Bonhoeffer's Christocentric Theology and Fundamental Debates in Environmental Ethics Steven C. van den Heuvel, 2017-05-04 There is widespread understanding of the close connection between religion and the ecological crisis, and that in order to amend this crisis, theological resources are needed. This monograph seeks to contribute to this endeavor by engaging the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer. His theology is particularly suitable in this context due to its open-ended nature and to the prophetic and radical nature of the questions he was prepared to ask; that is why there are many other attempts to contextualize Bonhoeffer's theology in areas that he himself has not directly written about. In this monograph Steven van den Heuvel first of all addresses the question of how to translate Bonhoeffer's theology in a methodologically sound way. He settles on a modified form of the general method of correlation. Then secondly van den Heuvel sets out to describe five major concepts in Bonhoeffer's work bringing these into critical interplay with discussions in environmental ethics and eco-theology. In making the correlations he thoroughly describes each concept situating it in the historic and intellectual background of Bonhoeffer's time. He then transposes these concepts to contemporary environmental ethics describing what contribution Bonhoeffer's theology can make.

Bonhoeffer and Neo-Calvinism in Dialogue George Harinck, Brant M. Himes, 2023-11-28 This book is a collection of scholarly essays that place Dietrich Bonhoeffer in conversation with the Dutch Neo-Calvinist tradition of Abraham Kuyper and Herman Bavinck. The essays engage in theological ethics and historical theology in an effort to frame ongoing dialogue in relation to issues of public theology. While Bonhoeffer and Neo-Calvinism represent distinct theological traditions, there is value in placing their respective ideas in conversation for the purposes of creative insight, theological understanding, and practical application. Contributors represent perspectives from North America and the Netherlands. Taken together, the essays offer an important contribution to this unique field of theological inquiry.

Stenberg, and Josiah Young.

These excerpts from sermons and letters contain his personal and faithful words about the crucifixion and the power of the cross for all Christians. Meditations on the Cross is ideal for devotional reading and personal reference.

Understanding Bonhoeffer Peter Frick, 2017-05-23 How are we to understand Bonhoeffer? In these essays Peter Frick attempts to answer this question by examining different aspects of Bonhoeffer's thought, thus illuminating the hermeneutical, philosophical, theological, and social dimensions of his writings. All sixteen essays collected here were written between 2007 and 2014; some of them address the question of methodology, others contribute to Bonhoeffer's intellectual formation, and still others seek to connect with contemporary questions. The aim of the volume is to present Bonhoeffer's key theological and philosophical ideas and to emphasize their contemporary relevance.

For a Better Worldliness Brant M. Himes, 2018-09-27 For a Better Worldliness is not only a statement of Abraham Kuyper's and Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theological concept and historical practice of discipleship It is also and perhaps more importantly a call to engage in the fullness of the Christian life here and now While this book goes to great efforts to establish sound historical and theological insights specifically in regards to Kuyper and Bonhoeffer there is a strong underlying current that these particular insights deeply matter to the life of discipleship in the world today History shows us that discipleship is not a singular journey because of Jesus Christ it is not a description of one set path with one set of guidelines A disciple can be a prime minister who unabashedly and successfully campaigned on his Calvinistic principles just as he can be a participant in a coup d tat launched against a tyrant leading to the disciple's own imprisonment and death Jesus Christ calls whether to the height of political office or to the dank prison cell or more likely for us to somewhere in between
