Post-Western Histories of

Architecture Pilar Maria Guerrieri, Marco Biraghi, 2023-06-23 This book seeks to provide an alternative post Western perspective to the history of contemporary architecture It puts forward detailed critical analyses of various areas of the world including Europe Latin America Africa China Australia India and Japan where particular movements of architecture have developed as active political acts The authors focus on a broad spectrum of countries architectures and architects that have developed a design approach closely linked to the building context The concept of context is broad and includes various economic social cultural political and natural aspects In all cases the architects selected in this book have chosen to view context as an opportunity However each architect has considered certain specific aspects of context some have been very attentive to the social context others to material aspects or typological issues and still others to aspects related to political visions or economic factors The analysis critically highlights interesting creative and respectful design approaches towards local conditions such as sustainability in Nordic Europe climate conscious design in Africa and the bottom up sensitivity of India The book's main aim is to retrace through both theoretical arguments and case studies the debate that focuses on politics and the environment Thanks to its valuable examples this book strives to make a conscious contribution to establishing a bulwark against the current flattening out processes that architecture is experiencing This book will be of relevance to researchers teachers and students interested in the history of architecture architecture and planning and postcolonial studies

Trade Mark Dilution in Europe and the United States Ilanah Simon Fhima, 2011-11-03 The only comparison of EU and US protection against trade mark dilution this book provides a complete overview of the dilution action enabling practitioners to better protect trade marks against dilution or to combat dilution claims Through clear and practical tests for the different types of dilution this book demonstrates how to prove that a mark is famous how to prove blurring tarnishment and unfair advantage and how to prove lack of due cause It gives clear guidance on the meaning of association and the role of similarity of goods as well as the US dilution defences the level of proof required and the actual versus likely dilution question By examining the justifications offered for dilution the book places the dilution action in the wider context of the trade mark system allowing readers to understand the issues behind the law and to consider whether the law appropriately meets these justifications It considers the fundamental questions raised about trade marks including whether the main aim of trade marks is to protect the public from being confused or the investment of trade mark owners in building up their reputations The book also considers how well the EU and the US take these questions into account in balancing the interests of trade mark owners their competitors and the public through the dilution action Dilution is at the cutting edge of trade mark law extending its protection beyond traditional boundaries to situations where defendants using trade marks are not causing confusion This book provides practitioners with all the information they need both to protect trade marks against dilution and to prevent them being the subject of dilution claims
