A Guide to the Phantom Dark Age Emmet Scott, 2014-03-01 Scott confronts conventional historians and looks at the evidence archaeological and textual for the proposition that three centuries roughly between 615 and 915 never existed and are phantom years The author shows in detail how no archaeology exists for these three centuries and that the material remains of the seventh century closely resemble those of the tenth and lie directly beneath them This is the first book on this topic in the English language though Heribert Illig's books on the same topic Das erfundene Mittelalter and Wer hat an der Uhr gedreht have been best sellers in German speaking Europe

Subud and the Javanese Mystical Tradition Antoon Geels, 1997 Subud is one of hundreds of mystical movements aliran kebatinan which have grown significantly in postwar Indonesia Along with other movements like Sumarah and Pangestu Subud has attracted people from the West and has now spread to about eighty countries Despite the fact that Subud leaders deny any relation to the Javanese mystical tradition it is one of the tasks of this study to show that the greater part of Subud's conceptual apparatus is firmly rooted in the cultural history of Java Under the banner of change and renewal Subud presents a message which fundamentally is one of continuity in a society in transition This text presents an overall picture of the history of Javanese mysticism particularly the concept of God the view of man and the techniques recommended in order to bridge the gap between God and man The text discusses the rise of mystical movements in post war Java along with a presentation of three movements which attracted the West In addition the book provides a biography of the founder of Subud the basic concepts of Subud and the meaning of the Subud spiritual exercise latihan kejiwaan along with an analysis of Subud theory and practice and its relation to the Javanese mystical tradition and a psychological interpretation of the spiritual exercise Flavors of Faith: Holy Breads Lynne Meredith Golodner, An African Worldview Ian D. Dicks, 2012 In this book Ian Dicks informs the reader about the ways in which the Yawo of Malawi view the world The Yawo are predominantly Muslim yet many maintain strong links with their traditional religion They are a largely oral society teaching and reinforcing their beliefs and practices using oral literature which includes myths proverbs proverbial stories songs of advice and prayers at various stages of the life cycle particularly during initiation events Ian Dicks describes in detail the Yawo s material world customs beliefs and rituals and juxtaposes these with Yawo oral literature He then examines them under six worldview categories the result being a rich description of the way in which the Yawo see the world This book is not an armchair study but has the feel of being written by an eyewitness by someone who has had first hand experience of the subject and who seeks to describe this in a manner which is sensitive to the Yawo and their culture

A Little History of Religion Richard Holloway, 2016-08-23 For curious readers young and old a rich and colorful history of religion from humanity s earliest days to our own contentious times In an era of hardening religious attitudes and explosive religious violence this book offers a welcome antidote Richard Holloway retells the entire history of religion from the dawn of religious belief to the twenty first century with deepest respect and a keen commitment to accuracy Writing for those with faith and those without and especially for young readers he encourages curiosity and tolerance accentuates nuance and mystery and calmly restores a sense of the value of faith Ranging far beyond the major world religions of Judaism Islam Christianity Buddhism and Hinduism Holloway also examines where religious belief comes from the search for meaning throughout history today s fascinations with Scientology and creationism religiously motivated violence hostilities between religious people and secularists and more Holloway proves an empathic yet discerning guide to the enduring significance of faith and its power from ancient times to our own The Power of Oratory in the Medieval Muslim World Linda G.

Jones, 2012-08-06 Oratory and sermons had a fixed place in the religious and civic rituals of pre modern Muslim societies and were indispensable for transmitting religious knowledge legitimising or challenging rulers and inculcating the moral values associated with being part of the Muslim community While there has been abundant scholarship on medieval Christian and Jewish preaching Linda G Jones s book is the first to consider the significance of the tradition of pulpit oratory in the medieval Islamic world Traversing Iberia and North Africa from the twelfth to the fifteenth centuries the book analyses the power of oratory the ritual juridical and rhetorical features of pre modern sermons and the social profiles of the preachers and orators who delivered them The biographical and historical sources which form the basis of this remarkable study shed light on different regional practices and the juridical debates between individual preachers around correct performance
