Chinese Buddhism in Catholic Philippines Ari C. Dy, 2017-10-20 Drawing on his personal experience of growing up exposed to the rituals of Chinese Buddhism and yet embracing Catholicism and being ordained a Jesuit priest Fr Ari Dy ventures to examine Chinese Buddhism in the Philippines analyzing its adaptation to the Philippines and its contribution to conceptions of Chinese identity

Buddhism in Indonesia Roberto Rizzo, 2024-04-16 Based on extensive original research this book explores the history and current revival of Buddhism on the Indonesian island of Java Beginning by tracing how Buddhism came to Java from India via southeast Asia it considers how Buddhism has survived and adapted as Islam and Christianity became dominant It goes on to report on detailed anthropological research both in a remote highland community Temanggung and in Java s main cities including Jakarta showing how youth activism and close community cohesion have brought about revival It includes an examination of the production of Buddhist wayside shrines Throughout it shows how Buddhism in Java has fused with local traditional practices local circumstances and trans national processes to form a unique Javanese Buddhism

Transnational Chinese Diaspora in Southeast Asia Yos Santasombat,2022-10-13 This book examines contemporary Chinese transnational mobile practices with special focuses on the ethnographic exploration of the lives experiences views and narratives of the Chinese mobile subjects in three ASEAN countries Malaysia Singapore and Thailand and their interactions with the ethnic Chinese communities in these countries This book is based on recent and updated original ethnographic research carried out by leading scholars in China and Southeast Asia The work addresses questions of integration and social embeddedness interrogating the possibility of whether the transnational Chinese diaspora can be simultaneously embedded into two or more nation states and geopolitical spheres It contends that in moving in the transnational space the Chinese diaspora may experience a strong yearning for a cultural home that may not be in one space for bicultural or multicultural diaspora It also asks whether the transnational Chinese diaspora is motivated to negotiate cultural membership and social belonging in a new country Shedding new light on the ways in which the transnational diaspora negotiates cultural membership to adapt to situational requirements this volume is relevant to scholars researching in China studies anthropology international relations and in Asian Southeast and East Asian regional studies

Literary Voices of the Italian Diaspora in Britain Manuela D'Amore,2023-09-27 This volume studies the literary voices of the Italian diaspora in Britain including 21 authors and 34 pieces of prose verse and drama This book shows how authors both recount the history of the migrant community in the period 1880 1980 while creatively experimenting with hybrid forms of expression and blending words with visuals Literary Voices of the Italian Diaspora in Britain discusses topical issues like migration and social integration cultures and foods in transition as well as plurilingualism The book pays special attention to discussions of the horrors of the Second World War especially on the tragedy of the Arandora Star 2nd July 1940 to show this literary community s political commitments More importantly it will begin to fill the void left by a critical tradition which has only appreciated the northern American and Australian branches of Italian writing

Towards an Eliasian Understanding of Food in the 21st Century John Lever,Jennifer Smith Maguire,Adrianna Kapek-Goodridge,2024-11-15 This edited volume serves as an overview and introduction to the conceptual apparatus of Norbert Elias for newcomers while also outlining current research within the Eliasian school of sociology An Eliasian or figurational approach foregrounds process is sensitive to long term historical development and changing power relations and is methodologically diverse Elias s work is now found across academic disciplines and this volume contains contributions by sociologists anthropologists business and management scholars and those working at the interface of sociology and human geography Instead of simply highlighting the distinctiveness of the school vis vis other theoretical traditions this volume outlines how Eliasian inspired work can contribute to important debates on the future of food across academic disciplines

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Migration Rubina Ramji, Alison Marshall, 2022-05-19 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Migration presents the story of religion and migration predominantly through the experiences of Muslims Sikhs Hindus and Buddhists considering intersectional issues including race ethnicity class gender and generation throughout Many chapters are grounded in embodied ethnography including participant observation fieldwork interviews oral history collections and qualitative analysis drawing on sociological and anthropological theory as well as non western and historical approaches to religion Chapters also chronicle migration in regional transnational multicultural and populist contexts examining everyday religiosity and religion across generations The volume includes chapters on Islam and Muslim identity Chinese and Vietnamese Buddhism Filipino and Korean religiosity and Polish Catholicism

Minority Stages Josh Stenberg, 2019-08-31 Minority Stages Sino Indonesian Performance and Public Display offers intriguing new perspectives on historical and contemporary Sino Indonesian performance For the first time in a major study this community s diverse performance practices are brought together as a family of genres Combining fieldwork with evidence from Indonesian Chinese and Dutch primary and secondary sources Josh Stenberg takes a close look at Chinese Indonesian self representation covering genres from the Dutch colonial period to the present day From glove puppets of Chinese origin in East Java and Hakka religious processions in West Kalimantan to wartime political theatre on Sumatra and contemporary Sino Sundanese choirs and dance groups in Bandung this book takes readers on a tour of hybrid and diverse expressions of identity tracing the stories and strategies of minority self representation over time Each performance form is placed in its social and historical context highlighting how Sino Indonesian groups and individuals have represented themselves locally and nationally to the archipelago s majority population as well as to Indonesian state power In the last twenty years the long political suppression of manifestations of Chinese culture in Indonesia has lifted and a wealth of evidence now coming to light shows how Sino Indonesians have long been an integral part of Indonesian culture including the performing arts Valorizing that contribution challenges essentialist readings of ethnicity or minority complicates the profile of a group that is often considered solely in socioeconomic terms and enriches the understanding of Indonesian culture Southeast Asian Chinese identities and transnational cultural exchanges Minority Stages helps counter the dangerous either/or thinking that is a mainstay of ethnic essentialism in general and of Chinese and Indonesian nationalisms in particular by showing the fluidity and adaptability of Sino Indonesian identity as expressed in performance and public display

Islam and Citizenship in Indonesia Robert W. Hefner, 2023-12-19 Islam and Citizenship in Indonesia examines the conditions facilitating democracy women s rights and inclusive citizenship in Indonesia the most populous Muslim majority country and the third largest democracy in the world The book shows that Muslim understandings of Islamic traditions and ethics have coevolved with the understanding and practice of democracy and citizen belonging Following thirty two years of authoritarian rule in 1998 this sprawling Southeast Asian country returned to electoral democracy The achievement brought with it however an upsurge in both the numbers and assertiveness of Islamist militias as well as a sharp increase in violence against religious minorities The resulting mobilizations have pitted the Muslim supporters of an Indonesian variety of inclusive citizenship against populist proponents of Islamist majoritarianism Seen from this historical example the book demonstrates that Muslim actors come to know and practice Islam in a manner not determined in an unchanging way by scriptural commands but in coevolution with broader currents in politics society and citizen belonging By exploring these questions in both an Indonesian and comparative context this book offers important lessons on the challenge of democracy and inclusive citizenship in the Muslim majority world Well written and informative this book will be suitable for adoption in university courses on Islam Southeast Asian Politics Indonesian and Asian studies as well as courses dealing with religion democracy and citizen belonging in multicultural societies around the world The book will be of interest to the general reader with an interest in Islam citizenship and democracy

The Beasts, the Graves, and the Ghosts Hann Tzuu Joey Tan, 2020-05-31 At the heart of the gospel is the message of the incarnation God translating himself into the context of human culture and language so we might know him Far from coming to an end with Christ's life on earth this process of contextualization is ongoing reoccurring every time the gospel encounters the particularities of society and culture In this book Hann Tzuu Tan explores the significance of contextualized preaching within the Chinese context Against the backdrop of three major festivals the Spring Festival the Qing Ming Festival and the Hungry Ghost Festival Tan examines the practices of six experienced Chinese preachers in order to demonstrate the theological and practical importance of contextualized preaching As a result of his research Tan suggests six main principles for contextual preaching principles that are rooted within a Chinese context yet applicable to anyone seeking to express the gospel's relevance within a particular cultural setting Combining insights from biblical studies applied theology and ethnography this interdisciplinary study will enrich one's understanding of Chinese culture the gospel and the important and necessary work of contextualization

Tangible Whispers, Neglected Encounters Marco Musillo, 2019-02-01 T00:00:00+01:00 The relationship between East and West remains a topic of burning timeliness particularly in its political dimension Yet we can gain a complete understanding of the current tensions only if we consider them within a broader historical framework spanning from art to diplomacy from religion to ethnography The present volume tackles precisely this complex task offering its reader a rich mosaic of case studies and scholarly research relating to the mutual approaches between the Euro American West and the Sino Japanese East In the first part of the book art historian Marco Musillo uses the depictions of Tartars in fourteenth century Italian frescoes as the starting point of a trajectory leading to eighteenth century European literature on China In the second part the reader is introduced to two cases of diplomatic encounter one in sixteenth century Italy between Japanese subjects and local courts and the other one between Qing China and twentieth century United States in the space of the universal exhibition in St Louis Finally the last section proposes three interconnected art historical explorations the screen design of Chinese origin in colonial Mexico Medieval Christian tombstones in China and early modern Filipino sacred sculpture
