Assessing Older Persons Measures Meaning And Practical Applications:

Assessing Older Persons Robert L. Kane, Rosalie A. Kane, 2000 This is a unique text and reference on the multidimensional assessment of older persons. It combines detailed accounts of measures for a wide range of functions with discussions of their applications in the care of older persons. The effort throughout is to combine information on specific measures with insight into how and when each measure should be used.

Measurement Scales Used in Elderly Care Abhaya Gupta, Almas Rehman, 2017-11-22 This unique concise ready reference for daily use collates for the first time the most useful practical and simple assessment scales used in geriatric settings. It provides tools to identify clinical conditions and health outcomes objectively and reliably. It is essential as a clinical primer and everyday reference guide for all practising and training members of multidisciplinary teams including consultants and doctors in specialist training, career grade doctors and general practitioners and medical students, nurses, health visitors, dieticians and social workers, allied health professionals such as physiotherapists, occupational therapists, speech and language therapists and managers of elderly care services. Assessment is central to the practice of Geriatric Medicine. All members of the multidisciplinary team require a sound knowledge of the basic principles of measurement scales. We need to be competent in using and selecting appropriate scales, understanding which scales are valid and fit for purpose. Unfortunately up to now this has been a difficult task, often requiring reference to original papers. Dr Gupta's scholarship has come to the rescue. He has trawled through the many hundreds of scales available, selecting those most useful for the specialty. This book will be valuable to all members of the multidisciplinary team. Dr Gupta has done an excellent job outlining the theory and practice of measurement scales. He has put together an extremely useful compendium of scales. I congratulate him and wish his publication every success. I can foresee this publication becoming an essential text for every unit library and a valuable book for individual clinicians. Dr Jeremy Playfer in his Foreword. This book summarises the most commonly used validated assessment scales which can be used by medical students, postgraduate trainees, consultants and the multidisciplinary team members. I hope a copy of this book will be kept on every ward, outpatient department and GP practice for daily use and reference.

Professor Bim Bhowmick OBE in his Foreword.

Assessing Older Persons Marilyn Eells, 2004

Integrating Care for Older People Christopher Foote, Christine Stanners, 2002-05-23 The authors of this book share their practical experience of implementing a multi-agency approach to the support of older people. They show how systems thinking can help with the complexity of developing a model of care that co-ordinates medical, social and community services and offer insight into the effective use of on-going assessment.

The Oxford Handbook of Clinical Geropsychology Nancy A. Pachana, Ken Laidlaw, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Clinical Geropsychology is a landmark publication in this field, providing broad and authoritative coverage of the research and practice issues in the field today as well as innovations expanding the field's horizons. It includes chapters from the foremost scholars in clinical geropsychology from around the world.

Performance Indicators in Social Care for

Older People David Challis, Paul Clarkson, 2017-03-02 The growing focus on performance review and monitoring means that awareness and use of performance indicators has increased throughout a number of public services Set within a national context this book reviews the historical development and measurement issues of performance indicators within social care and the public sector for older people It then provides an approach to effective local performance measurement in services for older people and an organizing framework within which organizations can arrange their performance appraisal for older people s services The development of performance review in social care of older people is examined as is the process of developing local performance measures and engaging staff in enquiry and quality management The book also reviews the process of developing performance indicators and their utilization at an agency level Performance Indicators in Social Care for Older People will be of particular interest in the UK for local service providers who are developing approaches for local performance review It will also be of interest internationally especially in countries where services for older people are currently developing in a similar direction
