Global Christianity ,2007-01-01 In 2002 Philip Jenkins wrote The Next Christendom Over the past half century the centre of gravity of the Christian world has moved decisively to the global South says Jenkins Within a few decades European and Euro American Christians will have become a small fragment of world Christianity By that time Christianity in Europe and

North America will to a large extent consist of Southern derived immigrant communities Southern churches will fulfil neither the Liberation Dream nor the Conservative Dream of the North but will seek their own solutions to their particular problems Jenkins book evoked strong reactions a bit to his own surprise as the book contained little new In the United States of America the prospect of a more biblical Christianity caused reactions of alarm in liberal circles In contrast conservatives were delighted by the same prospect In Europe the book landed in the middle of the debate on Europe as an exceptional case It was detested by those who stick to the theory of ongoing and irreversible secularisation and welcomed by those who see a resurgence of religion also in Europe In the present volume scholars of religion and theologians assess the global trends in World Christianity as described in Philip Jenkins book It is the outcome of an international conference on Southern Christianity and its relation to Christianity in the North held in the Conference Centre of Radboud University Nijmegen the Netherlands
