A Place Of My Own The Architecture Of Daydreams:

A Place of My Own Michael Pollan, 1997 At a turning point in his life writer Michael Pollan found himself dreaming of a small wood frame hut in the woods near his house a place to work but also a shelter for daydreams Weaving the practical with the philosophical this book presents a captivating personal inquiry into the art of architecture the craft of building and the meaning of modern work Line drawings throughout Size C 320 pp National ads publicity 35 000 print A place of my own ,2008 Quicklet on Michael Pollan's Place of My Own: The Architecture of Daydreams Vivian Choi, 2012-03-02 ABOUT THE BOOK A Place of My Own is the biography of a building writes Michael Pollan by way of introduction In the preface of the 2008 edition Mr Pollan reflects on his motivations for building a hut in his backyard He had reasons that many of us can relate to As we spend more and more of our days at desks in front of screens in shopping malls and grocery stores we become more removed from nature and the process of creating tangible things Mr Pollan embarks on journey to build a house from beginning to end from design to construction Along the way he learns about the history and philosophy of architecture and of course the practicalities of actually building a structure He warns us however that this is not a how to book While readers may be inspired to build a house after reading his book they would be well advised to seek instruction elsewhere MEET THE AUTHOR Vivian is an experienced writer and a member of the Hyperink Team which works hard to bring you high quality engaging fun content Happy reading EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK Different people have different requirements of the space in which they daydream Bachelard envisioned a comfortable space set apart from others perhaps just a comfortable chair by the fire or an attic Virginia Woolf also wrote about a space for daydreaming in her book A Room of One s Own from which the title of this chapter is derived For her A lock one the door means the power to think for oneself The idea of a room of one s own in which to think and create in private actually had its origins in the Renaissance It is thought that there was a reciprocity between the space in which individuals daydreamed and developed their sense of self and the spaces that they then created Charles R Myer Unlike the preceding daydreamers Pollan dreams of an entire building rather than a room within a house On the simplest level he wanted to build a hut because the architect helping to renovate his house mentioned that the view from the upstairs window needed a destination for the eye to see A bench would help but a little structure would be even better Here we are introduced to Charles R Myer a college friend of Pollan s He is described as a true architect with an architect s attention to detail and image hidden beneath a carefully engineered facade of casual rumple Myer is helping them renovate their home in Connecticut They are four months behind schedule and onto their second mortgage Buy a copy to keep reading Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice_ch3n81, 2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science

Phenomenologies of the Stranger Richard Kearney, Kascha Semonovitch, 2011 What is strange Or better who is strange When do we encounter the strange This volume takes the question of hosting the Stranger to the deeper level of embodied imagination and the senses It asks How does the embodied imagination relate to the Stranger in terms of hospitality or hostility given the common root of hostis as both host and enemy How do humans sense the dimension of the strange and alien in different religions arts and cultures How do the five physical senses relate to the spiritual senses especially the famous sixth sense as portals to an encounter with the Other Is there a carnal perception of alterity which would operate at an affective prereflective preconscious level What exactly do embodied imaginaries of hospitality and hostility entail And what finally are the topical implications of these questions for an ethics and practice of tolerance and peace

Teardown Gordon Young, 2021-02-23 After living in San Francisco for fifteen years journalist Gordon Young found himself yearning for his Rust Belt hometown Flint Michigan the birthplace of General Motors and the star of the Michael Moore documentary Roger Me Hoping to rediscover and help a place that had once boasted one of the world's highest per capita income levels but had become one of the country's most impoverished and dangerous cities he returned to Flint with the intention of buying a house What he found was a place of stark contrasts and dramatic stories where an exotic dancer could afford a lavish mansion speculators scooped up cheap houses by the dozen on eBay and arson was often the quickest route to neighborhood beautification He also uncovered the misguided policies flawed leadership and unforgiving economic trends that lead to disasters like the Flint water crisis Updated with a new preface Young skillfully blends personal memoir historical inquiry and interviews with Flint residents constructing a vibrant tale of a once thriving city still fighting despite overwhelming odds to rise from the ashes Hard hitting insightful and often painfully funny Teardown reminds us that cities are ultimately defined by the people who live there Back cover time to think deeply Place Marketing and Temporality Gary Warnaby,2024-06-26 Much city marketing and branding activity is future oriented aimed at achieving a forward looking vision for places The aim of this activity is to attract visitors residents and or inward investment and focus on communicating attractive place attributes to create a differentiated spatial product that will appeal to particular target audiences In seeking to achieve this place marketing campaigns have been criticized for emphasizing generic attributes such as accessibility infrastructure and a skilled workforce which can serve to homogenize places which in reality are very different However a city s distinctive character is a consequence of its history and development over time and this book analyses the role of these temporal dimensions in place marketing and branding The book analyses how the past both material i e the historic built environment and intangible i e routines practices and the character of the populace is appropriated in order to sell the city into the future It acknowledges the inherent selectivity involved and discusses the factors influencing what is remembered from the past and equally importantly what is forgotten Adopting a range of theoretical approaches to understanding temporality in this context the book will appeal to advanced students academic researchers and reflexive place branding practitioners by introducing a temporal paradox incorporating both fixity the material and immaterial elements of the city s past and fluidity relating to the creation of the place product as a dynamic assemblage of individual elements and attributes aimed at particular target audiences Kayanerenkó:wa

Kayanesenh Paul Williams,2018-10-26 Several centuries ago the five nations that would become the Haudenosaunee Mohawk Oneida Onondaga Cayuga and Seneca were locked in generations long cycles of bloodshed When they established Kayanerenk wa the Great Law of Peace they not only resolved intractable conflicts but also shaped a system of law and government that would maintain peace for generations to come This law remains in place today in Haudenosaunee communities an Indigenous legal system distinctive complex and principled It is not only a survivor but a viable alternative to Euro American systems of law With its emphasis on lasting relationships respect for the natural world building consensus and on making and maintaining peace it stands in contrast to legal systems based on property resource exploitation and majority rule Although Kayanerenk wa has been studied by anthropologists linguists and historians it has not been the subject of legal scholarship There are few texts to which judges lawyers researchers or academics may refer for any understanding of specific Indigenous legal systems Following the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and a growing emphasis on reconciliation Indigenous legal systems are increasingly relevant to the evolution of law and society In Kayanerenk wa The Great Law of Peace Kayanesenh Paul Williams counsel to Indigenous nations for forty years with a law practice based in the Grand River Territory of the Six Nations brings the sum of his experience and expertise to this analysis of Kayanerenk wa as a living principled legal system In doing so he puts a powerful tool in the hands of Indigenous and settler communities Conversations in a Park Regina Ryan,2019 Conversations in a Park is a light hearted book of motivational musings peppered with research and wisdom from the worlds of psychology philosophy and classic literature Dr Regina Ryan argues that the chaos that accompanies motherhood should be countered by creating stolen moments throughout the day and using these with discipline and consistency to connect to your inner self through solitude daily rituals expressing creativity and learning how to condition yourself to choose one thought over another The main philosophy is to think small and in time you will find that the big has been hiding in the small all along

Architecture, Technology and Process Chris Abel, 2007-03-30 This new selection of essays follows Chris Abel's previous best selling collection Architecture and Identity Drawing upon a wide range of knowledge and disciplines the author argues that underlying technological changes in the process of architectural production are fundamental changes in the way we think about machines and the world we live in Key topics include new patterns of urbanism in the fast growing cities of Asia Pacific metaphorical extensions of mind and body in cyberspace the divergent European and North American values shaping Sir Norman Foster's and Frank Gehry's work and the collaborative work methods and technologies creating the adaptable design practices of today
