Real-Life Writing Eleanor S. Angeles,2002 Real Life Writing is an ideal tool for teaching writing to adults who are learning ESL or who are at the pre GED level With examples based on real life situations that your students are eager to master from filling out a job application to writing a memo to a boss this book is sure to keep them interested and motivated For use with Grades 7 and Up Everyday Life in the Early English Caribbean Jenny Shaw,2013 Set along both the physical and social margins of the British Empire in the second half of the seventeenth century Everyday Life in the Early English Caribbean explores the construction of difference through the everyday life of colonial subjects Jenny Shaw examines how marginalized colonial subjects Irish and Africans contributed to these processes By emphasizing their everyday experiences Shaw makes clear that each group persisted in its own cultural practices Irish and Africans also worked within and challenged the limits of the colonial regime Shaw s research demonstrates the extent to which hierarchies were in flux in the early modern Caribbean allowing even an outcast servant to rise to the position of island planter and underscores the fallacy that racial categories of black and white were the sole arbiters of difference in the early English Caribbean The everyday lives of Irish and Africans are obscured by sources constructed by elites Through her research Jenny Shaw overcomes the constraints such sources impose by pushing methodological boundaries to fill in the gaps silences and absences that dominate the historical record By examining legal statutes census material plantation records travel narratives depositions interrogations and official colonial correspondence as much for what they omit as for what they include Everyday Life in the Early English Caribbean uncovers perspectives that would otherwise remain obscured This book encourages readers to rethink the boundaries of historical research and writing and to think more expansively about questions of race and difference in English slave societies Akademi Awarded Novels in English Mithilesh K. Pandey,2003 Contributed articles English for Life 2 Cecil Gray,1993 A four book course satisfying all language needs for lower secondary to CSEC examination level Language Development across the Life Span Birna Arnbjörnsdóttir,Hafdís Ingvarsdóttir,2017-11-15 This book offers insights from a seven year study into the impact of English as an International Language at a national level from the effect of rich English input on a previously monolingual people s linguistic repertoire to its effect on the situated language use demanded of speakers who find themselves in a new linguistic environment for which they have not been prepared The changes described in the book have occurred in a speech community that identifies strongly with the local language but finds itself increasingly having to use another language to perform daily functions in education and work Findings describe how the official language and educational policies have not addressed this new linguistic ecology of

Iceland The findings of these studies have larger international practical educational empirical and theoretical implications and should be relevant to anyone interested in the impact of English as an International Language

Life at the Margins Juliet Merrifield, 1997 Unlike many books about adult literacy which focus on abstract concepts related to test scores this volume develops an understanding of literacy through the engaging life stories of twelve adults from diverse backgrounds living in the United States In the process of coming to know these adults we learn contrary to commonly held assumptions and beliefs about literacy that adults with limited literacy skills work hard and long make limited use of public resources can use technology when shown and have pride and self respect In addition to all of the scientific information and policy implications yielded by this research study this is foremost a compelling story of human struggle and survival Readers will find themselves caring about these adults feeling angry about their underemployment and their pain and excited about their triumphs
