Paradigms Eunjoo Mary Kim,Deborah Beth Creamer,2012-04-06 This book is about leadership a scholarly and pastoral response to the urgent demand for the renewal of the contemporary Christian church It challenges readers to articulate the identity and vision of the church in new ways and encourages them to revitalize their ministry with fresh insight and passion from women s perspectives The eight essays written by female scholars in relation to various areas of theological study and the nine pastoral responses to the essays written by ministers from seven different denominations based on their experiences of actual ministerial settings provide new paradigms of church leadership theologically profound practically relevant and historically timely This volume a product of a collaborative process between academia and church promises to be a most useful resource to renew the leadership of the church and its vocational commitment to the transformation of the church and society     Alexander Pushkin A. D. P. Briggs,1983-01-01 A clear detailed and accessible account of all Pushkin s poetry

Illuminations, and Other Prose Poems Arthur Rimbaud,1957 Rimbaud born in 1854 started to write at an early age By 17 he had written his most famous poem The Drunken Boat He then embarked on a turbulent homosexual relationship with the poet Verlaine from which came some of their most original work including A Season in Hell and Illuminations Rimbaud rejected writing at the age of 20 After years of travelling and gun running in Africa he died in 1891 aged 37

Sigismund Lars Gustafsson,1985 King Sigismund the seventeenth century Polish monarch learns how to live simultaneously in the past present and the future     Navigating the Transnational in Modern American Literature and Culture Tara Stubbs,Doug Haynes,2017-03-16 This study develops the important work carried out on American literature through the frameworks of transnational transatlantic and trans local studies to ask what happens when these same aspects become intrinsic to the critical narrative Much cultural criticism since the 1990s has sought to displace perceptions of American exceptionalism with broader notions of Atlanticism transnationalism world system and trans localism as each has redefined the US and the world more generally This collection shows how the remapping of America in terms of global networks and as a set of particular localities or even glocalities now plays out in Americanist scholarship reflecting on the critical consequences of the spatial turn in American literary and cultural studies Spanning twentieth and twenty first century American poetry fiction memoir visual art publishing and television and locating the US in Caribbean African Asian European and other contexts this volume argues for a re modelling of American ness with the transnational as part of its innate rhetoric It includes discussions of travel migration disease media globalization and countless other examples of inflowing Essays focus on subjects tracing the contemporary contours of the transnational such as the role of the US in the rise of the global novel the impact of Caribbean history on American thought and vice versa transatlantic cultural and philosophical genealogies and correspondences and the exchanges between the poetics of American space and those of other world spaces Asking questions about the way the American eye has traversed and consumed the objects and cultures of the world but how that world is resistant this volume will make an important contribution to American and Transatlantic literary studies     Perspectives in Information Science H. Debons,W.J. Cameron,2013-03-13 What is Information Science What does a person do as an Information Scientist The yearning for replies to these queries so far is unabated Meanwhile those who have dedicated their interest to information ponder the possible answers and issues It is not surprising to realize that man has always been interested in information in producing it in using it in preserving it But the past two or three decades have added new dimensions and new emphases in information studies With the increase in the production and availability of knowledge the need to understand more fully how to use it effectively has gathered greater momentum During the same period the nature and incidence of crisis situ ations whether public or private has demanded greater depend ence on timely delivery of data to make decisions and undertake action Moreover there has been a harvest of vast and significant technological developments to accompany these changes in social and individual states Information has gathered and continues to gather growing importance in the lives of individuals as well as nations Einführung in den neueren deutschen Vers Alfred Behrmann,2016-12-17

Economic Ironies Throughout History Michael Szenberg,L. Ramrattan,2014-12-04 Economics for Alfred Marshall the last of the classical economists is concerned with activities in the ordinary business of life In that milieu we find conflicts and chaotic behavior among people firms and countries which make them conduct their affairs in different and sometimes ironic ways Economic Ironies Throughout History explores explains predicts and harnesses these ironies for economists and scholars alike Szenberg and Ramrattan distill their core economic ironies from a vast history of philosophy and literature that applies to economic thought They include philosophical psychological literary and linguistic discussions and the personalities behind those ideas such as Socrates Kierkegaard Hume Freud Jung Saussure and Barthes This book is ideal for economists as well as scholars across the business social science and humanities fields A World of Letters Nicholas A.
