Models of Social Intervention and Constructionism Laura Karina Castro Saucedo, Fernando Bruno, César Arnulfo De León Alvarado, 2023-08-25 This book takes a new critical and multidisciplinary look at experiences and meanings of social intervention in different social contexts taking the approaches of social constructionism as a theoretical approach The volume collects the results of theoretical practical experiences that social science professionals with critical and constructionist visions linked to social work intervention have carried out in different spaces It considers the way social work intervention models are built their foundation and their application It provides the findings on tested intervention models built according to the basis of social constructionism in specific social scenarios

providing interesting findings that show intervention alternatives beyond traditional approaches The social intervention strategies discussed take place in diverse situations including health recovery and reconstruction in breast cancer family abandonment issues of institutionalized adolescents institutional care of refugee families women caregivers of children with disabilities men who exercise violence and more

Communicology of the South Carlos F. Del Valle Rojas, Francisco Sierra Caballero, 2022-09-29 This book addresses new conceptual bases for thinking critically about communication as a necessary way in which to confront power property and the market as part of the daily resistance of Latin American subaltern cultures The chapters research an urgent field of situated knowledge and spark a much needed dialogue The editors view emancipatory communication experiences as disruptive acts of resistance prompted mainly by social movements These experiences have opened up political modes of communication by establishing a decolonising axis in the field of communication and reconstructing the history and memory of Latin America This book is a valuable reference for researchers academics and students interested in the role of communication and culture in processes of social transformation

Teaching for Global Community César Augusto Rossatto, 2011-06-01 Education has long been viewed as a vehicle for building community However the critical role of education and schools for constructing community resistance is undermined by recent trends toward the centralization of educational policy making e g racial profiling new laws in the US Arizona and Texas No Child Left Behind and global racism the normalization of globalization as a vehicle for the advancement of economic neo liberalism and social hegemony and the commodification of schooling in the service of corporate capitalism Alternative visions of schooling are urgently needed to transform these dangerous trends so as to reconstruct public education as an emancipatory social project Teaching for Global Community Overcoming the Divide and Conquer Strategies of the Oppressor examines these issues among related others as a way to honor and re examine Freirean principles and aim to take critical pedagogy in new directions for a new generation The goal is to build upon past accomplishments of Paulo Freire s work and critical pedagogy while moving beyond its historical limitations This includes efforts that revisit and re evaluate established topics in the field or take on new areas of contestation Issues related to education labor and emancipation broadly defined and from diverse geographical context are addressed The theoretical perspectives used to look at these emerge from critical pedagogy critical race theory critiques of globalization and neoliberalism marxist and neo marxist perspectives social constructivism comparative international education postmodernism indigenous perspectives feminist theory queer theory poststructuralism critical environmental studies postcolonial studies liberation theology with a deep commitment to social justice

Neoliberalism in Multi-Disciplinary Perspective Adrian Scribano, Freddy Timmermann Lopez, Maximiliano E. Korstanje, 2018-08-08 This volume brings together well versed authors from four continents to critically discuss the roots of neoliberalism and how academics use the word today Neoliberalism has recently recycled and mutated towards new forms of radicalization where fear plays a leading role legitimizing policies which would otherwise be overtly neglected by citizens The authors ignite a new discussion within social sciences combining the advances of sociology history anthropology communication and the theory of mobilities to understand the different faces and guises of neoliberalism Memory and Spatiality in Post-Millennial Spanish Narrative Lorraine Ryan, 2016-04-22 Focusing on literary texts produced from 2000 to 2009 Lorraine Ryan examines the imbrication between the preservation of Republican memory and the transformations of Spanish public space during the period from 1931 to 2005 Accordingly Ryan analyzes the spatial empowerment and disempowerment of Republican memory and identity in Dulce Chacón's Cielos de barro Angeles López's Martina la rosa nmero trece Alberto M ndez's Los girasoles ciegos Carlos Ruiz Zafón's La sombra del viento Emili Teixidor's Pan negro Bernardo Atxaga's El hijo del acordeonista and Jos María Merino's La sima The interrelationship between Republican subalternity and space is redefined by these writers as tense and constantly in flux undermined by its inexorable relationality which leads to subjects endeavoring to instill into space their own values Subjects erode the hegemonic power of the public space by articulating in an often surreptitious form their sense of belonging to a prohibited Republican memory culture In the democratic period they seek a categorical reinstatement of same on the public terrain Ryan also considers the motivation underlying this coterie of authors commitment to the issue of historical memory an analysis which serves to amplify the ambits of existing scholarship that tends to ascribe it solely to postmemory El deseo de saber Ana Marta González, 2022-09-29 UNA RECOPILOACIÓN DE TRES CONFERENCIAS PRONUNCIADAS POR LA AUTORA DONDE ESTIMULA AL LECTOR EN EL DESEO DE SABER Y EN EL AMOR A LA CULTURA La autora trata de desplegar el horizonte intelectual y cultural que cualquier persona deber a explorar a lo largo de su vida un horizonte que deber a contemplar y llevar luego consigo todo universitario tras su paso por la universidad Los tres capítulos abordan algunos obstáculos que pueden nublar ese horizonte alertando al lector y estimulándole en el deseo de saber y en el amor a la cultura Es en ese amor donde cabe reconocer una forma específicamente humana de amar al mundo Los textos desarrollan tres conferencias pronunciadas por la autora en un contexto universitario y son ahora publicados a petición de numerosos lectores
