Ames,2013-10-08 A reference for high school theatre teachers covering both curricular and extracurricular problems everything from how to craft a syllabus for a theatre class to what to say to parents about a student's participation in a school play Design Studio Works, Sketches & Essays Kyeong Jae Lee,2015-02-19 I come from Seoul Korea where layers of ancient beauty and high end technology coexist The city has been evolving swiftly in ways that no single individual can fully comprehend and continues onward toward an exciting but unpredictable future I have witnessed this change and have felt overwhelmed but inspired by this wild transformation The pace of change has become a motivation for me to learn more design more and love more If a city is a jigsaw puzzle then creating architecture is like filling in the missing pieces without knowing what the entire picture should look like I used to be afraid to make a mistake thinking that a wrong move may stay and stain the beloved city for decades But then I realized that adding a piece is not just a passive process but a mutually interactive one the moment I make a move it generates a new context This revelation completely changed the way I see the world and emboldened me to be a more proactive forward thinking architect Crit - An Architectural Student's Handbook Charles Doidge,Rachel Sara,Rosie Parnell,2007-08-15 The architectural crit review or jury is a cornerstone of architectural education around the world Students defend their ideas drawings and models in open forum before staff and fellow students What academic staff see as healthy creative debate students see as hostile confrontation an ego trip for staff and humiliation for them This accessible and readable book written by students and illustrated by telling cartoons guides them through this academic minefield with creative humour It provides practical advice based on experience of many recent students and draws on recent experimentation at Sheffield University and De Montfort University Leicester The aim is twofold first to suggest how to get the most out of the traditional experience and second to describe ways in which this is being developed into an experience that will be more constructive and prepare future students to build more creative relationships with clients and users and across the industry While much has been written about the crit review or jury little has been done to prepare students for it or to develop it in the light of changing professional attitudes and relationships This book is a timely guide to a timeless experience in a changing profession Survival Guide ,1983* Bioclimatic Architecture in Warm Climates Manuel Correia Guedes,Gustavo Cantuaria,2019-04-30 This book provides a comprehensive hands on approach to bioclimatic building design in Africa Bioclimatic design is at the core of urban sustainability and is a critical issue in Africa where imported building typologies are being used at an increasing pace disregarding the local context and consequently causing damage to the environment to the economy and to the culture itself This book provides a concise set of sustainable design guidelines to be applied in both new buildings and the refurbishment of old buildings and integrates bioclimatic design strategies with other sustainability issues such as cultural aspects affordability and urban planning Chapters are fully illustrated with photographs and drawings and include best practice examples and strategies making it accessible to engineers architects students and a broad range of professionals in the building industry Encompasses all climatic regions in Africa Integrates bioclimatic design strategies with other sustainability issues Discusses new design to refurbishment from urban to rural including office buildings residential tourism social housing and self building

Lebbeus Woods: Exquisite Experiments, Early Years Aleksandra Wagner, Neil Spiller, 2024-03-18 American architect Lebbeus Woods 1940 2012 remains a quiet hero not only among his colleagues but also for architectural students intrigued by the ideas and fluent beauty of his powerful graphic verve as well as of his writing His projects from the mid 1980s until the end of his life have been widely published However this AD in collaboration with the Estate of Lebbeus Woods explores the earlier period beginning in the late 1960s when Woodswas honing his draughtsmanship and theoretical positions while experimenting with a variety of themes and different modes of expression When he burst onto the international architectural scene with a solo exhibition and accompanying catalogue Lebbeus Woods Origins at the Architectural Association London in 1985 some wondered how anyone could emerge so fully formed from nowhere Working against the logic of nowhere this issue charts his early trajectory through the largely unpublished drawings and texts linking them with what came after Aiming to generate new scholarship its roster of international interdisciplinary critics and commentators offer a new understanding of Woods s work and of his formative years also shining a light on how we might think about the early work of any architect s career Contributors Joseph Becker Aaron Betsky Peter Cook Mark Dorrian Riet Eeckhout Kevin Erickson Joerg Gleiter Sharon Irish Elyahu Keller Lawrence Rinder Ashley Simone Ben Sweeting
