Airline Executives and Federal Regulation Walter David Lewis, 2000 This book is a collection of eight case studies of relationships between airline executives and federal regulatory agencies from the passage of the Air Commerce Act in 1926 to the Airline Deregulation Act of 1978 By focusing on the lives and personalities of individual entrepreneurs W David Lewis and his contributors hope to explore the interaction between technology government regulation and entrepreneurship Each essay in the book focuses on a particular airline executive such as Eddie Rickenbacker Robert Six and Donald Nyrop Lewis has been careful to give a variety of perspective Airlines of various types are represented large and small scheduled and unscheduled Some of the executives profiled were known for having adversative relationships with federal regulators whereas others wholeheartedly accepted regulation and thrived under it There have been public calls for a return to airline regulation and Lewis thinks it is not inconceivable that regulation may ultimately return if problems continue and conditions deteriorate further But he say s it is well to remember that deregulation occurred because there were flaws in the regulatory system it replaced This collection of essays scholarly and well documented but written in a lively style suitable for specialists and nonspecialists alike provides a long range perspective on the issue of airline deregulation Strategy in the American War of Independence Donald Stoker, Kenneth J. Hagan, Michael T. McMaster, 2009-10-16 This book examines the strategies pursued by the Colonies and the other combatants in the American War for Independence placing the conflict in its proper global context Many do not realize the extent to which the 1775 colonial rebellion against British rule escalated into a global conflict Collectively this volume examines the strategies pursued by the American Colonies Great Britain France Spain and Holland and the League of Armed Neutrality placing the military naval and diplomatic elements of the struggle in their proper global context Moreover assessing how each nation prosecuted their respective wars provides lessons for current students of strategic studies and military and naval history This book will be of great interest to students of strategic studies American history Military History and political science in general Donald Stoker is Professor of Strategy and Policy for the US Naval War College's Monterey Program in Monterey California He joined the Strategy and Policy faculty in 1999 and has taught both in Monterey and Newport Kenneth J Hagan Professor Emeritus the U S Naval Academy is currently Professor of Strategy and Policy for the U S Naval War College's Monterey Program Michael T McMaster is a Professor at the U S Naval War College in Monterey He is a retired U S Navy Commander The Best Transportation System in the World Mark H. Rose, Bruce Edsall Seely, Paul F. Barrett, 2006 From 1920 to the mid 1990s American transportation in the form of railroads trucks and airlines was simply a creature of politics and public policy. In brief the markets for rail truck and airlines were not natural entities but had been created through hard fought political contests full time lobbying and unceasing litigation Between 1940 and the late 1970s moreover leaders of rail truck and airline firms lobbied and litigated to protect the workings of this regulatory regime In the mid 1950s President Eisenhower asked Congress to award railroad executives authority to modify prices and service Eisenhower was concerned about a railroad industry in decline During the 1960s President Johnson sought broad deregulation of rail trucks and airline firms Johnson wanted another device to fine tune the economy In the 1970s Presidents Nixon Ford and Carter sought to deregulate transportation with a view toward reversing stagflation Between 1978 and 1980 Congress and President Carter approved deregulation of airlines trucking and railroads Carter aide Mary Schuman played a crucial role in bringing about airline deregulation For all the market talk that surrounded transportation politics before and after 1980 however officials of the American state had been and remained the Program of the Annual Meeting - American Historical principal agents creating those markets BOOK JACKET Association American Historical Association, 1996 Some programs include also the programs of societies meeting concurrently with the association Capitalism, Politics, and Railroads in Prussia, 1830-1870 James M.
