The World Unseen By Shamim Sarif:

The World Unseen Shamim Sarif, 2002 Miriam is the traditional young Indian mother hardworking and self effacing When she meets the rebellious Amina who confounds the Indian community by driving a taxi and setting up a cafe with a black man her world is turned upside down Body, Sexuality, and Gender Flora Veit-Wild, Dirk Naguschewski, 2005 Contains reflections on body sexuality and gender in African literary texts While the sections Gifted Bodies and Queered Bodies show new developments in viewing body and sexuality as creative powers the sections Tainted Bodies and Violated Bodies comprise essays that investigate the exposure of the body to physical aggression and other traumatic experiences

The Cambridge Companion to Lesbian Literature Jodie Medd, 2015 The Cambridge Companion to Lesbian Literature examines literary representations of lesbian sexuality identities and communities from the medieval period to the present In so doing it delivers insight into the variety of traditions that have shaped the present landscape of lesbian literature Now You See Her Anne Crémieux, 2023-03-20 Over the past thirty years queer women have been coming out of the media closet to enter the mainstream consciousness This book explores the rise of lesbian visibility since the 1990s with in depth historical analyses of representation in sports music photography comics television and cinema Each chapter is complemented by an interview soccer player and coach Saskia Webber singer songwriter Gretchen Phillips photographer Lola Flash cartoonist Alison Bechdel and filmmakers Jamie Babbit and Anna Margarita Albelo discuss the societal transformations that shaped their careers From the riot grrrl movement of the early 1990s punk scene to screen representations of queer culture The L Word Orange Is the New Black this book discusses how lesbian presence successfully infiltrated several patriarchal strongholds and was transformed in return Unreliable Truths Sissy Helff, 2013 While many people see home as the domestic sphere and place of belonging it is hard to grasp its manifold implications and even harder to provide a tidy definition of what it is Over the past century discussion of home and nation has been a highly complex matter with broad political ramifications including the realignment of nation states and national boundaries Against this backdrop this book suggests that home is constructed on the assumption that what it defines is constantly in flux and thus can never capture an objective perspective an ultimate truth Along these lines Unreliable Truths offers a comparative literary approach to the construction of home and concomitant notions of uncertainty and unreliable narration in South Asian diasporic women's literature from the UK Australia South Africa the Caribbean North America and Canada Writers discussed in detail include Feroza Jussawalla Suneeta Peres da Costa Meera Syal Farida Karodia Shani Mootoo Shobha D and Oonya Kempadoo With its focus on transcultural homes Unreliable Truths goes beyond discussions of diaspora from an established postcolonial point of view and contributes with its investigation of transcultural unreliable narration to the representation of a g local South Asian diaspora The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean Since 1950 Simon Gikandi, 2016 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic

World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English Cinema Today Elena Oumano,2011 In Cinema Today Elena Oumano has ingeniously crafted a conversation from her personal and individual interviews with a distinguished group of international cinema legends She follows a lively symposium in print format with the filmmakers words and thoughts grouped together under various key cinema topics Collectively these artists reflect on and explore issues and concerns of modern filmmaking from the practical to the aesthetic including the process cinematic rhythm and structure and the many aspects of the media business the viewer and cinema s place in society Cinema in a Democratic South Africa Lucia Saks,2010-07-19 Lucia Saks uses South African cinema as a lens through which to view cultural changes resulting from the end of apartheid in 1994 She examines how media transformed the meaning of race and nation during this period and argues that as apartheid was disbanded and new racial constructs allowed South Africa quickly sought a new mode of representation as a way to distance itself from the violence and racism of the half century prior as well as to demonstrate stability amid social disruption This rapid search for a new way to identify and portray itself is what Saks refers to as the race for representation She contextualizes this race in terms of South African history the media apartheid sexuality the economy community early South African cinema and finally speculates about the future of counter cinema in present day South Africa

Constructing Gender through Arts and Media Mr. Rohit Manglik,2023-01-23 In this book we will study about constructing gender through arts and media It explores how various art forms and media representations shape challenge and reflect gender identities and social norms Relations and Networks in South African Indian Writing ,2018-05-15 Writers of Indian origin seldom appear in the South African literary landscape although the participation of Indian South Africans in the anti apartheid struggle was anything but insignificant The collective experiences of violence and the plea for reconciliation that punctuate the rhythms of post apartheid South Africa delineate a national script in which ethnic class and gender affiliations coalesce and patterns of connectedness between diverse communities are forged Relations and Networks in South African Indian Writing brings the experience of South African Indians to the fore demonstrating how their search for identity is an integral part of the national scene s project of connectedness By exploring how Indianness is articulated in the South African national script through the works of contemporary South African Indian writers such as Aziz Hassim Ahmed Essop Farida Karodia Achmat Dangor Shamim Sarif Ronnie Govender Rubendra Govender Neelan Govender Tholsi Mudly Ashwin Singh and Imraan Coovadia along with the prison memoirists Dr Goonam and Fatima Meer the book offers a theoretical model of South South subjectivities that is deeply rooted in the Indian Ocean world and its cosmopolitanisms Relations and Networks demonstrates convincingly the permeability of identity that is the marker of the Indian Ocean space a space defined by relations and networks established within and beyond ethnic class and gender categories
