Taking a Long Road Home Eugene C. Bianchi,2010-11-15 This memoir invites readers to explore stages of their own spiritual journey Bianchi graphically describes his path from an Italian immigrant family on the West Coast through twenty years as a Jesuit to being a professor of religious studies at Emory University As he develops a more this worldly inner life Bianchi struggles with church teachings about Christ sexuality and authority He candidly reveals how failed marriages gave him a humbler grasp of meeting the transcendent in everyday problems He embraces a contemplative spirituality that links Buddhist and Taoist practices with western mysticism With a foot in Christianity he shows how to walk a way of inter spirituality as a meaningful road for the contemporary seeker For Bianchi this involves becoming a metaphorical Christian as he moves away from religious certitudes of early life to find spirit in nature and humanity Bianchi a well known writer on spiritual aging challenges Baby Boomers to craft a contemplative life that works for them today With his wife and two cats he discovers a home for body and spirit along the banks of the Oconee River in Athens Georgia

Find Your Story, Write Your Memoir Lynn C. Miller,Lisa Lenard-Cook,2013-05-31 Every person has a story to tell but few beginners know how to uncover their story s narrative potential And despite a growing interest among students and creative writers few guides to the genre of memoirs and creative nonfiction highlight compelling storytelling strategies Addressing this gap the authors provide a guide to memoir writing that shows how an aspiring writer can use storytelling tools and tactics borrowed from fiction to weave personal experiences into the shape of a story
