W. E. B. Du Bois' Africa Taharka Ade,2023-08-15 W E B Du Bois was one of the leading figures of Pan African thought and activism in the twentieth century As a sociologist Du Bois wrote much about the historical and social circumstances of African Americans while often acknowledging the African historical background of much of African American or Negro culture In 1946 Du Bois published The World and Africa which was a culmination of previous attempts at penning a narrative of African history beginning with his 1915 publication The Negro in which he included the social historical experience of African Americans within the continuity of African history This book delivers for the first time a comprehensive Afrocentric investigation and critique of Du Bois s writings on African history It argues that while Du Bois presented at the time a strong critique of the Eurocentric construction of African history many of Du Bois s descriptions and arguments about African people and history were likewise flawed with interpretations that projected the cultural subjectivities of Europe Further while Du Bois rightfully presents the historical relationship between African Americans and Africa as a justification for Pan African activism this book contends that Du Bois s failure to center African culture instead of race leads to superficial justifications for Pan African unity

African Spirituality and Ethics Munyaradzi Felix Murove,2023-12-28

This book explores the symbiotic relationship that exists between African spirituality and ethics Felix Murove discusses how these two concepts are entwined and illustrates how they play a role in applied ethical issues He argues that the general understanding of spirituality in Africa stems from Christianity which has had a negative impact on African indigenous spirituality The conceptual tools that run throughout the book are considerably Afro centric a methodological strategy which inevitably requires the reader to adopt some prior willingness to learn these Afro centric concepts without easily resorting to western Christian and philosophical categories of thought The book advocates for an Afro centric conceptualization of spirituality and ethics and encourages the reader to adopt a more holistic approach to African spirituality African Personality and Spirituality Anthony S. Ephirim-Donkor, Emory University. Graduate Institute of the Liberal Arts, 1994
