A Marines Promise To God A Memoir Of Vietnam:

A Marine's Promise to God David L. Ray, 2016-04-04 Life threatening near death experiences are common subjects for books or television usually these focus on a single experience in one persons life A Marines Promise to God by David L Ray follows the author on his tour of Vietnam in 1970 through more than ten near death experiences during which he never even received a wound He was the squad point man notorious for being the most dangerous combat role The marines around him were wounded and killed but Ray survived by the power of prayer and the promise he made to God which he has done his best to keep As Ray chronicles his path to joining the Marines and discovering the chaos of the life of a Marine grunt in Vietnam he introduces readers to his experiences of life with his company and in the bush The narrative follows Ray as he works day and nighttime missions and patrols finds his place and sees moments of extreme violence and sadness David L Ray is a living example of the power of prayer divine protection and overworked guardian angels Time after time when the shooting and explosions had stopped Ray realized that not only was he still alive but he hadn't even been hit To this day he has never forgotten what God did for him and he has never forgotten his friends who fell while serving their country

Footprints In The Sand Robert R. Grant, 2022-03-29 As I walk down the path of life I find that many things around me affect the way I think and the decisions I make One of the biggest effects of my life was the night of the Tet Offensive in Vietnam in 1968 At 4 00 a m our bomb dump blew up and our fuel cell with fuel for three squadrons of aircraft blew up Our perimeter was breached I thought I was going to check out I made a promise to the good Lord that I would be a productive member of society He has been a big part of every decision I have made I know that the day comes I don't meet His standard or requirements He will dial up my number Today at age seventy five years old my doctor told me to get my life in order I made out my will And I made up a living will I set up and paid for my funeral sold everything I didn't need When the time comes to meet my maker I will thank Him for allowing me to continue down my path of life Only then will I know how He feels about my journey Brutes in Suits John Pettegrew, 2007-07-16 Publisher description Pop a Smoke Rick

Gehweiler, 2022-05-30 By 1969 the Sikorski H 34 was an older helicopter with severe limitations for combat duty in Vietnam For pilots like U S Marine Lieutenant Rick Gehweiler the good news was it could still take significant damage and keep flying His vivid memoir narrates his harrowing at times deadly flight missions under fire as experienced in the cockpit along with anecdotes of tragedy and humor from his 13 month tour through Da Nang and Phu Bai Grunts Kyle Longley, 2015-01-28 This book provides a fresh approach to understanding the American combat soldier's experience in Vietnam It integrates such topics as the political culture the experiences of training the actual Vietnam experience and the homecoming and offers a remarkable overview of the 870 000 grunts who bore the brunt of the fighting in the jungles and highlands of South Vietnam and eventually Cambodia and Laos The book addresses many of the stereotypes of the Vietnam combat veteran that have been perpetrated in popular culture and also considers how Vietnam veterans have been commemorated through memorials and other means and how the veterans remember each other The coverage also includes women who served in or near the front lines as well as on the home front The author draws on memoirs and oral histories including his personal interviews with veterans but the book conveys a picture of the Vietnam combat soldier s experience far more powerful than what individual memoirs can provide Radical Visions Vicente F. Gotera,1994 Although poets have written about warfare since at least the time of Homer the Vietnam war has struck many observers as being immune to the interpretations of poetry and myth Lyric poetry of a traditional kind writes one critic has proved inappropriate to communicate the character of the Vietnam war its remoteness its jargonized recapitulations its seeming imperviousness to aesthetics Nonetheless the past two decades have seen an unprecedented outpouring of poetry that seeks to describe and come to terms with that bitterly divisive conflict In Radical Visions Vince Gotera argues that poetry written by Vietnam veterans underlines the failure of traditional American myths to help Americans understand the war and its aftermath The book blends sociohistorical commentary with close readings of individual works by such poets as Michael Casey Walter McDonald and W D Ehrhart In the book s first section The Nam Gotera examines several key mythic structures the Wild West a violent extension of the mythic virgin land the machine in the garden the city on the hill regeneration through violence all of which helped delude Americans about Vietnam and the war being fought there In the second part The World Gotera shows how another myth the American Adam as an exemplar of ahistorical innocence proved unusable for returning veterans attempting to readjust to American life In addition to exposing these failed myths Gotera argues the poetry by Vietnam veterans reflects an effort to construct new myths most notably that of the warrior against war an oxymoronic structure arising from the difficulties faced by returning veterans In the book s final chapters Gotera examines the work of Bruce Weigl and Yusef Komunyakaa two poets whom the author considers most successful at portraying the moral absurdity of the Vietnam war without sacrificing lyrical aesthetics The first comprehensive study devoted exclusively to poetry by Vietnam veterans Radical Visions argues that this body of writing registers an important advance in the aesthetics and poetics of war literature and offers a cogent antiwar statement rooted in personal experience Tiger Papa Three Edward F. Palm,2020-06-17 The U S Marine Corps Combined Action Program CAP in Vietnam was an enlightened gesture of strategic dissent Recognizing that search and destroy operations were immoral and self defeating and that the best hope for victory was winning hearts and minds the Corps stationed squads of Marines augmented by Navy corpsmen in the countryside to train and patrol alongside village self defense units called Popular Forces Corporal Edward F Palm became a combined action Marine in 1967 His memoir recounts his experiences fighting with the South Vietnamese his readjustment to life after the war and the circumstances that prompted him to join the Corps in the first place A one time aspiring photojournalist Palm includes photographs he took while serving along with an epilogue describing what he and his former sergeant found during their 2002 return to Vietnam Passing Time W.D. Ehrhart,2022-11-09 From 1969 to 1974 Ehrhart was just passing time His reentry into the world

began with his enrollment as a 21 year old freshman and token Vietnam vet at Swarthmore College At first simply trying to bury his past Ehrhart slowly came to understand what happened to him and why in Vietnam Interspersed are flashbacks to the war itself It is the story of political and personal awakening As the war dragged on the United States deceitful involvement and its perpetuation of fallacies and lies about the war s conduct forced Ehrhart to confront his own feelings about his government country and self Throughout the reader shares with Ehrhart his odyssey through naivete growing awareness angry withdrawal and finally a measure of peace And May God Bless Ruth Ann Comer,2021-06-17 Read about sixty nine years of miracle after miracle How I survived numerous unimaginable traumas illnesses surgeries mental illness and suicide attempts The book begins at age twenty one just married suffered kidney failure having emergency surgery afterward being pronounced dead ending up in heaven My return from heaven finds I am now terminally ill with only a year to live if I do not get pregnant But God Also how I as a little girl hunted for the God of the and may God bless and finding him See how depending on God brings me to sanity even supernatural physical healing throughout all my troubles suffering responsibilities and laced with spiritual warfare The Price of Freedom Sergeant Don Reeves (Retired),2011-10-14 Most of us take for granted the freedoms this country has been blessed with but freedom is not free This is my story a simple southern boy from Arkansas who at the age of eleven wanted to be a marine I found myself in the Vietnam War at the age of eighteen that pushed me to the limit physically and psychologically The images I carry in my mind are still horrifying at times and for many years I blamed myself for my fallen comrades Feelings of anger hate guilt and bitterness were trapped within my soul and ate at me a little each day until there was no more of me left Miraculously I was redeemed when I re found my faith in God and the soul mate who helped me through it all I truly hope you enjoy reading it as much as I enjoyed writing it Semper Fi Water on the Moon Frederick M. Burkle, Jr., MD,2024-11-29 After struggling through a challenging childhood afflicted with asthma overcoming dyslexia and dealing with an abusive father Frederick Skip Burkle was determined to become a physician Despite the odds he achieved that goal and then entered the Navy as a draftee His first assignment was deployment to a combat base in South Vietnam close to the DMZ one of the most violently contested areas in that war torn country Besides treating combat casualties Dr Burkle provided humanitarian medical care to local civilians many of whom were suffering from the wounds of war plus living with a host of tropical diseases That deployment not only introduced him to Vietnamese culture but also to the type of medicine he would continue to practice for the rest of his career In this memoir Burkle shares his story as a pioneer in global disaster medicine He served in three major wars and multiple country conflicts and escaped assassination attempts during his position as the Interim Health Minister of Iraq Burkle s story reveals the challenges of practicing medicine in war torn areas he dealt with complex political and power struggles negotiations and the poverty stricken aftermath of conflict He also shared his skills with health care professionals around the world earning him a legacy as the father of disaster medicine The Book Review Digest ,2003 Library Journal ,1996

Confessions of a Surviving Alien Jon Meade,2016-03-17 More than a book more than a non fiction read more than a memoir CONFESSIONS OF A SURVIVING ALIEN will engage the reader like most have never experienced It will take them through a maze of lifes pathos and elicit the emotions of sadness joy pain regret guilt remorse pride fear revenge happiness forgiveness evil good and much uniquely intertwined with humor often times outrageously so Although defined by the premise of Vietnam it is much more than another war account to the contrary It is more often the dredge of a neophyte Marine trying to get more into the war and action than out of it It is more about his disillusionment in practically every aspect of that officially declared police action but not in ways one might expect It is more about his evolution and regression as a human being and inner torment including feelings of alienation The book starts at the end and ends with the start with a chronological account in between covering four parts Before Vietnam BV During Vietnam DV After Vietnam AV and finally After Marines AM The story covers the life of a young American and follows his incredible journey through the decades to find himself to explore every possibility of livingand nearly dyingand reach some hopeful level of success however that is defined From having a unique tour in Vietnam to escorting deceased Marines to their families and final resting place to his life threatened by a mob guy to learning about a deeply held family secret concerning his father to experiencing a profound spiritual experience in the unlikely locale of Beverly Hills California and much more author Jon Meades biggest challenge may be getting readers to believe his surreal story He merely shrugs and says I am just a very ordinary guy with an extraordinary life to convey It is nothing less nor more than that Maybe he admits in the end analysis success in life is merely surviving life failures and all With that admission and a very personal and engaging approach and writing style the genre of Memoirs may never be the same
