Derricotte-Murphy,2024-08-23 In this theological work readers are seated in a metaphorical balcony as a counter melody is composed within America s operatic tradition By using imaginary opera glasses readers are invited to critically view American society and history The most popular folk songs of white Southerners Western settlers and Northern elites were composed from chords of colonialism white supremacy patriarchy hegemony and xenophobia forms of anthropological poverty These songs were and remain the most discordant melodies heard by indigenous and enslaved persons in America Indicting the church for its complicity in these oppressions this work offers the reader a historical glimpse at the philosophical and religious underpinnings of systemic racism A new healing hermeneutic the balcony hermeneutic enables the reader to view critique assess correct and reverse the devastating consequences of anthropological poverty By taking a reversed gaze of traditional Western Eurocentric systems of knowledge production through theomusicology this work privileges the voices of indigenous scholars philosophers anthropologists theologians and performers to sing a new song as we correct negative narratives and lyrics through resistance operatic performances The Routledge Handbook of Language and Intercultural Communication Jane Jackson,2012-03-15 Section 1 Foundations of language and intercultural communication section 2 Core themes and issues verbal and nonverbal communications and culture section 3 Theory into practice towards intercultural communicative competence and citizenship section 4 Language and intercultural communication in context section 5 New debates and future directions A comprehensive introduction to the multidisciplinary field of intercultural communication drawing on the expertise of leading scholars from diverse backgrounds Studies in Maltese Popular Music Philip Ciantar,2021-04-21 This book examines the diverse facets of popular music in Malta paying special attention to g ana Malta s folk song the wind band tradition and modern popular music Ciantar provides intriguing discussions and examples of how popular music on this small Mediterranean island country interacts with other aspects of the island s life and culture such as language religion history customs and politics Through a series of ethnographic vignettes the book explores the music as it takes place in bars at festivals and during village celebrations and considers how it is talked about in the local press at group gatherings and on social media The ethnography adopted here is that of a native musician and ethnomusicologist and therefore marries the author's memories with ongoing observations and their evaluation

The Enemy in Contemporary Film Martin Löschnigg, Marzena Sokołowska-Paryż, 2018-08-21 Culture and conflict inevitably go hand in hand. The very idea of culture is marked by the notion of difference and by the creative, fraught interaction between conflicting concepts and values. The same can be said of all key ideas in the study of culture such as identity and diversity, memory and trauma, the translation of cultures and globalization, dislocation and emplacement, mediation and exclusion. This series publishes theoretically informed original scholarship from the fields of literary and cultural studies as well as media, visual and film studies. It fosters an interdisciplinary dialogue on the multiple ways in which conflict supports and constrains the production of meaning, on how conflict is represented, how it relates to the past and projects the present, and how it frames scholarship within the humanities. Editors: Isabel Capeloa Gil, Catholic University of Portugal, Lisbon, Portugal; Paulo de Medeiros, University of Warwick, UK; Catherine Nesci, University of California, Santa Barbara, USA. Conflict Management and Intercultural Communication Xiaodong Dai, Guo-Ming Chen, 2022-11-15 Conflict management and harmony building are two key issues of intercultural communication research and merit particular attention in the globally interconnected world. In the expanded second edition, the book explores the effective ways to manage intercultural conflict and develop intercultural harmony and takes an interdisciplinary approach to address the two issues. The book begins with the theoretical perspectives on conflict management and harmony building. It examines intercultural communication, ethics, diversity and inclusion, conflict resolution, conflict face negotiation and intercultural competence. It presents both Western and non-Western perspectives. The book then addresses, in its second section, conflict management and harmony building in specific contexts. These include communication in intergenerational relationships, multinational corporations and virtual spaces, and covers a range of national cultures including the USA, Japan, Germany and China. Drawing on the current research findings, this book covers the major theoretical perspectives and provides for a wide range of discussions on intercultural conflict management. It is a crucial reference for teachers, students, researchers and practitioners alike.

A Different Mirror Ronald Takaki, 2012-06-05 Takaki traces the economic and political history of Indians, African Americans, Mexicans, Japanese, Chinese, Irish and Jewish people in America, with considerable attention given to instances and consequences of racism. The narrative is laced with short quotations, cameos of personal experiences and excerpts from folk music and literature. Well known occurrences such as the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire the Trail of Tears the Harlem Renaissance and the Japanese internment are included Students may be surprised by some of the revelations but will recognize a constant thread of rampant racism The author concludes with a summary of today s changing economic climate and offers Rodney King s challenge to all of us to try to get along Readers will find this overview to be an accessible cogent jumping off place for American history and political science plus a guide to the myriad other sources identified in the notes

The Handbook of Intercultural Discourse and Communication Christina Bratt Paulston, Scott F. Kiesling, Elizabeth S. Rangel, 2014-09-15
