A Mile In My Shoes Cultivating Compassion:

A Mile in My Shoes Trevor Hudson, 2017-05-15 We can be quick to pray for people around the world in times of trauma but has prayer become a way to avoid taking real action Are we reluctant to be fully aware of the suffering around us Trevor Hudson challenges us to see hear and respond to the needs of others recognizing the living Christ in all things Hudson designed an 8 day program a pilgrimage to help all Christians cultivate the depth of compassion Jesus demonstrated Through this program pilgrims learn to be present wherever they are and with whomever they meet We seldom become more compassionate without working at it writes Hudson One practical way to cultivate compassion involves building the pilgrimage experience into our lives The risen Christ meets us in the lives of those who suffer Join Trevor Hudson in this exploration of how to love your neighbor as yourself and choose compassion as part of your daily life McMaster Journal of Theology and Ministry: Volume 12 Hughson T. Ong, 2011-12-01 The McMaster Journal of Theology and Ministry is an electronic and print journal that seeks to provide pastors educators and interested lay persons with the fruits of theological biblical and professional studies in an accessible form Published by McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario it continues the heritage of scholarly inquiry and theological dialogue represented by the College s previous print publications the Theological Bulletin Theodolite and the McMaster Journal of Theology Chasing We-ness William Marsiglio, 2023-02-27 As humans we embrace our individuality yet we chase the comfort and sense of purpose that comes from being part of a group Especially timely given our polarized world Chasing We ness examines how social media AI new leadership styles and other modern developments affect our state of we ness It illuminates how our contemporary identities find expression in both progressive and conservative social movements that foster a sense of we ness Embracing the reality that we re all in this together the book interrogates our efforts to achieve a state of we ness that rejects hate social injustice and autocratic agendas in the twenty first century This book explores why how and with what effect we build we ness into our lives in both healthy and destructive ways William Marsiglio draws on his expertise as a leading sociologist to explore the motivational forces that inspire a sense of group belonging in intimate groups civic organizations thought communities sports and leisure activities and work Promoting initiatives that cultivate mindfulness empathy altruism and leadership Chasing We ness proposes essential life skills to empower us reduce social divisions strengthen the social fabric and uplift our spirits as global citizens Faith Seeking Conviviality Samuel E. Ewell, 2019-12-30 Faith Seeking Conviviality traces the journey of a U S missionary into Brazil and beyond seeking to be faithfully present while also questioning the default settings of good intentions Taking Ivan Illich as the primary theological guide on that journey Faith Seeking Conviviality narrates the discovery of a renewed imagination for Christian mission that arises as a response to two persistent questions First given the colonial history of Christian missionary expansion on what basis do we go on fulfilling the Great Commission Matt 28 16 20 as Christ s disciples A second question intimately related to the first is What makes it possible to embody a distinctively

Christian presence that is missionary without being manipulative In doing theology with and after Ivan Illich Faith Seeking Conviviality does not offer a pull off the shelf model for mission but rather a framework for embodying the incarnational logic of mission that entails a convivial turn delinking missionary discipleship from the lure of techniques and institutional dependence in order to receive and to share the peace of Christ relationally

Cultivating Empathy: Inspiring Health Professionals to Communicate More Effectively (Revised Edition) Kathleen Stephany,2022-01-04 Research demonstrates that even if empathy the capacity to perceive or share emotions with other beings or objects is not part of a person s communication skill set it can be taught Empathy can therefore be viewed as an acquired communication skill Cultivating and practicing the skill of empathy among health care providers enhances the quality of care experienced by their patients which in turn can even improve work satisfaction for health care providers Many communication textbooks or manuals for care giving professions primarily focus on specific communication skills and techniques Cultivating Empathy takes a different approach the book sets empathy as the foundation of all therapeutic interactions and teaches the reader to learn the art of empathy by using constructive approaches and research findings from social sciences and neuroscience Cultivating Empathy is perfect for any student or practicing health care professional who has felt that there was an absence of rapport when interacting with clients or patients and their families Real case narratives dynamic interactive exercises and simulation techniques are also provided in this text to assist helpers to learn how to be more empathetic Readers will gain awareness about human and emotional aspects of patient care which will hopefully make a positive contribution to their professional practice

The Missional Church in Perspective (The Missional Network) Craig Van Gelder,Dwight J Zscheile,2011-05-01 In this book two leading ministry experts place the missional church conversation in historical perspective and offer fresh insights for its further development They begin by providing a helpful review of the genesis of the missional church and offering an insightful critique of the Gospel and Our Culture Network s seminal book Missional Church which set the conversation in motion They map the diverse paths this discussion has taken over the past decade identifying four primary branches and ten sub branches of the conversation and placing over one hundred published titles and websites into this framework The authors then utilize recent developments in biblical and theological perspectives to strengthen and extend the conversation about missional theology the church s interaction with culture and cultures and church organization and leadership in relation to the formation of believers as disciples Professors students and church leaders will value this comprehensive overview of the missional movement It includes a foreword by Alan J Roxburgh

Personal, Educational and Organizational Transformation Judi Neal,2023-06-06 This book offers models ideas and processes for personal transformation educational transformation and organizational transformation in times of global crises We live in a time of Metacrisis an era in which several major crises occur at the same time Times like these historically have offered opportunities for breakthrough and transformation Our old leadership and educational models no longer work in this unpredictable and complex environment What does work in times of turmoil is the ability to envision and enact new models new systems and new forms of leadership The contributions in this book provide leaders and change agents with a broad perspective on how transformation can take place across different domains as well as practical steps that can be implemented in various situations It offers examples from different cultures regions and religions to help leaders quickly adapt and embrace whatever challenges that emerge Taken together the enclosed chapters provide a roadmap for a more positive future for all

We not Me Andy Matheson, 2014-06-01 It is well known that individualism and consumerism are so pervasive that they have become the spectacles through which we view and understand our lives including our spirituality Sadly we keep these glasses on as we read our Bibles and in the process we allow our reading to reinforce our individualism Many readers and expositors of the Bible take verses without due concern for their context In the process verses that were originally intended to be understood within a community setting are made to mean something different from what their authors intended One of the most serious consequences is that passages which refer to our community life are made to reinforce our individualism This is not handling the Word of Truth correctly In We Not Me Andy Matheson argues that we need to embrace the perspective of the God who sees His vision is relational he sees with communal lenses Community is so core to God s nature and purposes that it undergirds everything that is implicitly inferred or explicitly stated on every page of the Bible If we can rediscover what it means to be a community the kind of community where all barriers are broken down and where our lives reflect the original vision of the gospel then we play a much more effective part in ushering in God s Kingdom

My People Chanequa Walker-Barnes, 2019-10-01 Disrupting the racist and sexist biases in conversations on reconciliation Chanequa Walker Barnes offers a compelling argument that the Christian racial reconciliation movement is incapable of responding to modern day racism She demonstrates how reconciliation s roots in the evangelical male centered Promise Keepers movement has resulted in a patriarchal and largely symbolic effort focused upon improving relationships between men from various racial ethnic groups Walker Barnes argues that highlighting the voices of women of color is critical to developing any genuine efforts toward reconciliation Drawing upon intersectionality theory and critical race studies she demonstrates how living at the intersection of racism and sexism exposes women of color to unique experiences of gendered racism that are not about relationships but rather are about systems of power and inequity Refuting the idea that race and racism are one size fits all I Bring the Voices of My People highlights the particular work that White Americans must do to repent of racism and to work toward racial justice and offers a constructive view of reconciliation that prioritizes eliminating racial injustice and healing the damage that it has done to African Americans and other people of color American Book Publishing Record ,2005
