Timbuktu Paul Auster, 2010-12-22 Meet Mr Bones the canine hero of Paul Auster's remarkable novel Bones is the sidekick of Willy G Christmas a brilliant but troubled poet saint from Brooklyn Together they sally forth across America to Baltimore Maryland on one last great adventure searching for Willy's old teacher Bea Swanson Years have passed since Willy last saw his beloved mentor who used to know him as William Gurevitch son of Polish war refugees But is Mrs Swanson still alive And if not what will prevent Willy from vanishing into that other world known as Timbuktu In this brilliant novel Auster writes with economy precision and the quirky pathos of noir addressing the pernicious ubiquity of American consumerism the nature of love and the core riddles of ontology Above all though this is the affecting tale of a special dog's place in the universe of humans and in the fleeting life of a special man Publishers Weekly Timbuktu Paul Auster, 1999

Bi-directionality in the Cognitive Sciences Marcus Callies, Wolfram R. Keller, Astrid Lohöfer, 2011 Cognitive science is the interdisciplinary study of the human mind As far as the exact relationship between the cognitive sciences and other fields is concerned however it appears that interdisciplinary exchange often remains unrealized possibly because of the uni-directional application of theories concepts and methods which impedes the productive transfer of knowledge in both directions In the course of the cognitive turn in the humanities and social sciences many disciplines have selectively borrowed ideas from core cognitive sciences like psychology and artificial intelligence The day to day practice of interdisciplinarity thus thrives on one-directional borrowings Focusing on cognitive approaches in linguistics and literary studies this volume explores bi-directionality a genuine transdisciplinary interchange in which both disciplines are borrowing and lending The contributions take different perspectives on bi-directionality some extend uni-directional borrowing practices and point to avenues and crossroads while others critically discuss obstacles challenges and limitations to bi-directional transfer Babel Unbound Lesley Cowling, Carolyn Hamilton, 2020-05-15 In this timely original and sophisticated collection writers from the Global South demonstrate that forms of publicness are multiple mobile and varied The notion that societies mediate issues through certain kinds of engagement is at the heart of imaginings of democracy and often centers on the ideal of the public sphere But this imagined foundation of how we live collectively appears to have suffered a dramatic collapse across the world with many democracies apparently unable to solve problems through talk or even to agree on who speaks in what ways and where In the 10 essays in this timely original and sophisticated collection writers from southern Africa combine theoretical analysis with the examination of historical cases and contemporary developments to demonstrate that forms of publicness are multiple mobile and varied They propose new concepts and methodologies to analyse how public engagements work in society Babel Unbound examines charged examples from the Global South such as the centuries old Timbuktu archive Nelson Mandela as a powerful absent presence in 1960s public life and the challenges to the terms of contemporary debate around the student activism of Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall These show how issues of public discussion span both archive and media verbal debates in formal spaces and visual performances that circulate in unpredictable ways

Paul Auster Mark Brown,2013-07-19 Paul Auster provides the first extended analysis of Auster's essays poetry fiction films and collaborative projects It explores his key themes of identity language and writing metropolitan living and community and storytelling and illusion By tracing how Auster's representations of New York and city life have matured from a position of urban nihilism to qualified optimism the book shows how the variety of forms he works in influences the treatment of his central concerns The chapters are organised around gradually extending spaces to reflect the way in which Auster's work broadens its focus beginning with the poet's room and finishing with the global metropolis of New York his home city and often his muse The book uses Auster's published and unpublished literary essays to explain the shifts from the dense and introspective poems of the 70s through the metropolitan fictions of the 80s and early 90s to the relatively optimistic and critically acclaimed films and his return to fiction in recent years A Philosophical Autofiction

Spencer Golub,2019-01-04 This is a book about what becomes of the truth when it succumbs to generational memory loss and to the fictions that intervene to cause and fill the gaps It is a book about the impossibility of writing an autobiography when there is a prepossessing cultural and familial we interfering with the I and an I that does not know itself as a self except metastatically as people and characters it has played but not actually been A highly original combination of close readings and performative autobiography this book takes performance philosophy to an alternative next step by having its ideas read back to it by experience and through assorted fictions It is a philosophical thought experiment in uncertainty whose literary theatrical and cinematic trappings illustrate and finally become what this uncertainty is the thought experiment having become the life that was that came before and that outlives the I am Paul Auster's Postmodernity

Brendan Martin,2007-09-12 This book focuses upon the literary and autobiographical writings of American novelist Paul Auster investigating his literary postmodernity in relation to a full range of his writings Martin addresses Auster's evocation of a range of postmodern notions such as the duplicitous art of self invention the role of chance and contingency authorial authenticity and accountability urban dislocation and the predominance of duality Postcolonial Animal Tale from Kipling to Coetzee
