

The background of the book cover is a black and white photograph of bare tree branches. The branches are dark and intricate, creating a complex web of lines against a lighter, hazy background. The lighting is soft, with some areas appearing brighter than others, giving the image a textured, almost ethereal quality.

Against Capitalist Education Nadim Bakhshov, 2015-12-11 Out there in the so called real world the education system is being crushed by the demands of capitalism and in turn is crushing those who pass through it reducing them diminishing them The dream of the economic functioning unit How do we break this We need alternatives but not just one or two We need the freedom and education to generate a trillion possibilities An education system that is as broad as it is deep that brings back a different type of thinking and a new use of fiction This book signals the return of the dialogue and the conversation as the ground out of which new realities are born the root out of which new alternatives are nurtured and explored

Critical Education Against Global Capitalism Paula Allman, 2019-04-09 In today's vernacular Marx outed capitalism well over a century ago however his explanation has been both ignored and misinterpreted by not only his detractors but also by many socialists and even a considerable number of Marxists as well Today we are experiencing the full impact and suffering the repercussions of capitalism's inherent need to grow and become more than ever before a fully internationalized and integrated system of socioeconomic control and domination the global system that many commentators have suddenly remembered Marx and Engels 1848 presciently forecasted in the Communist Manifesto When the Berlin Wall fell in 1989 the victory of capitalism and liberal democracy was triumphantly proclaimed The Cold War was over and we were promised a lasting peace As we entered the third millennium the promise of peace was brutally dashed and humanity now appears to have entered a state of permanent war We have just witnessed the near total collapse of the global financial system and are continuing to experience as we will for years to come the collateral damage this crisis has caused Problems we were facing before the current crisis will be exacerbated escalating social and economic divisions jobless growth injustice and oppression together with an environment in varying stages of degradation Daily on television news we are bombarded by the schizoid media images of capitalism's extremes the ravaged faces and wasted bodies of some of the thousands suffering famine or the millions living in the world's slums followed within a blink of the eye by the gleaming yet vacuous smile and sumptuously adorned figure of some extravagant wealthy individual who is one of the select members of the global upper class Are we becoming conditioned to accept such contrasts and regard them as normal and inevitable at a time when we have the potential to eliminate scarcity and eradicate human deprivation The author argues that revolutionary critical education is needed to inform and form a social movement capable of challenging and then transforming capitalism She also offers an accessible account of Marx's dialectical critique and expos of capitalism clearly demonstrating the real enemy that should be the focus of anti capitalist and anti globalization struggles This is an account that explains why our focus should not be on greedy individual capitalists Wall Street financial institutions particular multinational corporations national governments or even their handmaiden institutions such as the World Bank IMF WTO etc but instead the global network of capitalist socioeconomic relations and consequent habituated human practices in which we are all involved These together with the historically specific form of capitalist wealth are the real enemy the essence of capitalism that must be abolished in order for humanity to have any hope of social and economic justice in the future Capitalism-Culture and Educational Praxis Andrew Gitlin,2022-12-06 This book focuses on educational praxis connecting work inside schools with work outside

Capitalism Against Capitalism Michael Albert,2009-01-27 Communism has collapsed Capitalism has rid itself of the competition on which it thrives But though now victorious capitalism has become a threat The future of us all may be shaped by the outcome of the conflict between capitalism as victor and capitalism as threat Not only in Europe but also in the US and Japan and no doubt shortly in the Eastern countries too the great debate is capitalism versus capitalism On the one hand is the neo American model based on individual achievement and short term profits On the other is the Rhine model practices in Switzerland Germany Benelux Northern Europe and partly in Japan In the Rhine model collective achievement and public consensus are seen as the keys to long term success The first is more seductive the second more effective These two opposing forms of capitalism are engaged in a war which like all internal conflicts involves both secrecy and even hypocrisy The outcome of this struggle could affect the quality of life on all levels of society The author of this book aims to provide a synthesis which will force the reader to consider the political and economic issues at stake towards the end of the century

Malay Ideas on Development: From Feudal Lord to Capitalist Shaharuddin Maaruf, 2022-12-06 Formally speaking the New Economy Policy had been replaced by the New Economic Order which had been promulgated in the name of liberalism Thus it may seem that the issues and concerns addressed by the book had been rendered irrelevant by the shift in policy Against such proposition I must say that my book addresses itself to the question of ideas principles and weltanschauung beyond mere policies and formality It is therefore too early in the day to conclude that the new liberalism has definitively replaced the New Economic Policy NEP as an era and ethos throwing into question the relevance of this book It may well turn out to be that the issues and concerns of the book transcend superficial policy changes in a more fundamental way Shaharuddin Maaruf University of Malaya 15 April 2014 The sweep through the history of Malay political ideas which is to be encountered in Malay Ideas on Development from Feudal Lord to Capitalist a sweep achieved with analytic skill and clarity will stimulate new readers to seek more detailed examination of one targeted writer or another Creating such desire is an indication of the book's effectiveness Juxtaposing one thinker with another setting modern debate in the context of traditional political thought proposing categories or streams of political thinking capitalistic nationalism traditionalistic nationalism and so forth is the best possible way of promoting a greater interest in the Political Economy and Global Capitalism Robert Albritton,Bob Jessop,Richard Westra,2010 This volume brings together original and timely writings by internationally renowned scholars that reflect on the current trajectories of global capitalism and in the light of these consider likely possible or desirable futures It offers theory informed writing that contextualizes empirical research on current world historic events and trends with an eye towards realizing a future of human social and economic betterment The Ideology of Managerialism Thomas Klikauer,2025-05-28 The term managerialism is widely used not only in the world of business and government and this book details the theory behind the illusive idea It distinguishes between management and managerialism and highlights the two groups pushing managerialism namely corporate apparatchiks and the apostles of managerialism and outlines twelve key ideas shaping managerialism These twelve ideas range from profits to ideology from economic growth and markets to business ethics and corporate social responsibility from quantification to dehumanisation from exploitation to short termism environmentalism and homogenisation Ultimately this research volume illuminates the pathologies of managerialism and its impact on society business government and the defining issue of our time global warming The objective of this book is to move simply beyond using the term managerialism by creating a better understanding of it This means exploring the theory behind managerialism as well as the ideologies that define it It will be of value to researchers academics practitioners and students looking to gain a deeper understanding of managerialism and how managerialism can be overcome with particular interest to those in the fields of critical management studies leadership corporate governance and organisational studies Resources in Women's Educational Equity ,1980

Resources in Women's Educational Equity: Special Issue ,1979 Human Rights Discourse in North Korea Jiyoung Song,2010-12-16 Jiyoung Song explains how North Korea has understood the concepts of human rights in its public documents since the independence in 1945 from Japan after 36 years colonial rule Through active campaigns and international criticism foreign governments and non governmental organisations outside North Korea have been publishing numerous allegations on North Korean human rights violations On the other hand the efforts to engage with North Korea in order to improve the human rights situation through humanitarian assistance and to understand how North Koreans interpret human rights are often overshadowed by naming and shaming and push until it collapses approaches Dr Song gives thought provoking and highly debatable accounts for the historically post colonial politically Marxist and culturally Confucian elements of North Korean rights thinking She does this by closely reading and analysing collected works of Kim Il Sung previous leader and Kim Jong Il current leader and Kim Il Sung s son North Korea s official newspaper Rodong Sinmun and others monthly party magazines as well as by interviewing North Korean defectors and diplomats in South Korea China and Europe

Mind vs. Money Alan Kahan, 2017-07-12 For the past 150 years Western intellectuals have trumpeted contempt for capitalism and capitalists They have written novels plays and manifestos to demonstrate the evils of the economic system in which they live Dislike and contempt for the bourgeoisie the middle classes industry and commerce have been a prominent trait of leading Western writers and artists Mind vs Money is an analytical history of how and why so many intellectuals have opposed capitalism It is also an argument for how this opposition can be tempered Historically intellectuals have expressed their rejection of capitalism through many different movements including nationalism anti Semitism socialism fascism communism and the 1960s counterculture Hostility to capitalism takes new forms today The anti globalization Green communitarian and New Age movements are all examples Intellectuals give such movements the legitimacy and leadership they would otherwise lack What unites radical intellectuals of the nineteenth century communists and fascists of the twentieth and anti globalization protestors of the twenty first along with many other intellectuals not associated with these movements is their rejection of capitalism Kahan argues that intellectuals are a permanently alienated elite in capitalist societies In myriad forms and on many fronts the battle between Mind and Money continues today Anti Americanism is one of them Americans like to see their country as a beacon of freedom and prosperity But in the eyes of many European and American intellectuals when America is identified with capitalism it is transformed from moral beacon into the Great Satan This is just one of the issues Mind vs Money explores The conflict between Mind and Money is the great unresolved conflict of modern society To end it we must first understand it
