies of a growing number of countries becoming a Tier One threat above organised crime and fraud generally Furthermore new techno social developments in social network media suggest that cyber threats will continue to increase This collection addresses the recent inertia in both critical thinking and the empirical study of cybercrime and policing by adding to the literature seven interdisciplinary and critical chapters on various issues relating to the new generation of cybercrimes currently being experienced. The chapters illustrate that cybercrimes are changing in two significant ways that are asymmetrical. On the one hand, cybercrime is becoming increasingly professionalised, resulting in specialists that perform complex and sophisticated attacks on computer systems and human users. On the other, the hyper connectivity brought about by the exponential growth in social media users has opened up opportunities to non specialist citizens to organise and communicate in ways that facilitate crimes on and offline. While largely distinct, these developments pose equally contrasting challenges for policing, which this book addresses. This book was originally published as a special issue of Policing and Society. The Routledge Handbook of International Crime and Justice Studies Bruce Arrigo, Heather

Bersot, 2013-08-15. This book presents the enduring debates and emerging challenges in crime and justice studies from an international and multi disciplinary perspective. Using Open Data to Detect Organized Crime Threats Henrik Legind

Larsen, José María Blanco, Raquel Pastor Pastor, Ronald R. Yager, 2017-04-07. This work provides an innovative look at the use of open data for extracting information to detect and prevent crime and also explores the link between terrorism and organized crime. In counter terrorism and other forms of crime prevention, foresight about potential threats is vitally important and this information is increasingly available via electronic data sources such as social media communications. However, the amount and quality of these sources is varied and researchers and law enforcement need guidance about when and how to extract useful information from them. The emergence of these crime threats such as communication between organized crime networks and radicalization towards terrorism is driven by a combination of political, economic, social, technological, legal and environmental factors. The contributions to this volume represent a major step by researchers to systematically collect, filter, interpret and use the information available. For the purposes of this book, the only data sources used are publicly available sources which can be accessed legally and ethically. This work will be of interest to researchers in criminology and criminal justice, particularly in police science, organized crime, counter terrorism and crime science. It will also be of interest to those in related fields such as applications of computer science and data mining, public policy and business intelligence. The Policing of Protest, Disorder and International Terrorism in the UK since 1945 Peter

Joyce, 2017-02-06. This book examines the nature of protest and the way in which the police and state respond to the activities associated with this term. Protest is explored within the context of the perceived decline in public engagement with recent general election contests. It is often thought that protest is regarded as an alternative to or as a replacement for formal political engagement with electoral politics and this book provides a thoughtful assessment of the place of protest in the contemporary conduct of political affairs. Analysing key forms of protest such as demonstrations, direct action protest conducted within the workplace, riots and terrorism, this study also illustrates each of these activities with a wide range of examples of events that have taken place within the UK since 1945 It will be of keen interest to students of criminology criminal justice studies police studies and politics Global Dynamics Alan G. Wilson, 2016-05-09 A world model economies trade migration security and development aid This book provides the analytical capability to understand and explore the dynamics of globalisation It is anchored in economic input output models of over 200 countries and their relationships through trade migration security and development aid The tools of complexity science are brought to bear and mathematical and computer models are developed both for the elements and for an integrated whole Models are developed at a variety of scales ranging from the global and international trade through a European model of inter sub regional migration to piracy in the Gulf and the London riots of 2011 The models embrace the changing technology of international shipping the impacts of migration on economic development along with changing patterns of military expenditure and development aid A unique contribution is the level of spatial disaggregation which presents each of 200 countries and their mutual interdependencies along with some finer scale analyses of cities and regions This is the first global model which offers this depth of detail with fully work out models these provide tools for policy making at national European and global scales Global dynamics Presents in depth models of global dynamics Provides a world economic model of 200 countries and their interactions through trade migration security and development aid Provides pointers to the deployment of analytical capability through modelling in policy development Features a variety of models that constitute a formidable toolkit for analysis and policy development Offers a demonstration of the practicalities of complexity science concepts This book is for practitioners and policy analysts as well as those interested in mathematical model building and complexity science as well as advanced undergraduate and postgraduate level students Doctor Who-Guide 1/3 compiled from Wikipedia pages and published by Dr

Googelberg, 2012-08-07 Almost everything about the good doctor his companions and travels his enemies and friends Additionally the actors etc Part three contains all summaries of all TV episodes Compiled from Wikipedia pages and published by Dr Googelberg Daily Graphic , Race, Ethnicity, Nationality and the Law András L. Pap, 2025-09-05 This book provides a complex insight into how law as a distinct tool and technology conceptualizes and operationalizes race ethnicity and nationality The focus of the comparative project by bringing examples from five continents and scores of jurisdictions as well as showcases for hybrid intersectional groups is specifically the morphology and dynamics of legal categorization Separate discussions concentrate on conceptualizing groupness and membership as well as agency and contestation The book shows that although identity politics has dominated recent decades ethno racial self identification is not the only operationalizing model legal regimes apply especially with the recent boost in artificial intelligence AI and bio genetic research Examples for the re biologization of ethno racial conceptualization are brought from a wide range of legal regimes including citizenship anti discrimination asylum and Indigenous law The work provides a journey through the administrative political construction and contestation of ethno racial classifications with particular attention paid to the concepts of free choice of identity covering and fraud as well as the arbitrariness the historical path dependence and the role of merit in conceptualization While the starting point of the book is to capture ethnicity as a category of law it shows how legal conceptualization and operationalization are intertwined with categories of analysis and experience The methodology applied is comparative constitutional and international law but the research will have wider interdisciplinary appeal offering a novel perspective for a broad audience in social sciences and humanities News International and phone-hacking Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee,2012-04-27 This report concentrates on the issue of whether witnesses have previously misled a select committee of the House of Commons over the extent and knowledge of phone hacking The Committee concludes that several individuals misled the Committee in 2009 and more recently and that the News of the World and News International corporately misled the Committee about the true nature and extent of the internal investigations they carried out into phone hacking made statements that were not fully truthful and withheld documents The companies directors including Rupert Murdoch and James Murdoch should be prepared to take responsibility for these failings The Committee reports its findings for the House of Commons to decide whether a contempt has been committed and if so what punishment should be imposed Social Tragedy S. Baker,2014-06-05 A social tragedy is a collective representation of injustice Baker demonstrates how social tragedies facilitate moral action and discusses a series of contemporary case studies the death of Princess Diana Zinedine Zidane's 2006 World Cup scandal KONY 2012 to examine their social and political effects Cable theft on the railway Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Transport Committee,2012-01-26 Last year over 35 000 journeys were delayed or cancelled due cable theft which also cost Network Rail more than 16m Cable theft from the rail network is part of an increase in metal theft across the country made easy by the way in which stolen metal can be sold to scrap metal dealers We need urgent reform to improve the audit trail generated by the scrap metal industry so that criminals selling stolen metal into the trade can be identified much more easily The Committee calls for additional powers for the police to help them in their efforts to combat metal theft The Government should introduce a new offence of aggravated trespass on the railway to help deter cable thieves The British Transport Police should be given new powers so that officers can enter both registered and unregistered scrap metal sites along with additional resources to carry out their enforcement work The Committee also recommends i The Scrap Metal Dealers Act 1964 should be reformed so that individuals selling metal have to provide proof of their identity before a transaction can take place ii the Government should test the use of cashless trading in the scrap metal industry iii there should be greater clarity around compensation arrangements so that train operators cannot profit from disruption caused by cable theft iv Network Rail should develop a costed programme of measures to make cable more difficult to steal and v the Department for Transport should update the Committee on work being undertaken to help passengers stranded on trains near stations to complete their journey Public Sector Employment Regimes Karin Gottschall,Bernhard Kittel,Kendra Briken,Jan-Ocko

Heuer, Sylvia Hils, Sebastian Streb, Markus Tepe, 2015-10-29 This book explores the extent to which a transformation of public employment regimes has taken place in four Western countries and the factors influencing the pathways of reform It demonstrates how public employment regimes have unravelled in different domains of public service contesting the idea that the state remains a model employer
