Agency Feminism Routledge Research Society:

Agencies in Feminist Translator Studies Elena Castellano-Ortolà, 2024-04-16 This book sets out a new framework for a feminist history of translators drawing on the legacy of Canadian scholar Barbara Godard and her work in establishing the Canadian literary landscape as a means of exploring agency in feminist translation studies and its implications for cross disciplinary debates The volume is organised in three sections establishing feminist translator studies as its own approach examining these dynamics at work in a comprehensive portrait of Barbara Godard s scholarly and literary history and looking ahead to future directions In situating the discussion on Godard and Canadian literary history Elena Castellano calls attention to a geographic context in which translation and its practice has been at the heart of debates around national identity and intersected with the rise of feminism and feminist literary scholarship The book demonstrates how an in depth exploration of the agency of an individual stakeholder whose activities spanned diverse communities and oft conflicting interests can engage in key questions at the intersection of nation making translation and feminism paving the way for future research and the further development of feminist translator studies as methodological framework This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies feminist literature cultural history and Canadian literature Women Becoming Practitioner Researchers Su Lyn Corcoran, Claire Goodley, Alexandra Hay, Anna Olsson Rost, 2024-09-01 Early career researchers ECRs in education bring unique histories of professional practice and development into academic research communities Women Becoming Practitioner Researchers explores autoethnographies of twelve women who were or still are schoolteachers in the process of becoming researchers Using autoethnography to disrupt the established systems that distance researchers from their research the chapters in this volume are curated to apply theory to this important transition This theory as method approach provides a foundation for understanding as the authors weave threads of identities and experiences into their roles as practitioner researchers Handbook of Feminist Research Sharlene Nagy

Hesse-Biber, 2012 The second edition of the Handbook of Feminist Research Theory and Praxis presents both a theoretical and practical approach to conducting social science research on for and about women The Handbook enables readers to develop an understanding of feminist research by introducing a range of feminist epistemologies methodologies and methods that have had a significant impact on feminist research practice and women s studies scholarship The Handbook continues to provide a set of clearly defined research concepts that are devoid of as much technical language as possible It continues to engage readers with cutting edge debates in the field as well as the practical applications and issues for those whose research affects social policy and social change It also expands on the wealth of interdisciplinary understanding of feminist research praxis that is grounded in a tight link between epistemology methodology and method The second edition of this Handbook will provide researchers with the tools for excavating subjugated knowledge on women s lives and the lives of other marginalized groups with the goals of empowerment and social change Handbook of Feminist Family Studies

Sally A. Lloyd, April L. Few, Katherine R. Allen, 2009-04-14 The Handbook of Feminist Family Studies presents the important theories, methodologies and practices in feminist family studies. The editors showcase feminist family scholarship providing both a retrospective and a prospective overview of the field and creating a scholarly forum for interpretation and dissemination of feminist work.

Young People as Agents of Sustainable Society Päivi Honkatukia, Tiina Rättilä, 2023-06-16 This book analyses young people's societal participation as a central dimension of their well-being and as vitally important to secure the sustainable future of humankind and the whole eco-social system. It develops a theoretical framework for analysing youth participation holistically embedded in its everyday context and as a relational phenomenon underpinned by universal human needs. It introduces innovative methodological approaches to study youth engagements in society. This book will appeal to scholars and students of youth studies, sociology, sustainable development, youth participation and education. It also offers new knowledge and theoretical readings for policy experts on youth and sustainable development as well as for NGOs working with youth. Material Agency Carl Knappett, Lambros Malafouris, 2008-12-15 Agency is a key theme that cross-cuts a wide raft of disciplines in the humanities, social sciences and beyond, yet it is invariably discussed separately behind closed disciplinary doors. Within archaeology, agency has been characterized as a uniquely human attribute and a means of incorporating individual intentionality into theoretical discourse. In other domains, however, notions of non-human and material agency have been finding currency and it is our aim to introduce some of these themes into archaeology and develop a non-anthropocentric approach to agency. It is anticipated that such a perspective will not only help us achieve more convincing interpretations of the past, giving a more active role to material culture, but also throw new light on the changing role of artifacts in the present and the future. This book is a groundbreaking attempt to address questions of non-human and material agency from a wide range of perspectives and disciplines: archaeology, anthropology, sociology, cognitive science, philosophy and economics. The editors and authors demonstrate that a distributed relational approach to agency, incorporating both humans and artifacts, has important ramifications for how we understand material culture.

Feminism in Community Catherine J. Irving, Leona M. English, 2015-11-02 The authors draw upon their earlier research examining how feminists have negotiated identity and learning in international contexts or multisector environments. Feminism in Community focuses on feminist challenges to lead, learn and participate in nonprofit organizations as well as their efforts to enact feminist pedagogy through arts processes, Internet fora and critical community engagement. The authors bring a focused energy to the topic of women and adult learning, integrating insights of pedagogy and theory-informed practice in the fields of social movement learning, transformative learning and community development. The social determinants of health, spirituality, research partnerships and policy engagement are among the contexts in which such learning occurs. In drawing attention to the identity and practice of the adult educator teaching and learning with women in the community the authors respond to gender mainstreaming processes that have obscured women as a discernible category in many areas of practice Good Victims Roxani Krystalli,2024-04-23 In Good Victims Roxani Krystalli investigates the politics of victimhood as a feminist question Based on in depth engagement in Colombia over the course of a decade Krystalli shows how victimhood becomes a pillar of reimagining the state in the wake of war and of bringing a vision of that state into being through bureaucratic encounters The book also sheds light on the ethical and methodological dilemmas that arise when contemplating the legacies of transitional justice mechanisms The Oxford Handbook of Digital Religion Campbell,2023-11-15 Digital Religion refers to the contemporary practice and understanding of religion in both online and offline contexts and how these contexts intersect with each other Scholars in this growing field recognize that religion has been influenced by its engagement with computer mediated digital spaces including not only the Internet but other emerging technologies such as mobile phones digital wearables virtual reality and artificial intelligence The Oxford Handbook of Digital Religion provides a comprehensive overview of religion as seen and performed through various platforms and cultural spaces created by digital technology The text covers religious interaction with a wide range of digital media forms including social media websites gaming environments virtual and augmented realities and artificial intelligence and highlights examples of technological engagement and negotiation within the major world religions i e Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam and Judaism Additional sections cover the global manifestations of religious community identity ethics and authority with a final group of chapters addressing emerging technologies and the future of the field Because of the interdisciplinary nature of the project the Handbook is led by co editors representing the humanistic and social scientific fields of religious studies and communication though both also have experience in how those disciplines intersect Dangerous Coagulations? Bernadette M. Baker,Katharina Elisabeth Heyning,2004 This book brings together an outstanding group of scholars who draw on the works of Michel Foucault Eclectic in topic and method the essays illustrate Foucault s usefulness Dangerous Coagulations constitutes a departure from the more formulaic Foucault work that has emerged and highlights new possibilities for undertaking problematizing approaches to educational research Handbook of Educational Psychology Paul A. Schutz,Krista R. Muis,2023-10-27 The fourth edition of the Handbook of Educational Psychology sponsored by Division 15 of the American Psychological Association addresses new developments in educational psychology theory and research methods while honoring the legacy of the field s past Comprising 31 chapters written by a diverse group of recognized Educational Psychologist and or Learning and Motivational Scientist EDP LMS scholars this volume provides integrative reviews and critical syntheses of inquiry across a variety of foundational and new areas Key constructs like motivation development beliefs literacy and emotions are given substantive updates while entire new chapters touch on trends that have materialized since the publication of the third edition such as inquiry world views Critical Race Theory cognitive neuroscience and emerging technologies in education Throughout this new edition chapter authors coalesce on issues of social justice situated approaches to inquiry and progressive inquiry methods The Handbook of Educational Psychology Fourth Edition will be an important reference volume for current and future EDP LMS scholars broadly conceived as well as for teacher educators practicing teachers policy makers and the academic libraries serving these audiences It is also appropriate for graduate level courses in educational psychology learning and motivational sciences and research methods in education and psychology

On Mutant Pedagogies Stephanie Jones, James F Woglom, 2017-02-01 This ground breaking book on pedagogy research and philosophy in teacher education expands the imagination of justice oriented education and arts based scholarship Based on a multi year study of Jones use of feminist pedagogies the book seamlessly moves between classroom practice theory and philosophy in a way that will offer something for everyone those who are looking for new ways of doing teacher education those who hope to better understand philosophy and those who seek new ways of doing inquiry and scholarship Demonstrating through pedagogy method and form that we have more power than we think and don t have to repeat what has been handed down to us the creators critique the restrictions of traditional teacher education and academic discourse This critique prompts a move outward into unpredictable spaces of encounter where a maybe world might be lived in education In this way Jones and Woglom don t make the case for a certain kind of pedagogy or scholarly inquiry that might be repeated but rather they invite educators and researchers to take seriously the philosophical ideas of Deleuze Guattari Barad and others who argue that humans are in a constant aesthetic process of becoming with other humans non human life and the material world around them Thus education even teacher education is not about reaching an already known end goal but growing and changing through multiple ways of being and perceiving in the world The authors call this mutant pedagogies and show one ethical path of mutating

Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory Dave Hill, 2002-01-01 Written by renowned British and American educational theorists Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory a substantially revised edition of the original 1999 work examines the infusion of postmodernism and theories of postmodernity into educational theory policy and research

Face-veiled Women in Contemporary Indonesia Eva F. Nisa, 2022-09-21 Face veiling is relatively new in Indonesia It is often stereotyped as a sign of extremism and the growing Arabisation of Indonesian Muslims It is also perceived as a symbol that demonstrates a lack of female agency However increasing numbers of women are choosing to wear the cadar the full face veil This book provides an ethnographic study of these women why they choose to wear the cadar embody strict religious disciplinary practices and the consequences of that choice The women in this book belong to two Islamic revivalist movements various Salafi groups and the Tablighi Jamaat at Indonesia has constantly witnessed transformations in the meanings and practices of Islam and this book demonstrates that women are key actors in this process Nisa demonstrates that contrary to stereotypes the women in this study have an agency which is expressed through their chosen docility and obedience

Feminist Perspectives in Criminology Loraine Gelsthorpe, Allison Morris, 1990 The first part of this book examines theoretical considerations the second methodologies and the third feminist criminology in action The book aims to show the potential of feminism to transform and transgress both theory and the politics of research and action in criminology

Handbook of Children and Youth Studies Johanna Wyn, Helen Cahill, Hernán Cuervo, 2024-08-20 This second edition of the handbook gives a new scientific perspective to youth and childhood studies as multi scientific and interdisciplinary subjects which as such have not yet found their own framing in a particular discipline It provides theoretical and methodological key debates and issues that develop and add an understanding of childhood and youth research discipline from a broader perspective The Handbook on Children and Youth Studies draws on current thinking but also challenges theoretical and conceptual orthodoxies in the field drawing on interdisciplinary thinking and critical perspectives It focuses on childhood and youth to address the emerging consensus that the boundaries between childhood youth and adulthood are blurred The view that defining youth and childhood largely in terms of problem topics is out dated Instead the handbook focuses on 16 themes that are open to international perspectives and to different conceptual approaches Each theme is edited by a pair of field editors thereby capturing a plurality of views The 16 themes as a starting point are globally timely and they need scientific debates on the boundaries between childhoods youth and adulthood This handbook will meet the needs of childhood and youth researchers and the academics in the field It recognizes the changing social context of the lives of children and young people while developing theoretical frameworks and discussing about the core substantive issues of Children and Youth Studies

Forced Marriage Aisha Gill, Sundari Anitha, 2012-09-13 Forced Marriage Introducing a social justice and human rights perspective brings together leading practitioners and researchers from the disciplines of criminology sociology and law Together the contributors provide an international multi disciplinary perspective that offers a compelling alternative to prevailing conceptualisations of the problem of forced marriage The volume examines advances in theoretical debates analyses existing research and presents new evidence that challenges the cultural essentialism that often characterises efforts to explain and even justify this violation of women s rights By locating forced marriage within broader debates on violence against women social justice and human rights the authors offer an intersectional perspective that can be used to inform both theory and practical efforts to address violence against diverse groups of women This unique book which is informed by practitioner insights and academic research is essential reading for practitioners and students of sociology criminology gender studies and law

Feminist Politics, Intersectionality and Knowledge Cultivation Radhika Govinda, 2025-02-11 In Feminist Politics Intersectionality and Knowledge Cultivation Radhika Govinda engages with intersectionality as critical theory as critical methodology and as critical pedagogy to make sense of feminist politics in India and beyond and knowledge making on feminist politics as such In doing so she makes a case for theory making conducting empirical research and classroom teaching to be understood as integral parts of knowledge cultivation each feeding into the other Differently put the book encapsulates Govinda s engagement spanning fifteen years and four case studies exploring what insights an intersectional lens throws up and how these insights complicate our understandings of marginality privilege and solidarity in the field of women s and gender studies in feminist classrooms in women s and social movements in particular NGO led feminist activism state led development initiatives and digital feminist campaigns and in everyday social relations in rural and urban spaces Uncovering interrogating and disrupting the politics of coloniality and feminist complicity is an important running thread in the book

Through a reflexive account of her own location and practice in the academy at the cusp of the global north and the global south Govinda highlights the importance of being attentive to intersectional positionality and to the contextual specificities of engaging in feminist politics and knowledge making in the age of global neoliberalism
