Architectural Theories Of The Environment Posthuman Territory:

Architectural Theories of the Environment Ariane Lourie Harrison, 2013-03-05 As architects and designers we struggle to reconcile ever increasing environmental humanitarian and technological demands placed on our projects Our new geological era the Anthropocene marks humans as the largest environmental force on the planet and suggests that conventional anthropocentric approaches to design must accommodate a more complex understanding of the interrelationship between architecture and environment Here for the first time editor Ariane Lourie Harrison collects the essays of architects theorists and sustainable designers that together provide a framework for a posthuman understanding of the design environment An introductory essay defines the key terms concepts and precedents for a posthuman approach to architecture and nine fully illustrated case studies of buildings from around the globe demonstrate how issues raised in posthuman theory provide rich terrain for contemporary architecture making theory concrete By assembling a range of voices across different fields from urban geography to critical theory to design practitioners this anthology offers a resource for design professionals educators and students seeking to grapple the ecological mandate of our current period Case studies include work by Arakawa and Gins Arons en Gelauff Casagrande The Living Minifie van Schaik R Sie n SCAPE Studio Gang and xDesign Essayists include Gilles Clément Matthew Gandy Francesco Gonzalez de Canales Elizabeth Grosz Simon Guy Seth Harrison N Katherine Hayles Ursula Heise Catherine Ingraham Bruno Latour William J Mitchell Matteo Pasquinelli Erik Swyngedouw Sarah Whatmore Jennifer Wolch Cary Wolfe and Albena Yaneva Building Sustainable Futures Mohammad Dastbaz, Ian Strange, Stephen Selkowitz, 2015-11-13 This book presents state of the art research and case studies on new approaches to the design construction and planning of our cities Emphasis is placed on the role of alternative and renewable energy in the development of urban infrastructures that enable sustainable futures Reflecting the multi faceted efforts required to successfully meet sustainability challenges this book is a collaboration between practitioners and academics across a broad spectrum of specializations Compelling research findings are explained in the context of practical implementation enhanced by case studies from industry leaders in order to create a pragmatic reference across policy areas where environmentally aware decision making is required Ambiguous Territory Cathryn Dwyre, Chris Perry, David Salomon, Kathy Velikov, 2022-01-26 The writers and designers in this collection are among the most thoughtful architects artists landscape architects and theorists working today The editors organized these essays and works of art and design around three territories the atmospheric the biologic and the geologic Each cluster of essays is further framed by forewords and afterwords which draw individual points of view into a larger articulation of what an ambiguous territory might be and how it operates Ambiguous Territory emerged from a symposium and exhibition held at the University of Michigan in the fall of 2017 and exhibitions at the University of Virginia and Pratt Manhattan Gallery in 2018 and at Ithaca College in 2019 The conversations that arise in this book are inquisitive and critically engaged They pressure assumptions we routinely make about what constitutes meaningful and principled perspectives in architecture landscape architecture and art Both the texts and the work take on some of the trickiest issues of our time Excerpt from a foreword to the book by Catherine Ingraham Professor Graduate Architecture and Urban Design Pratt Institute The works in Ambiguous Territory exist in a creative space in the moody realm of possibilities It s a sphere of design in which solutions or lack thereof have yet to settle That should be a familiar feeling for all creative people whose daily life may include exploring a way out of a problem without being able to nail down an exact answer This volume belongs in that territory of ambiguity and curiosity a place where there is room for musings laughter and despair The projects convey in different ways a hope for a better future but also a sense of not knowing if that future is at all possible Excerpt from an afterword to the book by Peder Anker Professor the Gallatin School of Individualized Study New York University With Contributions of Ellie Abrons Paula Gaetano Adi amid cero9 Amy Balkin Philip Beesley Ursula Biemann The Bittertang Farm Edward Burtynsky Bradley Cantrell Gustavo Crembil Brian Davis Design Earth Mark Dion Formlessfinder Lindsey french Adam Fure Futureforms Michael Geffel Rania Ghosn David Gissen El Hadi Jazairy Harrison Atelier Cornelia Hesse Honegger Lisa Hirmer Catherine Ingraham Lydia Kallipoliti Perry Kulper Sean Lally Landing Studio Lateral Office LCLA Mark Lindquist LiquidFactory Ariane Lourie Harrison Meredith Miller Thom Moran Ricardo de Ostos Naja deOstos Nemestudio Mark Nystrom OMG O Donnell Miller Group The Open Workshop Ricardo de Ostos oOR Office of Outdoor Research Jennifer Peeples pneumastudio Alessandra Ponte Office for Political Innovation Rachele Riley RVTR Smout Allen smudge studio Neil Spiller Terreform ONE Andreas Theodoridis Unknown Fields Liam Young Marina Zurkow

Social Practices and City Spaces Kyriaki Tsoukala, 2023-11-07 This book examines the relationship between social practices and built space focusing on current cooperative participative and posthuman approaches to its production and management From a social cultural and ecological perspective it explores the modes of engagement of all factors in the constitutional processes of inhabited space Throughout this interdisciplinary collection built space is reconsidered in the light of other schools of thought such as philosophy anthropology social sciences and political theories and practices It covers new ground at conceptual epistemic and methodological levels focusing on inhabited space from within the framework of globalisation biopolitics cultural changes environmental crisis and new technologies Organised into three parts Parts 1 and 2 focus on the role of architects in the emergence of a new ethos for habitation as well as the modalities of the inclusion of differences in design discussing the importance of participation and narrative at a theoretical and practical level in architecture In the third part the chapters delve into questions regarding the intersection of design ecology and technoscience in a posthuman approach which might support the inclusion of differences in design and the emergence of a new environmental ethos Providing a stimulating landscape of arguments and challenges to new readings of architecture society and the environment this book will be of interest to researchers students and professionals of architecture urban planning anthropology and philosophy

What Is Cosmopolitical Design? Design, Nature and the Built Environment Albena Yaneva, Alejandro Zaera-Polo, 2017-05-15 The scale of ecological crises made us realize that every kind of politics has always been cosmopolitics politics of a cosmos Cosmos embraces everything including the multifarious natural and material entities that make humans act The book examines cosmopolitics in its relation to design practice Abandoning the modernist idea of nature as being external to the human experience a nature that can be mastered by engineers and scientists from outside the cosmopolitical thinking offers designers to embark in an active process of manipulating and reworking nature from within To engage in cosmopolitics this book argues means to redesign create instigate and compose every single feature of our common experience In the light of this new understanding of nature we set the questions What is the role of design if nature is no longer salient enough to provide a background for human activities How can we foster designers own force and make present what causes designers to think feel and act How do designers make explicit the connection of humans to a variety of entities with different ontology rivers species particles materials and forces How do they redefine political order by bringing together stars prions and people In effect how should we understand design practice in its relation to the material and the living world In this volume anthropologists science studies scholars political scientists and sociologists rethink together the meaning of cosmopolitics for design At the same time designers architects and artists engage with the cosmopolitical question in trying to imagine the future of architectural and urban design The book contains original empirical chapters and a number of revealing interviews with artists and designers whose practices set examples of cosmopolitically correct design

Experiments with Body Agent Architecture Alessandro Ayuso, 2022-03-31 Experiments with Body Agent Architecture puts forward the notion of body agents non ideal animate and highly specific figures integrated with design to enact particular notions of embodied subjectivity in architecture Body agents present opportunities for architects to increase imaginative and empathic qualities in their designs particularly amidst a posthuman condition Beginning with narrative writing from the viewpoint of a body agent an estranged quattrocento spiritello who finds himself uncomfortably inhabiting a digital milieu or as the spiritello calls it Il Regno Digitale the book combines speculative historical fiction and original design experiments It focuses on the process of creating the multi media design experiments moving from the design of the body itself as an original prosthetic to architectural proposals emanating from the body A fragmented history of the figure in architecture is charted and woven into the designs with chapters examining Michelangelo s enigmatic figures in his drawings for the New Sacristy in the early sixteenth century Gian Lorenzo Bernini s physically ephemeral putti adorning chapels and churches in the seventeenth century and Austrian artist architect Walter Pichler s personal and prescient figures of the twentieth century

The Architect's Dream Sean

Pickersgill,2023-09-29 Sean Pickersgill demonstrates that the goal of creating meaningful architecture can take a variety of critical and philosophical paths The importance of architecture as an expression of broad complex social drivers is complemented by the equally popular idea that architecture as an intellectual pursuit retains its own autonomy as a self referential culture This book uniquely places the emphasis for innovation in architecture within the domain of critical thinking generally and a specific understanding of the semantics of built form The book draws on a broad range of subject areas from film to philosophy to anthropology to mathematics and economics to show that the path to meaningful creative practice is always based in an understanding of the principal drivers for change and meaning in society It is not a simple recipe book or workshop manual for others to reproduce It requires the engaged reader to employ their own creative abilities to find what potential lies in each of the propositions and it will encourage the scholastic architect to continue to mine the rich veins of intellectual culture to demonstrate the latent purposiveness inherent in all meaningful architecture

The Sustainable City IX N. Marchettini,C.A. Brebbia,R. Pulselli,S. Bastianoni,2014-09-23 Containing the proceedings of the 9th International Conference on Urban Regeneration and Sustainability this book addresses the multi disciplinary aspects of urban planning a result of the increasing size of cities the amount of resources and services required and the complexity of modern society Most of earth s population now lives in cities and the process of urbanisation still continues generating many problems deriving from the drift of the population towards them These problems can be resolved by cities becoming efficient habitats saving resources in a way that improves the quality and standard of living The process however faces a number of major challenges related to reducing pollution improving main transportation and infrastructure systems New urban solutions are required to optimise the use of space and energy resources leading to improvements in the environment i e reduction in air water and soil pollution as well as efficient ways to deal with waste generation These challenges contribute to the development of social and economic imbalances and require the development of new solutions Large cities are probably the most complex mechanisms to manage However despite such complexity they represent a fertile ground for architects engineers city planners social and political scientists and other professionals able to conceive new ideas and time them according to technological advances and human requirements The challenge of planning sustainable cities lies in considering their dynamics the exchange of energy and matter and the function and maintenance of ordered structures directly or indirectly supplied and maintained by natural systems Topics covered include Urban strategies Planning development and management Urban conservation and regeneration The community and the city Eco town planning Landscape planning and design Environmental management Sustainable energy and the city Transportation Quality of life Waterfront development Case studies Architectural issues Cultural heritage issues Intelligent environment and emerging technologies Planning for risk Disaster and emergency response Safety and security Waste management Infrastructure and society Urban metabolism The City in American Literature and Culture Kevin R. McNamara, 2021-08-05 This book examines what literature and film reveal about the urban USA Subjects include culture class race crime and disaster

Doing Disability Differently Jos Boys, 2014-05-23 This ground breaking book aims to take a new and innovative view on how disability and architecture might be connected Rather than putting disability at the end of the design process centred mainly on compliance it sees disability and ability as creative starting points for the whole design process It asks the intriguing question can working from disability actually generate an alternative kind of architectural avant garde To do this Doing Disability Differently explores how thinking about disability opens up to critical and creative investigation our everyday social attitudes and practices about people objects and space argues that design can help resist and transform underlying and unnoticed inequalities introduces architects to the emerging and important field of disability studies and considers what different kinds of design thinking and doing this can enable asks how designing for everyday life in all its diversity can be better embedded within contemporary architecture as a discipline offers examples of what doing disability differently can mean for architectural theory education and professional practice aims to embed into architectural practice attitudes and approaches that creatively and constructively refuse to perpetuate body norms or the resulting inequalities in access to and support from built space Ultimately this book suggests that re addressing architecture and disability involves nothing less than re thinking how to design for the everyday occupation of space more generally Architecture and Choreography Beth Weinstein, 2024-05-31 Architecture and Choreography Collaborations in Dance Space and Time examines the field of architectural choreographic experiments unique interdisciplinary encounters and performed events generated through collaborations between architects and choreographers Forty case studies spanning four decades give evidence of the range of motivations for embarking on these creative endeavors and diverse conceptual underpinnings generative methods objects of inquiry and outcomes Architecture and Choreography builds histories and theories through which to examine these works the contexts within and processes through which the works emerged and the critical questions they raise about ways to work together sites and citations ethics and equity control and agency Three themes frame pairs of chapters The first addresses disciplinarity through works that critically reflect upon their discipline s tools techniques and conventions juxtaposed against projects that cite or use other art forms and cultural phenomena as source material The second interrogates space and the role of spatial dispositifs institutions and sites and their hidden and not so hidden conditions as conceptual drivers and structures to subvert trouble unsettle remember The third asks who and what dances finding a spectrum from mobilized architectural bodies to more than human cybarcorps Modes of collaboration and the temporalities and life cycles of projects inform bookending chapters Architecture and Choreography offers vital lessons not only for architects and choreographers but also for students and practitioners across design and performance fields How to make yourself a Feminist Design Power Tool Hélène Frichot, 2016-11-01 Set amidst the experimental ecology of practices that supports feminist thinking and doing in architecture this small book outlines an instruction guide that presents six provocative steps toward the invention of productive concept tools It invites readers to explore creative and messy methodologies that combine an aesthetics with a practical ethics Frichot encourages us to think and do architecture in ways that challenge a dogmatic status quo that celebrates major gures while overlooking the care and labour of minor gures and practices Till death rips us apart Gábor Vona, 2022-08-27 In this book I am searching for the why of human culture Not what we do not how but why In my work I have tried to incorporate the findings of many disciplines into my cultural history model but I have really brought together five things my studies in history my political experiences existential psychology terror management theory and network theory Adam and Eve took a bite of the forbidden fruit and now we know what became of it But what if Adam and Eve return to Paradise after a long wander and there is nothing there In fact it turns out there never was It turns out they made it all up What does that imply Well that is the most important question of the twenty first century International Encyclopedia of Geography, 15 Volume Set Noel Castree, Michael F.
