The In-Between People Girma Bekele, 2011-03-29 In the midst of partial competing and often hostile forms of human solidarity David Bosch challenged the church to be the Alternative Community called to live in the in between of various opposing socio political economic and ecclesiastical polarities Girma Bekele explores and renews that call in the context of Ethiopia Acute poverty and the lingering question of the balance between ethnic distinctiveness and national unity together constitute a two edged challenge to Christian identity Constructive dialogue that fosters unity is intrinsic to effective response to the plight of the poor This means a turning away from institutional self preservation towards a contextually relevant mission that crosses all human made frontiers Taking Ethiopia as the immediate context Dr Bekele offers important insight to the church in the majority world and beyond

Prisoners of Prester John Cates Baldridge, 2014-01-10 During the 16th century Portugal endeavored to locate the mythical kingdom of Prester John a Christian nation rumored to be somewhere in the Orient amidst the pagans and Muslims This study chronicles Portugal s final attempt a six year odyssey in Ethiopia that resulted in a tragicomic collision with a proud but isolated Christian kingdom After summarizing the Prester John myth and the many efforts it spawned the work focuses on the Ethiopian mission s chronicler Father Francisco Alvares who fell in love with the country and its people became a friend of its king hid the Abyssinians heresies from his superiors and set in motion events that saved Ethiopia from imminent destruction Unique in the annals of Europeans initial contacts with African peoples the Portuguese mission is a portrait of hopeful preconceptions buffeted and eventually transformed by encounters with a fascinating utterly unexpected reality

Higher Education in Ethiopia Tebeje Molla, 2018-01-18 This book focuses on higher education in Ethiopia analysing persisting inequalities and policy responses against the backdrop of the extensive expansion and reform that the system has experienced in recent years Drawing on empirical data generated through interviews policy reviews and focus group discussions it explicates factors of structural inequality ranging from neoliberal policy orientations to repressive gender culture and geo political peripherality In a departure from conventional studies that consider policy a response to social problems the book takes a critical perspective to show the constitutive role of policy and explains how the representation of the problem of social inequality undermines equity policy outcomes in Ethiopian higher education Not only does the book problematise the framing of the problem of inequality in the system it also outlines strategies for designing transformative equity instruments In explaining structural factors of inequality and equity provisions the book productively combines sociological concepts with historical accounts and political economy insights Given the increased economic optimism associated with higher education in sub Saharan Africa and the neoliberal ideals underpinning much of the restructuring of the system in the region this is a timely and important contribution that sheds light on the social justice implications and consequences of such changes It offers fresh accounts of largely neglected qualitative cases of inequality making it a valuable read for students and researchers in the areas of Ethiopian education policy studies international and comparative education and international development

Gondar, Ethiopia Barbara W. Olson, 2011-03 In 1971 teachers Barb and Clark Olson together with the two small children moved to Gondar Ethiopia For four years Barb kept a detailed journal about the family's experiences recording people's stories and events both domestic and political local and national chronicling the early days of the revolution as well as the drought and famine moving across this East African nation Barb now lives with her husband in Springfield Illinois where she writes and is a community organizer This book is a Thank you to the people of Gondar and a tribute to the resiliency and vision of Ethiopia's youth Several of these stories are published separately including the children's book Christmas in Gondar Five Ethiopian Stories available soon

Handbook on Legal Cultures Sören Koch, Marius Mikkelsen, 2023-05-30 Cooperation across borders requires both knowledge of and understanding of different cultures This is especially true when it comes to the law This handbook is the first to comprehensively present selected legal cultures based on a very specific set of structural elements which can be found in all such cultures Legal cultures are a product of and impacted by certain fundamental and commonly shared ideas on and expectations of the law In all modern societies these ideas are to a certain degree institutionalized or at least embedded in institutionalized practices These practices determine the way lawyers are educated and apply the law how they engage with the ongoing internationalization of law and what kind of values they adhere to Looking at these elements separately enables the reader to identify similarities and differences and to explain them contextually Understanding these general features of legal cultures can help avoid misunderstandings or misinterpretations of foreign law and its application Accordingly this handbook is a necessary starting point for all kinds of legal comparative studies conducted by academics students judges and other legal practitioners

Habtes,2024-01-15 This book will take my readers through four continents and several cultures and languages I have experienced Some of these countries are very different from each other I could say this book has something for different readers My readers in the northern hemisphere will be introduced to the fascinating history of Eritrea and Ethiopia For those who appreciate different cultures there is enough material about the cultures and customs practiced in certain parts of Africa and the Caribbean Yet for educators I trained in Africa the United States of America and the Caribbean a section discusses how to train teachers Above all the message I want to leave with everyone who reads this book is to believe that anything is possible if you are with it and think there is more than one way to pursue life Ethiopian-Eritrean Wars Tom

Cooper,Adrien Fontanellaz,2018-07-31 Ethiopia a country of ancient origins in eastern Africa remains a military powerhouse of that continent until our days Nowadays involved in the war in neighboring Somalia Ethiopia was also involved in half a dozen of other armed conflicts over the last 60 years Crucial between these was the Eritrean War of Independence Fought 1961 1991 this was one of biggest armed conflicts on the African continent especially if measured by numbers of involved combatants It included a wide spectrum of operations from classic counterinsurgency COIN to conventional warfare in mountains with the latter being one of the most complex and most demanding undertakings possible to conduct by a military force Campaigns run during the Eritrean War of Independence often included large formations of relatively well equipped forces led by well trained commanders along well thought out plans based on homegrown doctrine The air power played a crucial although not necessarily decisive role in many of battles Nevertheless most of details about this conflict remain unknown in the wider public Similarly relatively few Western observers are aware of relations between the Eritrean liberation movements and various dissident and insurgent movements inside Ethiopia although the synergy of these eventually led the downfall of the so called Derg government in 1991 While the first volume in this mini series spanned the history of wars between Ethiopia and Eritrea between 1961 and 1988 the second covers the period since Correspondingly it is providing coverage of military operations that led to the fall of the Derg government in Ethiopia of 1991 the period of Eritrean military buildup and a complete reorganization of the Ethiopian military in the 1990s and concludes with the first detailed account of the so called Badme War fought between Ethiopia and Eritrea in period 1998 2001 It is illustrated by many contemporary photographs maps and color profiles The Palgrave Handbook of Fashion and Politics Karen M.

Kedrowski,Candice D. Ortals,Lori Poloni-Staudinger,J. Cherie Strachan,2024-10-15 This book examines how fashion intersects with political expression in the United States and across the globe The chapters cover a diversity of perspectives including experiences of men minoritized people and women and LGBTQ persons as well as examining strategic choices by political actors ranging from dictators to elected officials and from protesters to mothers Perhaps more importantly this handbook allows chapters written about the US by mainly US based academics to be in dialogue with scholarship about other regions of the world largely written by non US and non European scholars Several chapters address regions of the world

often understudied by political scientists including Africa Kenya Ethiopia Uganda Sudan Liberia Nigeria and Cameroon Asia North Korea Turkmenistan Indonesia and Pakistan and Latin America Argentina and Mexico This work goes beyond the usual analyses that cast clothing choices as trivial or constraining and shows how political actors from dictators to elected officials and from citizen activists to social movement leaders incorporate strategic choices about their clothing ranging from uniforms and business attire to hijab and traditional ethnic attire in order to advance their political agendas African Civilizations Graham Connah,2016 This new revised edition offers expanded coverage new illustrations and an extended new list of references Pedro Páez's History of Ethiopia, 1622 Pedro Paez,2011 This book in two volumes contains the first English translation with introduction and annotation of the Hist ria da Eti pia by the Spanish Jesuit missionary priest Pedro Paez 1564 1622 who worked in the Portuguese missions first in India and then in Ethiopia long thought to be the kingdom of the legendary Prester John Paez's learned but often polemical work is a major contribution to the political social cultural and religious history of Ethiopia in the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries and to the history of early Portuguese and Spanish missions in Africa and India and West European attempts to come to terms with non European cultures State Politics and Public Policy in Eastern Africa Gedion Onyango,2023-03-22 This book analyses major themes in twenty first century east African politics Predominantly authored by researchers and academics from the region it examines recent political developments public policy and governance across east and southern African countries The book advocates for a regionally focused comparative approach across Africa arguing that it provides a greater level of analysis than a complete continental study Adopting a multidisciplinary approach it covers numerous topics relating to politics public policy state and nation building in Africa Filling an important void in current literature the book will appeal to academics practitioners politicians and students of politics public policy and governance Chapter 16 and 20 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com Entangled Geographies Gabrielle Hecht,2011 The Cold War was not simply a duel of superpowers It took place not just in Washington and Moscow but also in the social and political arenas of geographically far flung countries emerging from colonial rule Moreover Cold War tensions were manifest not only in global political disputes but also in struggles over technology Technological systems and expertise offered a powerful way to shape countries politically economically socially and culturally This book explores how Cold War politics imperialism and postcolonial nation building became entangled in technologies and considers the legacies of those entanglements for today's globalized world The essays address such topics as the islands and atolls taken over for military and technological purposes by the supposedly non imperial United States apartheid era South Africa's efforts to achieve international legitimacy as a nuclear nation international technical assistance and Cold War politics the Saudi irrigation system that spurred a Shi'i rebellion and the momentary technopolitics of emergency as practiced by Medecins sans Frontières Publisher description State institutions and leadership in Africa Irma Taddia,Tekeste Negash,2018-02-01 The central theme of this book is the role of education in the formation of a political class during and after the European colonial period in Africa. The volume focuses on the various actors that informed and were part of this process such as African intellectuals and political leaders, colonial troops, European missionaries and administrators. At the same time, the collection analyses the historical processes connected to the emergence and development of a new African leadership such as the creation of a colonial school system, the transformation of urban spaces, the development of new environmental policies and the processes of nation building after independence. The volume is made up of twelve contributions: four on Ethiopia, two on Eritrea, two on the Sudan, one on Somaliland, two on Tanzania and one on Ghana.
