A Kite In The Wind Fiction Writers On Their Craft:

A Kite in the Wind Andrea Barrett, Peter Turchi, 2011-04-15 A Kite in the Wind is an anthology of essays by 20 veteran writers and master teachers. While the contributors offer specific practical advice on such fundamental aspects of craft as characterization, character names, the first person point of view, and unreliable narrators, they also give extended thoughtful consideration to more sophisticated topics including imminence or the power of a sense of beginning, creating and maintaining tension, lushness, and the deliberate manipulation of information to create particular effects. The essays in A Kite in the Wind begin as personal investigations, attempts to understand why a decision in a particular story or novel seemed unsuccessful, to define a quality or problem that seemed either unrecognized or unsatisfactorily defined, to understand what, despite years of experience as a fiction writer, resisted comprehension, and to pursue haunting, even unanswerable questions. Unlike a how-to book, the anthology is less an instruction manual than it is an intimate visit with twenty very different writers as they explore topics that excite, intrigue, and even puzzle them. Each discussion uses specific examples and illustrations, including both canonical stories and novels and writing less frequently discussed, from the 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries, by both American and international authors. The contributors share their hard-earned insights for beginning and advanced writers with humility, wit, and compassion. The first section of the book focuses on narration, with particular attention paid to various kinds of narrators; the second on strategic creation and presentation of character; the third on some of the roles of the visual, beginning with establishing setting and the fourth on structural and organizational issues, from movement through time to the manipulation of information to create mystery and suspense. Contributors include Wilton Barnhardt, Andrea Barrett, Charles Baxter, Karen Brennan, Maud Casey, Lan Samantha Chang, Robert Cohen, Stacey D'Erasmus, Judy Doenges, Anthony Doerr, C. J. Hribal, Michael Martone, Kevin McIlvoy, Alexander Parsons, Frederick Reiken, Steven Schwartz, Dominic Smith, Debra Spark, Megan Staffel, Sarah Stone, and Peter Turchi.

The Writer's Eye Amy E. Weldon, 2018-07-12 Learning to write starts with learning to do one big thing: pay attention to the world around you, even though just about everything in modern life makes this more difficult than it needs to be. Developing habits and practices of observing and writing down what you notice can be the first step away from the anxieties and doubts that can hold you back from your ultimate goal as a writer: discovering something to say and a voice to say it. In The Writer's Eye is an inspiring guide for writers at all stages of their writing lives. Drawing on new research into creative writers and their relationship with the physical world, Amy E. Weldon shows us how to become more attentive observers of the world and find inspiration in any environment. Including exercises, writing prompts, and sample texts, and spanning multiple genres from novels to nonfiction to poetry, this is the ideal starting point for anyone beginning to write seriously and offers refreshing perspectives for experienced writers seeking new inspiration.

A Muse and a Maze Peter Turchi, 2014-11-11 With his characteristic talent for finding the connections between writing and the stuff of our lives most notably in his earlier hit Maps of the Imagination The Writer as Cartographer Peter Turchi ventures into new and even more surprising territory In A Muse and a Maze Turchi draws out the similarities between writing and puzzle making and its flip side puzzle solving He teases out how mystery lies at the heart of all storytelling And he uncovers the magic the creation of credible illusion that writers share with the likes of Houdini and master magicians In Turchi s associative narrative we learn about the history of puzzles their obsessive quality and that Benjamin Franklin was a devotee of an ancient precursor of sudoku called Magic Squares Applying this rich backdrop to the requirements of writing Turchi reveals as much about the human psyche as he does about the literary imagination and the creative process With the goal of giving writers new ways to think about their work and readers new ways to consider the books they encounter A Muse and a Maze suggests ways in which every piece of writing is a kind of puzzle The work argues that literary writing is defined at least in part by its embrace of mystery offers tangrams as a model for the presentation of complex characters compares a writer s relationship to his or her narrator to magicians and wizards offers the maze and the labyrinth as alternatives to the more common notion of the narrative line and concludes with a discussion of how readers and writers like puzzle solvers not only tolerate but find pleasure in difficulty While always balancing erudition with accessibility Turchi examines the work of writers as various as A A Milne Dashiell Hammett Truman Capote Anton Chekhov Alison Bechdel F Scott Fitzgerald Antonia Nelson Vladimir Nabokov Charles D Ambrosio Michael Ondaatje Alice Munro Thomas Bernhard and Mark Twain elaborating and illuminating ways in which their works expand and deliver on the title s double entendre A Muse and a Maze With 100 images that range from movie stills from Citizen Kane and Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid to examples of sudokus crosswords and other puzzles from Norman Rockwell s famous triple self portrait to artwork by Charles Richie and from historical arcana to today s latest magic A Muse and a Maze offers prose exposition images text quotations and every available form of wisdom leading the reader step by step through passages from stories and novels to demonstrate with remarkable clarity how writers evolve their eventual creations
