Africa Dispatches From A Fragile Continent:

Africa Blaine Harden,1991 The powerful and the powerless are here in dramatic narratives that explain a land swept up in change lurching between an unworkable Western present and a collapsing African past By focusing on individuals Blaine Harden uncovers an Africa that endures behind the sum of its statistics Dances with Devils Jacques Pauw,2011-02-28 For more than a decade Jacques Pauw has traversed his native continent in pursuit of warlords and drug traffickers child soldiers and charlatans adventure and anarchy What he found was a rich array of personalities and a panoply of stories ranging from the profoundly tragic to the intensely personal Pauw s stories range from South Africa to Rwanda from Sierra Leone and the Sudan to Mozambique Readers are taken behind the scenes of sensational news reports with compassion humour and occasional cynicism and emerge in the knowledge that even if it s true that there is nothing new out of Africa the writer has found fresh ways to present time honoured tales of love life misery and mortality Mass Media in

Sub-Saharan Africa Louise M. Bourgault,1995-06-22 Bourgault mass communication Northern Michigan U Marquette analyzes the historical political economic social cultural and stylistic factors that have shaped media products in African radio television and newspapers She investigates the three major influences of the precolonial legacy of the oral tradition the presence of an alienated managerial class and the domination of African nations by systems based on patronage and looks at recent developments in technology and the move toward privatization Annotation c Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com The Protection of Human Rights in African Criminal Proceedings M. Cherif Bassiouni,Ziyad Motala,2023-11-27 This book contains a collection of articles by authors from countries in Africa The topics cover a wide range of issues in the administration of criminal justice and human rights The different scholarly contributions facilitate a better understanding of certain aspects of the administration of criminal justice in the African sub region and focus on specific human rights issues as they relate to international and African instruments on the protection of human rights The Christian Churches and the

Democratisation of Africa Paul Gifford,2023-08-07 This volume focuses on the role Christian churches have played in Africa s democratisation movements since the late 1980s In some cases churchmen have presided over national conferences in many Christians comprise arguably the most significant segment of civil society In some countries pastoral letters have challenged dictators in others churches have provided an essential support for the status quo The book comprises both theoretical analyses and case studies The theoretical discussions include the history of Church State relations theology and democracy Pentecostalism and democracy the problems of consolidating democracy The 13 case studies sketch the historical context and then critically examine developments up till late 1993 The book will prove particularly useful to students of Third World Christianity African historians and political scientists and all interested in the socio political role of Christianity

Narrating the Self and Nation in Kenyan Autobiographical Writings Samuel Ndogo,2016 Author Samuel Ndogo offers an understanding of the autobiographical genre in contemporary Kenyan literature He draws attention to life writing as a form of cultural re imagination in post colonial Africa Taking into consideration contradictions and paradoxes of referentiality in life writing this book examines the autobiographies of Jaramogi Oginga Odinga Ngugi wa Thiong o Wangari Maathai and Bethwell Ogot The analysis dwells on self representations in correlation with imaginations of the Kenyan nation in these works Thus the study gives a critical account into the modern memoir the forms and styles it takes the ways in which these authors tend to understand and present their lives Series Contributions to African Research Beitr ge zur Afrikaforschung Vol 63 Subject African Studies Literary Criticism Seeking Viable Grassroots Representation Mechanisms in African Constitutions Charles Mwalimu, 2009 In this book Charles Mwalimu explores viable grassroots representation mechanisms in African constitutions in order to positively integrate indigenous and modern systems in Sub Saharan Africa A comparative study method is used to examine the constitutional principles of chieftaincy and local government and their impact on human rights To establish and prove lack of positive integration Mwalimu connects this failure to poor constitutionalism development and stultified growth and human rights violations This book proposes remedial actions to build nondiscriminatory constitutional regimes eradicating violations of human rights Communication and Peace Julia Hoffmann, Virgil Hawkins, 2015-02-11 This book analyses the use of communication in resolving conflicts with a focus on de escalation and processes of peacebuilding and peace formation From the employment of hate radio in the Rwanda genocide to the current conflict between Russia and the Ukraine following events in the Crimea communication and the media are widely recognized as powerful tools in conflicts and war Although there has been significant academic attention on the relationship between the media conflict and war academic efforts to understand this relationship have tended to focus primarily on the links between communication and conflict rather than on communication and peace In order to make sense of peace it is essential to look at communication in its many facets mediated or not This is true within many of the diverse strands that make up the field of communication and peace but it is also true in the sense that a holistic and interdisciplinary approach is missing from the literature This book addresses this widely acknowledged lacuna by providing an interdisciplinary perspective on the field bringing together relevant but so far largely isolated streams of research In doing so it aims to provide a platform for further reflection of the meaning of and requirements for peace in our contemporary world with a focus on de escalation conflict transformation reconciliation and processes of peacebuilding as opposed to conflict escalation or crisis intervention This volume will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies peacebuilding media and communication studies security studies and IR in general Piety and Power Lamin Sanneh, 2015-03-04 In Piety and Power an African scholar provides a unique perspective on historical patterns of religious interaction in West Africa and their meaning for world Christianity and Islam today Sanneh s topics range from Muhammad s significance for Christians to an examination of a nineteenth century ecumenical opening between the two faiths in Freetown to an overview of the relation between religion and politics that directly challenges many Western assumptions about Africa and Islam Other treatments of Christian Muslim encounter in Africa are often framed in terms of European colonial and missionary history In contrast Piety and Power places the inter faith issues firmly in an African social setting Sanneh explores the impact of Islam Christianity and European mission and colonialism in terms of African adaptations and expressions An autobiographical essay on Sanneh s own education in an African Qu ran school gives readers a rare and revealing look at the power and influence of Islamic institutions in their African adaptations

The Spirituality of the Igbo People of Nigeria as an Example of Religious Modernization in a Global World Henry CHUKWUDI OKEKE,2020-02-18 If there is no religion in the world the world would more or less become a jungle The world will be inhuman Religion touches all aspects of human life Identifying God s will in our world today has become a major problem for many religions of the world In the past in Igbo Traditional Religion human sacrifice as well as the killing of twins were practised For the Igbo traditionalists then that was the will of the deities and equally not against God s will But following the encounter of Igbo Traditional Religion with Christianity these are no longer practised Misinterpretation of God s will by some religions of the world has given rise to religious violence religious extremism fanaticism and terrorism we are experiencing today in the world For these problems to be resolved it is pertinent that the study of various religions be taken seriously This study should be aiming at better understanding co existence respect for one another and frequent inter religious dialogues among the various religions of the world When this is achieved the believers of various religions would realize that many are worshipping one God and their desire is to communicate with Him although they may approach Him differently

Borderland Chrisanthi Giotis,2022 Every two seconds a person is displaced caught in one of the more than 40 active conflicts around the world that show no sign of ending Since 1994 there has been ongoing war in the Democratic Republic of Congo which has uprooted millions of people and resulted in the deaths of millions more In the West we have entered a political era where our border policies are underpinned by unending wars At this critical juncture how can journalists especially those engaged in foreign correspondence tell these stories How can they make connections across time and space and across politics economics environments and crucially people Given its colonial history are these connections possible for the profession of foreign correspondence In Borderland Chrisanthi Giotis argues that decolonization is possible and necessary for the development of a truly global public sphere New global narratives need to meaningfully include the voices and knowledge of those with the least power who are caught in resource fuelled wars Drawing on insights from postcolonial studies international relations development studies and philosophy which are brought to life through auto ethnographic descriptions and analysis of behind the scenes events Giotis introduces new reporting techniques for foreign correspondents Borderland argues that decolonized reporting techniques will help journalists and their audiences move beyond the sociohistorical and political myopia that prevents us from communicating and understanding the reality of a complex world

The novel begins with Richard Pape, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
