American War Stories Brenda M. Boyle, 2020-11-13 American War Stories asks readers to contemplate what traditionally constitutes a war story and how that constitution obscures the normalization of militarism in American culture. The book claims the traditionally narrow scope of war story as by a combatant about his wartime experience compartmentalizes war casting armed violence as distinct from everyday American life. Broadening war story beyond the specific genres of war narratives such as war films war fiction or war memoirs American War Stories exposes how ingrained militarism is in everyday American life a condition that challenges the very democratic principles the United States is touted as exemplifying.

The War Comes with You Stacey Peebles, 2024-12-12 How do we tell twenty first century war stories when the wars seem to go on forever. In the post 2011 surge of war stories published in America and Iraq the defining characteristic is the depiction of combat violence that crosses borders overtakes civilian spaces and disrupts chronology. In The War Comes with You Enduring War in Life Fiction and Fantasy Stacey Peebles picks up where her groundbreaking first book Welcome to the Suck Narrating the American Soldier's Experience in Iraq left off. Via careful readings of fiction memoir and poetry by writers such as Ben Fountain Siobhan Fallon Brian Turner and Hassan Blasim as well as recent superhero and Star Wars films Peebles argues that in the face of real and fantasy forever wars things fall apart. Language identities bodies and even the stories themselves fragment. These narratives suggest that people need not accept incoherence and there is a range of meaningful responses to the experience of everywhere all the time war. Peebles illustrates what to do that is when war comes with you.

Monsters, Law, Crime Caroline Joan "Kay" S. Picart, 2020-11-18 Monsters Law Crime an edited collection composed of essays written by prominent U S and international experts in Law Criminology Sociology Anthropology Communication and Film constitutes a rigorous attempt to explore fertile interdisciplinary inquiries into monsters and monster talk and law and crime. This edited collection explores and updates contemporary discussions of the emergent and evolving frontiers of monster theory in relation to cutting edge research on law and crime as extensions of a Gothic Criminology. This theoretical framework was initially developed by Caroline Joan Kay S Picart a Philosophy and Film professor turned Attorney and Law professor and Cecil Greek a Sociologist. Picart and Greek 2008 Picart and Greek proposed a Gothic Criminology to analyze the fertile synapses connecting the real and the reel in the flow of Gothic metaphors and narratives that abound around criminological phenomena that populate not only popular culture but also academic and public policy discourses. Picart's edited collection adapts the framework to focus predominantly on law and the social sciences.

Screening Love and War in Troy: Fall of a City Antony Augoustakis, Monica S. Cyrino, 2022-01-13 This is the first volume of essays published on the television series Troy: Fall of a City BBC One and Netflix 2018. Covering a wide range of engaging topics such as gender race and politics international scholars in the fields of classics history and film studies discuss how the story of Troy has been recreated on screen to suit the expectations of modern audiences. The series is commended for the thought provoking way it handles important issues arising from the Trojan War narrative that continue to impact our society today With discussions centered on epic narrative cast and character as well as tragic resonances the contributors tackle gender roles by exploring the innovative ways in which mythological female figures such as Helen Aphrodite and the Amazons are depicted in the series An examination is also made into the concept of the hero and how the series challenges conventional representations of masculinity We encounter a significant investigation of race focusing on the controversial casting of Achilles Patroclus Zeus and other series characters with Black actors Several essays deal with the moral and ethical complexities surrounding warfare power and politics The significance of costume and production design are also explored throughout the volume

Mind Reeling Homer B. Pettey, 2020-12-01 Mind Reeling investigates how cinema displays and mirrors psychological disorders such as bipolar disorder amnesia psychotic delusions obsessive compulsive behavior trauma paranoia and borderline personalities It explores a range of genres including biopics comedies film noirs contemporary dramedies thrillers Gothic mysteries and docufictions The contributors open up critical approaches to audience fascination with film depictions of serious disturbances within the human psyche Many films examined here have had little scholarly attention and commentary These essays focus on how cinematic techniques contribute to popular culture s conception of mental dysfunction trauma and illness This book reveals the complex artistic and generic patterns that produce contemporary images of psychopathology in cinema

Moral Injury among Returning Veterans Joshua Morris, 2021-08-23 Josh Morris privileges the voices of veterans to argue that returning soldiers need families friends and religious communities to listen to their stories with compassion to avoid amplifying the effects of moral injury When society greets returning soldiers in ways that reinforce cultural norms that frame military service as heroic rather than acknowledging its ambiguities and harmful effects it exacerbates moral injury and keeps veterans from resolving inner conflicts and coping effectively with civilian life Morris a military chaplain and veteran who served in Afghanistan knows these difficulties first hand Using stories from other veterans Morris helps us see how cultural assumptions about military service can complicate moral injury and a veteran s return home Drawing from liberation theologies ideology critique and Antonio Gramsci s advocacy for the working class the book suggests useful perspectives and spiritual care resources for military chaplains religious leaders caregivers and concerned civilians Morris argues that military chaplains are uniquely positioned to help returning soldiers resist the amplification of existing moral injury Moving from thank you for your service to liberative solidarity can galvanize resistance and make change possible

Disability and the Posthuman Stuart Murray, 2020 Disability and the Posthuman analyses cultural representations and deployments of disability as they interact with posthumanist theories of embodied technologies Working across texts from contemporary writing and film it argues that there are exciting productive possibilities and subversive potentials in the dialogue between disability and posthumanism when read as generating sustainable yet radical critical spaces book's radical theory of police argues that the police demand for order is a class order and a racialized and patriarchal order by arguing that the police project in order to fabricate and defend capitalist order must patrol an imaginary line between society and nature it must transform nature into inert matter made available for accumulation Police don't just patrol the ghetto or the Indian reservation the thin blue line doesn't just refer to a social order rather police announce a general claim to domination of labor and of nature Police and police violence are modes of environment making This edited volume argues that any effort to understand racialized police violence is incomplete without a focus on the role of police in constituting and reinforcing patterns of environmental racism A Clash of Arms DIANE Publishing Company, 1994-03 Panama Canal Treaty: Feb. 27 thru Mar. 16, 1978 United States.
