Green Web-II Medani P. Bhandari,2022-09-01 In dealing with the IUCN one must bear in mind that there never has been and undoubtedly never will be any other organization even remotely resembling it Its peculiarities subtleties and complexities are sometimes mind boggling Nicholson 1990 in Holdgate 1999 ix Green Web II investigates IUCN s role in global biodiversity conservation policy as well as in national program development in India Pakistan Nepal and Bangladesh It explores how nature protection priorities and approaches are promoted or addressed by IUCN an international organization and how environment conservation policies are created and maintained in states with different capacities of South Asia It also evaluates IUCN s competency in bio diversity climate change nature conservation and environmental policy formulation at global regional and country level This study is the first detailed scholarly study on the IUCN as an organization as well as on its efforts in biodiversity conservation This book adds to our knowledge firstly by contributing to a small but growing body of work on the sociology of international organizations IOs especially International Governmental Organizations IGOs have long been the subject of mostly political science Secondly it applies a fuller sociological imagination to the study of IOs by critically exploring one of the largest and most active nature conservation organizations in the world Thirdly it also explores how the IUCN actually goes about building protectoral programs with individual member nations Additionally the book explores the recent development of the green economy GE concepts into IUCN s program planning today The green economy initiative applies a people first approach Although the concept is relatively new this research explores the theoretical development of a green economy and illustrates how this theory is applied in IUCN s program planning to program implementation

Budgeting for Local Governments and Communities Douglas Morgan,Kent S. Robinson,Dennis Strachota,James A. Hough,2017-09-19 Budgeting for Local Governments and Communities is designed as the primary textbook for a quarter or semester long course in public budgeting and finance in an MPA programme Many currently available texts for this course suffer from a combination of defects that include a focus on federal and state budgeting a lack of a theoretical governance framework an omission of important topics and typically a lack of exercises and datasets for student use Budgeting for Local Governments and Communities solves all of these problems The book is exceptionally comprehensive and well written and represents the efforts of veteran authors with both teaching and real world experience Key Features Special Focus on Local Government Budgeting focuses exclusively on budgeting at the local levels of American government which are responsible for spending 40 percent of the taxes collected from citizens Integration of Theory and Practice teaching cases and chapters capture the lessons learned by professional practitioners who have extensive experience in making local public budgeting work on the ground Polity Approach to Local Budgeting presents an introduction to local budgeting as the central political activity that integrates the resources of the community into a unified whole Budgeting is presented as governance work rather than as a unique set of skills possessed by analysts and financial specialists Legal Historical Economic and Moral Foundations of Local Government Budgeting provides readers with an understanding of how the structures and processes of local budgeting systems are firmly tethered to the underlying core values legal principles and historical development of the larger American federal state and local political systems Electronic Datasets and Budgeting Exercises the text includes access to extensive electronic datasets and practice exercises that provide abundant opportunities for students to learn through doing Extensive Glossary and Bibliography covers terms on the history and practice of local public budgeting Moody's Municipal & Government Manual, 1979
