Seeing Things as They Are Duncan Reyburn, 2017-08-31 The jovial journalist philosopher and theologian G K Chesterton felt that the world was almost always in permanent danger of being misjudged or even overlooked and so the pursuit of understanding insight and awareness was his perpetual preoccupation Being sensitive to the boundaries and possibilities of perception he believed that it really was possible albeit in a limited way to see things as they are Duncan Reyburn marrying Chesterton s unique perspective with the discipline of philosophical hermeneutics aims to outline what Chesterton can teach us about reading interpreting and participating in the drama of meaning as it unfolds before us in words and in the world Chesterton s unique interpretive approach seems to be the implicit fascination of all Chesterton scholarship to date and yet this book is the first to comprehensively focus on the issue By taking Chesterton back to his philosophical roots via his marginalia his approach to literary criticism his Platonist Thomist metaphysics and his Roman Catholic theology Reyburn explicitly and compellingly tackles the philosophical assumptions and goals that underpin his unique posture towards reality

Chesterton,2018-07-10 Excerpts NEW YEAR S DAY THE object of a New Year is not that we should have a new year It is that we should have a new soul and a new nose new feet a new backbone new ears and new eyes Unless a particular man made New Year resolutions he would make no resolutions Unless a man starts afresh about things he will certainly do nothing effective Unless a man starts on the strange assumption that he has never existed before it is quite certain that he will never exist afterwards Unless a man be born again he shall by no means enter into the Kingdom of Heaven JANUARY 3rd COURAGE is almost a contradiction in terms It means a strong desire to live taking the form of a readiness to die He that will lose his life the same shall save it is not a piece of mysticism for saints and heroes It is a piece of everyday advice for sailors or mountaineers It might be printed in an Alpine guide or a drill book This paradox is the whole principle of courage even of quite earthly or quite brutal courage A man cut off by the sea may save his life if he will risk it on the precipice He can only get away from death by continually stepping within an inch of it A soldier surrounded by enemies if he is to cut his way out needs to combine a strong desire for living with a strange carelessness about dying He must not merely cling to life for then he will be a coward and will not escape He must not merely wait for death for then he will be a suicide and will not escape He must seek his life in a spirit of furious indifference to it he must desire life like water and yet drink death like wine No philosopher I fancy has ever expressed this romantic riddle with adequate lucidity and I certainly have not done so But Christianity has done more it has marked the limits of it in the awful graves of the suicide and the hero showing the distance between him who dies for the sake of living and him who dies for the sake of dying And it has held up ever since above the European lances the banner of the mystery of chivalry the Christian courage which is a disdain of death not the Chinese courage which is a disdain of life Orthodoxy FEBRUARY 21st IF Americans can be divorced for incompatibility of temper I cannot conceive why they are not all divorced I have known many happy marriages but never a compatible one The whole aim of marriage is to fight through and survive the instant when incompatibility becomes unquestionable For a man and a woman as such are incompatible What s Wrong with the World JULY 11th THE Church is not a thing like the Athenaeum Club he cried If the Athenaeum Club lost all its members the Athenaeum Club would dissolve and cease to exist But when we belong to the Church we belong to something which is outside all of us which is outside everything you talk about outside the Cardinals and the Pope They belong to it but it does not belong to them If we all fell dead suddenly the Church would still somehow exist in God The Ball and the Cross SEPTEMBER 9th CHATTERING finch and water fly Are not merrier than I Here among the flowers I lie Laughing everlastingly No I may not tell the best Surely friends I might have guessed Death was but the good King s jest It was hid so carefully The Skeleton Wit and Wisdom for every day of the year *WIT AND WISDOM OF G. Wit and Wisdom of G. K. Chesterton (Classic Reprint) G. K. Chesterton, 2015-07-09 Excerpt from Wit and Wisdom of G. K. Chesterton There are two equal and eternal ways of looking at this twilight world of ours we may see it as the twilight of evening or the twilight of morning we may think of anything down to a fallen acorn as a descendant or as an ancestor There are times when we are almost crushed not so much with the load of the evil as with the load of the goodness of humanity when we feel that we are nothing but the inheritors of a humiliating splendour But there are other times when everything seems primitive when the ancient stars are only sparks blown from a boy's bonfire when the whole earth seems so young and experimental that even the white hair of the aged in the fine biblical phrase is like almond trees that blossom like the white hawthorn grown in May About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
