Army officer Crystal Anderson can't help but draw she has to vampires although she's supposed to be drawn to them to kill those who are renegades since she's a born huntress. But something about her is different. Ostracized from her family, she lives precariously on her own. That is until a local vampire targets her. Then she meets a fellow Army officer Robert Parker who she believes is one of them, a vampire or blood host or something. Suddenly, nothing is the same. Army officer Robert Parker is on assignment at Fort Hood, Texas, trying to track down the vampire who murdered his sister after hours. When he spies Crystal coming out of a vampire house, he assumes she's a human host and that she can lead him to his murderer. Except he's drawn to her like a hunter would be to a huntress until he learns she's not quite right. She's fighting alone without a family of hunters' support and he's bound to do something about it before she gets herself killed or worse.

Cougar's Mate Terry Spear, Cougar's Mate. Instinct told her to run. Shannon Rafferty learns that hanging out with the bad boys could be a dangerous business, but hooking up with a cop is even worse. Now she's on the run, trying to avoid being murdered by his cougar shifter brothers and uncle. If that isn't bad enough, a deputy sheriff hunts her down while she's running as a cougar and trying to survive in the Colorado wilderness. He vows to protect her no matter what she's done. With three dead boyfriends to her name, she's sure she will be the death of Chase Buchanan before either of them can prevent it. No matter how much she knows she has to run again, he soon holds her heart hostage. But will that be enough to keep them both alive? Chase Buchanan, wilderness cabin resort owner, former US Army Special Forces, and part-time deputy of the small town of Yuma, Colorado, that boasts a love of cougars, is tasked to track down a cougar reported to be hunting human prey. Chase soon learns she's a shifter, not a full-time cougar, and she's on the run. When he takes her in, he vows to protect her. After losing his wife and baby to the human kind of predator years earlier, he's not letting Shannon's hunters kill her too. But how is he going to hold onto the wild cat woman who is unpredictable at every turn without losing his heart to her and then losing her as well?

Bound by Danger Terry Spear, Army officer Deidre Roux has hidden her psychic abilities until now. But ominous visions plague her and between the martial arts tactics her twin brother taught her and the hand-to-hand combat she learned in the Army, she's realizing just how important these skills are for her well-being. When a reporter moves in next door, she's not sure just what to think. Dave Carter owns a gun, it is Texas, and comes to her rescue when her brother suddenly drops into her life again. From there, it's the normal stuff that women and men tend to do when they're getting to know each other: boating, swimming, dancing, except for one thing: she's trying to keep her secret under wraps at all costs, which is difficult to do when she's under surveillance by the FBI and people keep wanting her dead. Could a reporter who's not really a reporter prove he might just have what it takes to keep her safe for the long run?
