After Big Game In Central Africa Peter Capsticks Library:

After Big Game in Central Africa Edouard Foa, 1989-09-15 In less than four years Edouard Foa covered 7200 miles mostly on foot from the Zambezi delta on Africa's east coast to the mouth of the Congo on the west. He risked every form of tropical disease and death from dangerous game and the unreliability of early guns. Foa succeeded in his efforts to create for the Paris Museum one of the finest collections of African animals and plants in the world. His account is full of hard almost fatally earned bush knowledge. Frederick Lee's able translation boosted this entertaining book to U.S. prominence and two printings in 1899.

Sands of Silence Peter Hathaway Capstick, 2025-09-23 From renowned hunting writer Peter Hathaway Capstick comes the most lavishly illustrated historically important safari ever captured in print. Capstick journeyed on safari through Namibia in the African spring of 1989. This was a nation on the eve of independence, a land scorched by sun by years of bitter war. In these perilous circumstances he commences what is surely the most thrilling safari of his storied career. He takes the reader to the stark landscape that makes up the Bushmen's tribal territories. There, facing all kinds of risks, members of the chase pursue their quarry in a land of legend and myth. In this first person adventure, Capstick spins riveting tales from his travels and reports on the Bushmen's culture, their political persecution, and the Stone Age life of Africa's original hunter-gatherers. In addition, the author explains the economic benefits of the sportsman's presence and how ethical hunting is a tool for game protection and management on the continent. Featuring one hundred striking color images from leading African wildlife photographer Dr. M. Philip Kahl, Sands of Silence: On Safari in Namibia superbly illustrates Capstick's return to the veld and perfectly captures life and death in the land of thirst.
