A Wrinkle in Time Tara McCarthy, 2002 A guide to facilitating the discussion of the novel by Madeline L'Engle by students in grades four through eight offers suggestions for identifying themes, analyzing vocabulary and responding to the text.

A Wind in the Door Jacqueline Goldfinger, Madeleine L'Engle, 2022-01-01 One of literature's favorite heroines Meg Murry the fierce and fiery heroine of Madeleine L'Engle's classic novel A Wrinkle in Time is back to join forces with her brother Charles Wallace and friend Calvin for a fantastical adventure. When an extraterrestrial creature recruits the trio to fight an evil force they'll travel across a galaxy and through the cells of a human body to stop it. This thrilling sci-fi story reveals that love and kindness are the best antidotes to evil. Recommended for professional TYA theaters touring groups. Originally commissioned and produced by The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts 2021. This theatrical re-telling with vivid visuals, puppetry and creatively suggested imaginary locations is perfect for professional theaters that can maximize the opportunities for puppetry or even for small touring groups who need to tell the story with less performers 5 or with puppetry and props that are able to travel. Drama Full length 60-70 minutes 5-11 actors possible. One of Madeleine L'Engle's biggest talents is connecting the cosmic to the personal and this synthesis between the vast and intimate is captured beautifully in Jacqueline Goldfinger's adaptation. A Wind in the Door makes big themes tangible and accessible without talking down to its audience.
