A Place Based Perspective Of Food In Society:

A Place-Based Perspective of Food in Society Kevin M. Fitzpatrick, Don Willis, 2015-08-18 This book provides an outstanding collection of interdisciplinary and international essays examining the food place relationship It explores such topics as the history of food and agriculture the globalization and localization of food and the role of place in defining the broader societal consequences of this ever changing phenomena

Feeding New Orleans Jeanne K. Firth, 2023-11-15 After Hurricane Katrina in 2005 many high profile chefs in New Orleans pledged to help their city rebound from the flooding Several formed their own charitable organizations including the John Besh Foundation to help revitalize the region and its restaurant scene A year and a half after the disaster when the total number of open restaurants eclipsed the pre Katrina count it was embraced as a sign that the city itself had survived and these chefs arguably became the de facto heroes of the city s recovery Meanwhile food justice organizations tried to tap into the city s legendary food culture to fundraise marketing high end dining events that centered these celebrity chefs Jeanne K Firth documents the growth of celebrity humanitarianism viewing the phenomenon through the lens of feminist ethnography to understand how elite philanthropy is raced classed and gendered Firth finds that cultures of sexism in the restaurant industry also infuse chef led philanthropic initiatives As she examines this particular flavor of elite celebrity based philanthropy Firth illuminates the troubled relationships between consumerism food justice movements and public private partnerships in development and humanitarian aid

Global Sustainable Practices in Gastronomic Tourism Rana, Varinder Singh, Raina, Ashish, Bathla, Gaurav, 2024-12-02 Developing sustainable practices in gastronomic tourism is essential for creating a responsible and impactful travel experience As travelers become conscious of their environmental and social impact the culinary tourism sector prioritizes sustainability at every stage This includes promoting local ingredients supporting small scale producers and minimizing food waste while also celebrating cultural heritage through authentic culinary experiences Gastronomic tourism enhances the visitor experience while contributing to the preservation of local ecosystems and communities Further research into gastronomic tourism is necessary to promote multi stakeholder cooperation between local communities companies NGOs and governments for improved sustainability of culinary tourism Global Sustainable Practices in Gastronomic Tourism explores sustainability principles in relation to culinary tourism including its effects on the environment society and economy It examines how sustainable tourism practices incorporate gastronomic heritage emphasizing the value of maintaining regional food systems and culinary customs This book covers topics such as conservation and preservation social media and waste management and is a useful resource for hospitality and tourism professionals economists environmental scientists marketers business owners academicians and researchers Elite Authenticity Gwynne Mapes, 2021 Food plays a central role in the production of culture and is likewise a powerful resource for the representation and organization of social order Status is asserted or contested through both the materiality of food its substance its raw economics and its manufacture or preparation and through its discursivity its marketing staging and the way it is depicted and discussed This intersection of materiality and discursivity makes food an ideal site for examining the place of language in contemporary class formations and for engaging cutting edge debates in sociolinguistics on language materiality In Elite Authenticity Gwynne Mapes integrates theories of mediatization materiality and authenticity in order to explore the discursive production of elite status and class inequality in food discourse Relying on a range of methodological approaches Mapes examines restaurant reviews and articles published in the New York Times food section a collection of Instagram posts from nytfood ethnographically informed fieldwork in four renowned Brooklyn NY restaurants and a recorded dinner conversation with six food enthusiasts Across these varied genres of data she demonstrates how a discourse of elite authenticity represents a particular surfacing of rhetorical maneuvers in which distinction is orchestrated avowed disavowed and circulated Elite Authenticity takes a multimodal critical discourse analysis approach drawing on theories from linguistics food and cultural studies anthropology sociology and philosophy Its presentation and analysis of aural visual spatial material and embodied discourse will be of interest to scholars and students of communication studies critical discourse studies sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology and cultural geography

Knowing Where It Comes From Fabio Parasecoli, 2017-08-15 Offering the first broadly comparative analysis of place based labeling and marketing systems Knowing Where It Comes From examines the way claims about the origins and meanings of traditional foods get made around the world Reflecting a rich array of juridical regulatory and activist perspectives these approaches seek to level the playing field on which food producers and consumers interact Book jacket

Participatory action research in a time of COVID and beyond Georgina McAllister, Sandra Bhatasara, Priscilla Claeys, Jo Howard, Stefanie Lemke, Katharine McKinnon, Nina Isabella Moeller, 2023-05-29 Resilience and Food Security in a Food Systems Context Christophe Béné, Stephen Devereux, 2023-03-25 This open access book compiles a series of chapters written by internationally recognized experts known for their in depth but critical views on questions of resilience and food security The book assesses rigorously and critically the contribution of the concept of resilience in advancing our understanding and ability to design and implement development interventions in relation to food security and humanitarian crises For this the book departs from the narrow beaten tracks of agriculture and trade which have influenced the mainstream debate on food security for nearly 60 years and adopts instead a wider more holistic perspective framed around food systems The foundation for this new approach is the recognition that in the current post globalization era the food and nutritional security of the world s population no longer depends just on the performance of agriculture and policies on trade but rather on the capacity of the entire food system to produce process transport and distribute safe affordable and nutritious food for all in ways that remain environmentally sustainable In that context adopting a food system perspective provides a more appropriate frame as it incites to broaden the conventional thinking and to acknowledge the systemic nature of the different processes and actors involved This book is written for a large audience from academics to policymakers students to practitioners This is an open access book Land Use Competition Jörg Niewöhner,Antje Bruns,Patrick Hostert,Tobias Krueger,Jonas Ø. Nielsen,Helmut Haberl,Christian Lauk,Juliana Lutz,Daniel Müller,2016-07-29 This book contributes to broadening the interdisciplinary knowledge basis for the description analysis and assessment of land use practices It presents conceptual advances grounded in empirical case studies on four main themes distal drivers competing demands on different scales changing food regimes and land water competition Competition over land ownership and use is one of the key contexts in which the effects of global change on social ecological systems unfold As such understanding these rapidly changing dynamics is one of the most pressing challenges of global change research in the 21st century This book contributes to a deeper understanding of the manifold interactions between land systems the economics of resource production distribution and use as well as the logics of local livelihoods and cultural contexts It addresses a broad readership in the geosciences land and environmental sciences offering them an essential reference guide to land use competition

Mapping COVID-19 in Space and Time Shih-Lung Shaw,Daniel Sui,2021-07-14 This book describes the spatial and temporal perspectives on COVID 19 and its impacts and deepens our understanding of human dynamics during and after the global pandemic It critically examines the role smart city technologies play in shaping our lives in the years to come The book covers a wide range of issues related to conceptual theoretical and data issues analysis and modeling and applications and policy implications such as socio ecological perspectives geospatial data ethics mobility and migration during COVID 19 population health resilience and much more With accelerated pace of technological advances and growing divide on political and policy options a better understanding of disruptive global events such as COVID 19 with spatial and temporal perspectives is an imperative and will make the ultimate difference in public health and economic decision making Through in depth analyses of concepts data methods and policies this book stimulates future studies on global pandemics and their impacts on society at different levels Pandemic Recovery? Lauren Andres,John R. Bryson,Aksel Ersoy,Louise

Reardon,2024-01-18 This timely book offers an integrated and pragmatic approach to understanding recovery from all types of shock Whilst particular focus is given to identifying and exploring various aspects of recovering societies in the context of COVID 19 Pandemic Recovery is framed with a wider appreciation of other societal challenges most notably anthropogenic climate change Talking about Food Sofia Rüdiger,Susanne Mühleisen,2020-06-15 All humans eat and all humans speak activities which in social life often but not always co occur We talk while eating and drinking with others but food is also a prominent literal and metaphorical discursive topic which contributes to establishing communities and identities This omnipresence of eating and drinking in our daily lives has led to a public fascination with foodways The contributions in this edited collection investigate the connection between language and food from a variety of perspectives As food discourses operate on local global and mediated levels they are intertwined with notions of identity and culture and thus shed light on intimate understandings of ourselves as human beings Talking about Food The Social and the Global in Eating Communities provides up to date and thought provoking contributions to the linguistics of food The book is essential reading for anyone interested in food related subjects New Metropolitan Perspectives Francesco Calabrò, Lucia Della Spina, Carmelina Bevilacqua, 2018-05-19 This book explores the role of cities and the urban rural linkages in spurring innovation embedded in spatial planning strategic and economic planning and decision support systems In particular the contributions examine the complexity of the current transitional phase towards achieving smart inclusive and sustainable growth and investigate the post 2020 UE cohesion policy The main topics include Innovation dynamics and smart cities Urban regeneration community led and PPP Inland and urban area development Mobility accessibility infrastructures Heritage landscape and Identity and Risk management Environment and Energy The book includes a selection of articles accepted for presentation and discussion at the 3rd International Symposium New Metropolitan Perspectives ISTH2020 held at the University of Reggio Calabria Italy on 22 25 May 2018 The symposium which addressed the challenge of local knowledge and innovation dynamics towards territory attractiveness hosted the final event of the MAPS LED project under Horizon2020 MSCA RISE Place-based Learning for the Plate Joel B. Pontius, Michael P. Mueller, David Greenwood, 2020-06-08 This edited volume explores 21st century stories of hunting foraging and fishing for food as unique forms of place based learning Through the authors narratives it reveals complex social and ecological relationships while readers sample the flavors of foraging in Portland Oregon feel some of what it s like to grow up hunting and gathering as a person of Oglala Lakota and Shoshone Bannock descent track the immersive process of learning to communicate with rocky mountain elk encounter a road killed deer as a spontaneous source of local meat and more Other topics in the collection connect place food and learning to issues of identity activism spirituality food movements conservation traditional and elder knowledge and the ethics related to eating the more than human world This volume will bring lively discussion to courses on place based learning food studies environmental education outdoor recreation experiential education holistic learning human dimensions of natural resource management sustainability food systems environmental ethics and others Food for the Future John Brueggemann, 2023-07-03 Food for the Future Stories from the Alternative Agro food Movement is about different foods the stories they contain and most of all the people in the stories John Brueggemann interviewed dozens of farmers chefs non profit managers consumers teachers and healthcare providers He argues that their individual stories point towards larger patterns that have shaped the alternative agro food movement and that other factors including the environmental movement farms lifestyle movements and consumers have all played a crucial role in its rise The author concludes that the alternative agro food movement is providing a countervailing force relative to mainstream market culture and that instead of efficiency profit consumption individualism and short term thinking the alternative agro food movement emphasizes meaning need creation community and long term thinking International Perspectives on the Contextualization of Science Education Ingrid Sánchez Tapia, 2020-02-03 This book explores how science learning can be more relevant and interesting for students and teachers by using a contextualized approach to science education The contributors explore the contextualization of science education from multiple angles such as teacher education curriculum design assessment and educational policy and from multiple national perspectives The aim of this exploration is to provide and inspire new practical approaches to bring science education closer to the lives of students to accelerate progress towards global scientific literacy The book presents real life examples of how to make science relevant for children and adolescents of diverse ethnic and language backgrounds socioeconomic status and nationalities providing tools and guidance for teacher educators and researchers to improve the contextualization and cultural relevance of their practice The book includes rigorous studies demonstrating that the contextualization of science learning environments is essential for student engagement in learning science and practitioners reflections on how to apply this knowledge in the classroom and at national scale This approach makes this book valuable for researchers and professors of science education and international education interested in designing teacher education courses that prepare future teachers to contextualize their teaching and in adding a critical dimension to their research agendas
