Making Standards Useful in the Classroom Robert J. Marzano,Mark W. Haystead,2008 It s true that state standards often have way too much content and aren t written in a way that enhances classroom instruction and formative assessment That s why this guide is invaluable for any educator who wants to ensure that standards actually lead to higher student achievement The authors give you good reasons for why some content standards should be dropped and explain how benchmark statements in standards should be rewritten Learn how to sequence content and set up grading scales that help facilitate formative assessment and effective instruction And get clear steps for unpacking and converting standards into guidelines that are much more useful to classroom teachers To implement this book s much more efficient approach the authors included over 240 pages of detailed scoring scales and sample measurement topics for k 8 science math language arts social studies and critical life skills topics for elementary through high school students

Melancholia and Maturation Eric L. Tribunella, 2010-01-15 Coming of age in children s fiction often means achieving maturity through the experience of trauma In classics ranging from Old Yeller to The Outsiders a narrative of psychological pain defies expectations of childhood as a time of innocence and play In this provocative new book Eric L. Tribunella explores why trauma especially the loss of a loved object occurs in some of the most popular and critically acclaimed twentieth century American fiction for children Tribunella draws on queer theory and feminist revisions of Freud s notion of melancholia which is described as a fundamental response to loss arguing that the low grade symptoms of melancholia are in fact what characterize the mature sober and responsible American adult Melancholia and Maturation looks at how this effect is achieved in a society that purports to protect youngsters from every possible source of danger thus requiring melancholia to be induced artificially Each of the book s five chapters focuses on a different kind of lost object sacrificed so as to propel the child toward a distinctively gendered sexual ethical and national adulthood from same sex friends to the companionship of boy and his dog stories from the lost ideals of historical fiction about the American Revolution to the children killed or traumatized in Holocaust novels The author examines a wide spectrum of works including Jack London s dog tales the contemporary realistic novels of S. E. Hinton and Newbery Medal winners like Johnny Tremain and Bridge to Terabithia Tribunella raises fundamental questions about the value of children s literature as a whole and provides context for understanding why certain books become required reading for youth Eric L. Tribunella is assistant professor of English at the University of Southern Mississippi His articles have been published in Children s Literature Association Quarterly Children s Literature in Education The Lion and the Unicorn A Critical Journal of Children s Literature and Children s Literature

Pencils Down! Paula Greene, 2012-09 Pencils Down has been forty five years in the making It is hoped that by sharing classroom experiences the reader will be entertained enlightened and educated The ideas presented are written for all educators veteran novice substitute and student teachers parents who homeschool college and university professors as well as for anyone who has a child in his or her care The guide offers the fruit of my experiences gleaned from a lifetime in the classroom Writing this book has been a labor of love and it is my sincere hope that all educators reading this book will find some fresh insight into the wonderful profession of teaching Pencils Down will take you on a journey whose itinerary begins in elementary school and spans more than four decades I have taken that journey at the head of the class Many an author has written a book on education without ever having stepped into a real classroom I have stepped into many classrooms many times over many years and now feel qualified to write my first book Having successfully survived as a teacher forty five years in the public and private sectors of both the New York and Nevada school systems prompted me to write this book a book packed with lessons that work school humor enrichment activities and sage advice ready to be used by anyone who desires to instill a love of learning in a child You may wish to do many of the lessons with your students Most of the text deals with activities based on beloved children s books I have selected more than fifty children s books I most enjoyed reading and teaching my students Although some of these books never achieved Newbery Medal award status each book teaches something of life s lessons and each is a gem My first priority was selecting excellent children s books I have selected a broad and diverse collection of children s books with the hope that by using these books daily with all elementary school children each child can learn to love books and appreciate the extended benefits of lifelong literacy To give you a true flavor of what is covered a summary of each part follows Welcome to Pencils Down Part One School Humor You are reading this either because you are contemplating a career in teaching or are curious to find out whether a veteran teacher can still be sane after spending forty five years in the classroom Part One presents the humorous side to an otherwise serious profession You will get a glimpse of nineteenth and early twentieth century rules for teachers and peruse a copy of the contract teachers were made to sign Both will make you wonder why anyone would consider a career in education You will find out what teachers make and be privy to the public s low opinion of teachers salaries If you survive the reality show for educators you may continue reading the book School anecdotal incidents accrued from many years in the classroom will be shared You will learn why God created the teacher and will be introduced to the new school policy A test designed for preschoolers will challenge you Answers from kindergartners and first graders as to why we read and write will be sure to surprise and amuse you Actual student test answers and parental notes are included both good for a chuckle The difference between an educator and a teacher will be clarified Today s schools vs schools in the 50 s and 60 s will make you wish you were teaching in a simpler era and make you wonder if schools are still teaching math An Australian school s answering machine will make you smile as will the eleven things you did not and will not learn in school Part Two Getting to Know You Getting to know you Getting to know all about you

A Literature Kit for Because of Winn-Dixie by Kate DiCamillo David McAleese, Kate DiCamillo, 2006-09 A Literature Kit Your students will enjoy this wonderful story of loss and longing of loneliness friendships and the finding of contentment in a place for oneself This is a story in which a ten year old girl must face the abandonment of her mother and find the answer to the question Will she ever come back The answer surprisingly is No but India Opal Buloni over the course of the novel learns to deal with this answer through her experiences and support of a growing circle of friends all of whom have also suffered some kind of loss themselves And finally it is the story of the love between a girl and her dog a pet that has an uncanny ability to bring kindred spirits together
