A House Divided Bob Whitesel, Kent R. Hunter, 2001-02 Generational differences are nothing new in church There have always been groups and subgroups within a congregation divided according to age Yet with the possible exception of their educational programs congregations have generally practiced a one size fits all approach to ministry and worship Whichever group is dominant generally the older members although it can be the younger sets the tone for musical styles preaching emphases and outreach focus Frequently the non dominant groups grow restless and dissatisfied leaving the church to find better opportunities of service and worship elsewhere The result is often stagnation and decline Bob Whitesel and Kent R Hunter wrote this book to provide congregations with a clear understanding of the problems caused by generation gaps as well as to offer ideas for transforming the church into a healthy growing tri generational structure

Mind the Gap Graeme Codrington,2012-10-01 The way you parent the clothes you buy your relationships with your boss and your daughter your attitude to money and sex are to an extraordinary extent defined by the era into which you were born Parents the church teachers and employers think they understand youngsters because they too were young once But adults no longer live in the world that existed when they were teenagers We may occupy the same space home classroom or office but we live in different worlds And these worlds often collide We've moved in one century from a built to last to a throwaway society No wonder age differences are so vast In this book you will discover your generation and those of the people who make up your life Once you understand what makes them and you tick the gen gap begins to shrink Fasten your seatbelt for a generational roller coaster ride you may never think the same way again In this book you'll understand why your boss insists on endless meetings and conferences your 20 something student doesn't want a 50 something computer teacher you're in your 40s but still trying to prove yourself to Mom and Dad your teacher should be learning from you The United Methodist Periodical Index ,1981 A.D. ,1975 The Video Source Book David J.
