Helping Women Recover has set the standard for best practice in the field of women's treatment. Helping Women Recover is a manualized treatment intervention based on Dr. Covington's Women's Integrated Treatment (WIT) model, offering a program developed to meet the unique needs of women addicted to alcohol, other drugs, and those with co-occurring disorders. Included in SAMHSA's National Registry of Evidence-based Programs and Practices, the Helping Women Recover program offers counselors, mental health professionals, and program administrators the tools they need to implement a gender-responsive, trauma-informed treatment program in group settings or with individual women in criminal justice settings. Now in its third edition, this binder set includes a hands-on participant's journal that has been updated with new material on opioid addictions, how to become trauma-informed and gender-responsive, LGBTQ issues, and more. Updated references, further reading suggestions, and a chapter for facilitators which includes the challenges of working in the criminal justice system help practitioners to effectively implement the program in daily practice. A vital tool for all mental health and addiction treatment professionals, Helping Women Recover draws from the most up-to-date theory and practical applications in the fields of addiction and trauma. Covers the historical background and fundamental principles of gender-responsive services. Provides guidance for facilitating an effective woman's treatment program. Offers real-world insights on the role of the facilitator. Includes an appendix of additional recovery resources such as The Sixteen Steps for Discovery, Empowerment, and Women for Sobriety, New Life Program, Acceptance Statements, etc. Helping Women Recover is essential for mental health and addiction treatment professionals, including counselors, therapists, social workers, psychologists, and psychiatrists who work with women. In HWR is essential for anyone providing services to women in criminal justice settings. A Man's Workbook Stephanie S. Covington, Dan Griffin, Rick Dauer, 2011-01-18. A Man's Workbook offers a companion product that is tied seamlessly to the Helping Men Recover Facilitator's Guide. This participant workbook has four modules: self-relationships, sexuality, and spirituality, and allows men to process and record the therapeutic experience. It contains exercises for use in group sessions, summaries of information presented from the facilitator's guide, and reflection questions and activities for use after group sessions. There is also a criminal justice version of the workbook which is designed specifically for men in criminal justice settings. Beyond Violence+ Stephanie S. Covington, 2025-04-01. A gender-responsive, trauma-informed treatment program for mental health, addiction, and domestic violence professionals working within the criminal justice system. Beyond Violence: A Prevention Program for Justice-Involved Women and Gender-Diverse People is the revised and expanded version of the evidence-based Beyond Violence 2013. The expansion includes additional sessions focusing on suicide prevention, parenting relationships in prison, and gender diversity. This treatment program is specifically developed for those who have committed aggressive or violent crimes and are in prisons, jails, and community correctional settings. The curriculum applies the Social Ecological Model to understand violent impulses and their management. This same conceptual model is used by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and by researchers affiliated with the Prison Rape

Elimination Act PREA This four level violence prevention model considers the complex interplay between individual relationship community and societal factors It addresses key issues that put women at risk of experiencing or perpetrating violence The Beyond Violence program consists of 27 group sessions Facilitators receive the background information and content necessary to lead practical and effective sessions and the Participant Workbook allows women to process record and refer back to their therapeutic group experiences By the end of the program participants will have new skills in communication conflict resolution de escalation decision making and self soothing They also will have a newfound understanding of themselves their backgrounds and the paths forward in their lives Beyond Anger and Violence

Awakening Blackout Girl Jennifer Storm, 2020-10-06. In this honest and practical guide, rape survivor and victim advocate Jennifer Storm shares the information, tools, and resources she has gained from more than twenty years of personal and professional experience to help fellow survivors recover from co-occurring sexual trauma and substance use. In recent years, the MeToo and Time's Up movements have exposed the truth that many already knew: sexual violence, victimization, and rape culture are real, pervasive, and causing widespread trauma for millions of survivors. This newfound visibility is also shedding light on the lack of resources available for victims to cope and heal from their pain. Perhaps it's not surprising that many turn to whatever coping mechanisms are close by, which often include alcohol, other drugs, and unhealthy behaviors. How can people in recovery from both sexual trauma and substance use heal in a place where victim-blaming and addiction stigma collide? Jennifer Storm is living proof that there is hope. In her memoir Blackout Girl, she shared her story and showed survivors that they are not alone. In Awakening Blackout Girl, Jennifer goes further by providing the road map she used to wake herself up from the drug-fueled numbness that was killing her and to achieve a fulfilling life of recovery and advocacy. With more than twenty years of experience helping other victims through the criminal justice system, Jennifer knows what survivors face. In this guide, she provides the exercises, tools, and wisdom they need to heal. While covering crucial subjects ranging from shame and self-harm to sex and relationships, Jennifer's message is this: Neither your pain nor your offender nor anyone else who doubts your strength gets to finish your story You have the power to write your ending You can survive you can heal and you can thrive

Diversity and Development Dana Comstock, 2005 This edited counseling specific text provides graduate students with needed information on human growth and development It provides a brief overview of developmental theories all of which are a review to students from their undergraduate work At its heart the book based on Relational Cultural theory addresses various topics and critical contexts as they relate to human growth and development and stresses relational development critical thinking and the central theme of how shame plays into development

Gendered (in)justice Pamela J. Schram, Barbara Koons-Witt, 2004 This collection examines the gender and environmental factors that precede criminal behavior and the effects of gender on how the criminal justice system perceives and treats adult women offenders Divided into four sections section I is an overview of feminist theory in criminology from its early influence to its recent contributions Section II addresses gender issues important to understanding women and the crimes they commit and emphasizes the need to study how gender organizes criminal activity The articles in section III discuss the laws and policies affecting women offenders including the effects of stereotypes on sentencing and the rising rates of incarceration due to drug laws The final section analyzes the treatment of women in prison and programs for female offenders from a feminist perspective

Voicing Our Stories/remaking Our Lives Grassroots Women's Collective, 1999 With clarity and conviction this book relates women's stories of adversity and triumph Twelve women from diverse backgrounds and experiences talk about struggle and recovery in this inspiring collection of personal writings Native women immigrant and working class women wives mothers and war refugees speak of sexual and physical abuse workplace harassment alcoholism eating disorders and emotional breakdowns They also document their determination and strength to overcome and move forward Women in struggle and the general reader will be informed and inspired by the extraordinary determination of these ordinary women
